Athletics Hall of Fame Inducts Five

By Dave Caspole '94

The Westfield State Athletics Hall of Fame grew larger last fall with the induction of five new members: Mike Walker '75, Kevin Dalton '77, Tim Corr '02, Pat Ryan '04, and Tessa Donoghue '05. Longtime Hall of Fame Committee Member Loren "Squire" Bressor was also honored with the Jim Hagan Award for his service to Athletics. Bressor coached University tennis in the 1980s, has been a 19-year member of the committee, and is a consistent supporter of the Owl Club.

The following are brief snapshots of each of the inductees:

Walker served as the goalkeeper on the Owls soccer team that advanced to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Final Four in 1974. During his remarks, Walker produced a tattered soccer ball from 1974. "Practice was like mealtime with a large family; if you got there late, this is what you got," Walker said. "One of Coach [John] Kurty's life lessons was to be accountable."

Dalton was a standout cross-country runner and a two-time national qualifier in the men's steeplechase in track and field, and he still holds the school record in that event. He acknowledged a large group of teammates who attended to support his induction. "We had some great times with Coach [Jerry] Gravel," said Dalton. "My only regret is that I didn't listen to him more closely!"

Corr was an All-American defensive end on the Owls' football team that posted an unbeaten regular season in 2001 and advanced to the NCAA Playoffs for the first (and only, to date) time in program history.

Donoghue was one of the most decorated Westfield State athletes, earning six All-American awards and finishing second in the nation in both the long jump and triple jump in just a year and a half as a transfer track and field athlete at Westfield.

Ryan, who still holds the record for career batting average, noted that his college academic career was initially a rocky one—going to school to "major in baseball" before taking a few years off. "After six years of hammering nails, roofing, and frostbite, I went back to school," said Ryan. "That was one of the best decisions I ever made." He transferred to Westfield State as an older student and hit better than 0.400 in each of his two years with the program. He continued to follow through with his education and received a master's degree from the University in occupational and vocational education in December 2015. "I did go professional—as a son, a husband, a father, and a teacher. Today's honor only adds to the baseball dream I once was chasing."

Information on nominating future Hall of Fame candidates can be found at westfieldstateowls.com. ■

Dear Robert ,

We have been busy with preparations for the 2015 Westfield State University Athletics Hall of Fame inductions and would like to extend to you a special invitation to attend. We are excited about the installment of this year's Hall of Fame Class, and we hope that you will attend as we induct your newest "teammates".

The inductions will take place Friday, October 16, in the Scanlon Banquet Hall. The social hour begins at 6:00 p.m. with the dinner to follow at 7:00.

As a member of the prestigious Westfield State Athletics Hall of Fame, we are offering you a complimentary ticket to the induction dinner. Additional tickets can be purchased for $55 per person (see form below). If you would like to attend, please complete the reservation form below and return it by October 9, or contact Associate A.D. Dave Caspole at 413-572-5433 if you have any questions.

Thank you for your continued support of Westfield State and our athletics program. This is a very special night for Westfield State athletics and I look forward to seeing you at this year's induction.

Sincerely,

Richard Lenfest Jr.

Owls lose to Framingham State

Tim Jaroche
Voice Reporter

Throughout the season, our 1-4 Owls have struggled in multiple close games. With a record of 5-1, Framingham State showed up to play this weekend and would seemingly roll over the home team.

To start the game Westfield began with the ball. They took the initial kick off and returned it to their own 40. The Owls moved the ball efficiently down to Framingham's 21-yardline where they were stopped on the 4th and 1. Westfield's defense showed up early however, holding Framingham to 9 yards on 6 plays on their next drive before they punted it away.

Upon receiving the ball, Westfield would go 3 and out. Framingham received the following punt and would go 61 yards in 8 plays for the first score of the game. The touchdown came on a pass from quarterback Matthew Silva to wide receiver Tevin Jones. The point was good, and Framingham took a 7-0 lead.

On the next drive, Westfield would struggle. They ended the drive with a punt after losing 15 yards on 6 plays. This put the quarter to an end.

Playing the way that they were and only being down by 7, Westfield was in a good position to stay in the game; however, the Owls would need to be a lot more productive on offense if they had any hope of getting into the game.

In the second quarter, Framingham would score twice to make their lead 21-0 at half. The first score came early in the second on a 34-yard touchdown pass from Silva to wide receiver Napoleon Miller. The other score came on a 72-yard punt return by Framingham's Quron Wright.

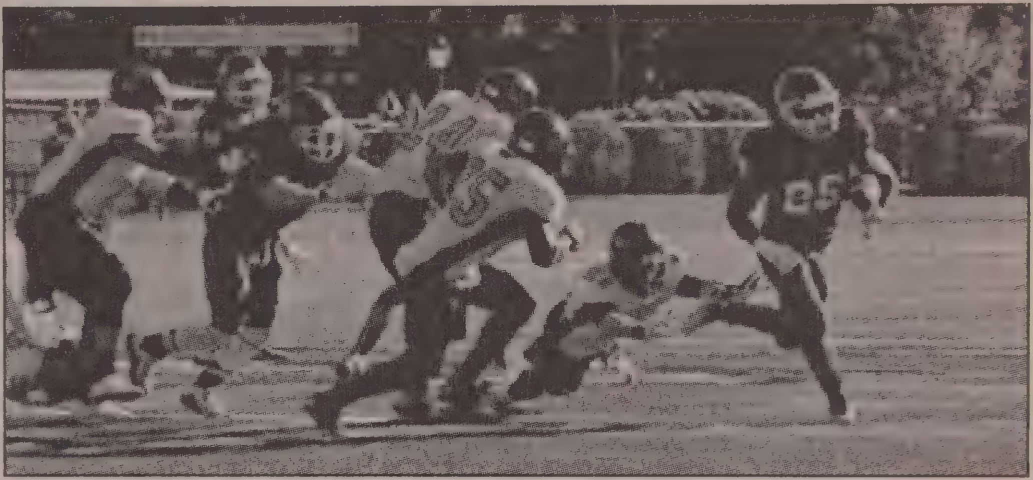
Westfield really needed to gather themselves at half time if they had any hope of pulling out a win. Overcoming a 21-point deficit is never easy, and they would have to play lights out if they were to make a comeback.

In the second half, Westfield would put together an impressive 13 play, 77 yard scoring drive. Running back Travon Holder ran it in from Framingham's 10-yardline for the score. The PAT was good and the score was 21-7, Framingham on top.

Unfortunately, that was all of the points Westfield would put up. In the fourth, Framingham would reach the end zone twice more: one coming on an 8-yard run from Jalen Green and the other on a 1-yard pass from Silva to Jones.

With four games left, all against MASCAC opponents, Westfield will do what they can to salvage the season. In every game this season, the Owls have been competitive at one point or another; however, they just have not played a game where everything clicks for all four quarters.

Their next game will be their Homecoming game this Saturday against Mass Maritime. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m.



Freshman running back, Travon Holder, 29, makes a break for the sideline in the Owls most recent game agaisnt Framingham State. He had the only touchdown for Westfield after he made it to the endzone on a 10-yard rush up the middle.

Bridgewater betters WSU

BRIDGEWATER – Sophomore running back Alex McLaughlin (Littleton, Mass.) rushed for 164 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Bridgewater State University football team to a convincing 48-20 Homecoming victory over visiting Westfield State University in a Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) contest on Saturday afternoon at Swenson Field.

The host Bears improve to 6-2 on the season and 5-1 in the MASCAC standings with their fourth straight win, while the Owls slide to 2-5 overall and 1-4 in conference play. Bridgewater is now 25-9 all-time versus Westfield as the two teams have met every season since 1982.

Bridgewater scored the first 35 points off the contest and were never threatened. The Bears racked up 499 yards of total offense including a season-high 356 on the ground. The BSU defense forced two turnovers and limited the Owls to just 35 rushing yards.

Senior running back Carlton Williamson (North Easton, Mass.) added 96 yards on 15 carries, while junior quarterback Danny Higgins (Manahawkin, N.J.) completed 12 of 26 passes for 143 yards to go along with a rushing touchdown.

Sophomore defensive end Emmanuel Omere (Bessemer, Ala.) paced the BSU defense with four solo tackles including a sack and three tackles for loss. Omere also forced a fumble and broke up a pass. Junior defensive tackle Elvis Romero (Wayne, N.J.) added four solo stops including a pair of sacks, while sophomore cornerback Kyle Dance (West Roxbury, Mass.) registered four solo tackles with one for loss, forced a fumble, and had two pass breakups including his second interception of the season.

On their first possession of the game, the Bears marched 59 yards on eight plays with Higgins rushing for a two-yard touchdown. On the first play of the Owls' ensuing possession, Dance intercepted a pass and returned the ball 20 yards down to the Westfield 27. Five plays later, sophomore receiver Travis Bassett (Littleton, Mass.) punched it in from three yards out as the Bears led 14-0 midway through the first quarter.

McLaughlin rushed for scores of 22 and 48 yards in the second quarter as the Bears took a 28-0 lead into halftime.

Bridgewater marched 65 yards on nine plays capped off by a McLaughlin 13-yard touchdown run to open the third quarter.

Westfield quickly responded with a 55-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Erik Washburn (Lisbon, Conn.) to classmate Colin Smith (Groton, Conn.). The Owls recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff at the Bears' 20-yard line. Four plays later, junior running back Bryan Waruhiu (Dracut, Mass.) barreled into the end zone from a yard out to cut the deficit to 35-13 (the PAT was blocked).

A pair of one-yard touchdowns runs by McLaughlin and sophomore running back Malik Garrett (Dorchester, Mass.) capped off the scoring for the Bears who built a 48-13 advantage with 8:55 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Westfield sophomore quarterback Phil Cohen (Lyme, Conn.) hooked up with Smith on a 27-yard scoring strike to account for the final score of 48-20.

Washburn completed 9 of 19 passes for 111 yards and a touchdown. He threw an interception and was sacked four times. Smith finished with game-high receiving totals of five catches for 113 yards and two touchdowns.

Sophomore linebacker John Ollari (Millers Falls, Mass.) led the Westfield defense with 15 tackles (13 solo), while senior free safety Greg Sheridan (Burlington, Mass.) chipped in with 13 tackles (11 solo). Senior linebacker Marcus Pettigrew (Auburn, Mass.) had five tackles including three for loss and pair of sacks.

The Bears had possession of the football for nearly 19 more minutes than the Owls (39:26 to 20:34) and held a 28-10 advantage in first downs. Bridgewater converted 6 of 17 third down plays and finished a perfect 5-for-5 on fourth down. Westfield went 1-for-9 on third down and 0-for-2 on fourth.

Following a bye week, the Bears host Framingham State University on Saturday, November 7th at noon. The Owls entertain Fitchburg State University next Saturday, October 31st at 1:00 PM.

Late TD foils Owls' senior day

WESTFIELD – Fitchburg State's Garret Dellachiaie found Ty Spencer in the end zone on a 15-yard touchdown pass with six seconds left in regulation as the Falcons rallied for a 13-7 win over Westfield State on Saturday afternoon at Alumni Field.

Fitchburg State improves to 6-3 with the win, 4-2 in the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletics Conference, while Westfield falls to 2-6, 1-4 in the MASCAC.

Dellachiaie drove the falcons 72 yards in a 1:07 with just one timeout available on the game winning drive. He connected for 18 yards with tight end Devin Summiel on the first play of the drive, and later scrambled out of trouble for 15 yards to help set up the winning score.

The game was an ugly, scoreless tie for the first 49:02 of the contest. The officials whistled the two teams for a combined 24 penalties for 243 yards, and the teams combined for nine fumbles (five lost) and five interceptions.

Westfield State found the scoreboard first on a 1-yard Travon Holder run that capped a seven play, 61 yard drive. The Owls got an apparent touchdown when quarterback Erik Washburn lofted a 25 yard pass to wider receiver Sam Laurin, who dove for the pylon, but was then ruled out of bounds at the 1-yard line. Westfield ran four plays from the 1-yard line, getting extra life on a Fitchburg pass interference penalty, and then on the fifth attempt Holder took a delayed handoff to the left side for the score and a 7-0 Westfield lead with 10:58 left in the fourth quarter.

Fitchburg got on the board with 6:00 left in the game, with the Falcons scoring on a 9-yard TD pass from Dellachiaie to Devin Summiel that capped a five-play 20-yard drive after the Falcons recovered an Owls fumble to set up the short field. The touchdown play was not without controversy as it came on a fourth-and-goal play and the play clock visibly expired before the ball was snapped.

Dellachiaie finished with 269 yards passing on 28-50 passing. Summiel and Spencer finished with identical receiving lines of seven catches for 81 yards and a touchdown each.

Westfield was led by 81 yards rushing from Holder on 18 carries. Washburn completed 13 of 32 passes for 171 yards.

Defensively, westfield got a standout game from senior linebacker Marcus Pettigrew, who made 15 tackles (seven solo) had four tackles-for-loss, one sack, forced one fumble and recovered two more. John Ollari finished with 14 tackles and returned an interception for 33 yards.

Luis Feliz led the Falcons with 10 tackles, while Cyrick Watford come up with 1.5 sacks.

The heartbreaking loss foiled the Owls senior day. Westfield recognized the 21 seniors and their families prior to the game.

Football loses big to Bridgewater

Andrew McIntosh
Voice Reporter

This past Saturday, Westfield traveled to Bridgewater where they could not stop the surging Bears' offense.

Overall, Bridgewater's offense piles up 499 yards of total offense, an absurd 356 of those yards came on the ground. Meanwhile, the Owls offense managed a mere 35 rushing yards, while turning the ball over twice.

The turnovers came early for the Owls' and really killed them before they got a chance to grab any momentum. After a Bridgewater touchdown, the first turnover came on a Kyle Dance interception, which the bears turned into a quick 7 points.

Halfway through the first quarter the Bears' led by 14 and never looked back. At the half the score was 28-0.

It didn't stop there as just minutes into the second half, the Bears broke across for another touchdown, making it 35-0.

However, Westfield was able gain some momentum, as they responded to being down 35-0 quickly. Quarterback Erik Washburn threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to senior Colin Smith. The Owls' were finally on the board.

On the ensuing kickoff, Westfield recovered a fumble on the Bears' 20-yard line and Bryan Waruhiu was able to get the ball into the end zone just four plays later. The ball was starting to tip in Westfield's favor.

However Bridgewater had different plans, as they were able to slow down the game, keeping Westfield's offense off the field. This eventually would bleed the Owls' out, scoring on a pair of 1-yard rushes by sophomore running backs Alex Mclaughlin and Malik Garrett.

Westfield were able to break through one more time on a 27 yard pass from Sophomore quarterback Phil Cohen to Colin Smith, but it was too little too late.

Mclaughlin finished the day with 164 rushing yards and 4 touchdowns, next to Senior running back Carlton Williamson, who rushed for 96 yards on 15 carries. Bridgewater's quarterback Danny Higgins completed 12 of his 26 passes for 143 yards and finished with a rushing touchdown.

The Owls' Colin Smith had a career game in the losing effort. He impressed with 5 catches for 113 yards and 2 touchdowns on the day. Sophomore linebacker John Ollari also did well with 15 tackles on the day.

The story of the game was possession time. The Bears held the ball for 20 minutes more than the Owls' on Saturday, which really hurt.

The Bears also converted 6 of their 17 tries on third and were a perfect 5 for 5 on fourth down conversions. The Owls on the other hand were 1 for 9 on third down and failed to convert on fourth down twice.

The Owls slip to 2-5 on the season after the loss and move to 1-4 in the MASCAC conference. Their next game is against Fitchburg State at Alumni Field.

Pettigrew Named MASCAC Defensive Player of the Week

WESTFIELD, Mass. - Westfield State senior linebacker Marcus Pettigrew (Auburn/Auburn, Mass) has earned MASCAC defensive player of the week for his stellar play in a loss against Fitchburg State.

Pettigrew piled up a total of 15 tackles including four for a loss. Pettigrew also recorded a sack and hurried the opposing quarterback three times. His forced fumble and two fumble recoveries capped off an all-around solid game for the Owls' team captain.

Pettigrew has been a defensive leader all year. He is currently leading the team in sacks with four on the season. His sack total ties him for seventh overall in the MASCAC. Pettigrew's 11 tackles for loss also rank first on the team and fourth overall in the conference.

In the last four games, Pettigrew has racked up 39 total tackles and three sacks. His overall 72 total tackles on the season ranks him second on the team and fourth overall in the conference.

Westfield is 2-6 on the season and 1-5 in the MASCAC. Westfield will play their next game Saturday, November 7th against league rival Worcester State. Kickoff time is noon.

Football had a bit of an off year with their record currently at 2-7. However things could be very different if a few bounces went the Owl's way. Three of their losses were close back and forth games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

It has been another successful athletic season here at Westfield State and the winter sports shouldn't be any different.

Football lands three on MASCAC First Team

WESTFIELD, Mass. – The Westfield State football team landed three players on the 2015 Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference All-Conference team, as voted on by the league's coaches.

Senior captain Marcus Pettigrew (Auburn, Mass.) and sophomore punter John Ollari (Millers Falls, Mass.) earned spots on the First Team All-Defense, while senior captain Ryan Sweeney (Pocasset, Mass.) nabbed the first team spot at fullback.

Pettigrew, a 6-foot, 235-pound defensive end, ranked second in the MASCAC in tackles for loss (16) and fourth in sacks (6), and total tackles (88). A first team selection as a junior, Pettigrew finishes his collegiate career with 232 total tackles, 46 tackles for loss, and 18.5 sacks.

Ollari led the MASCAC in punting average at 40.9 yards per punt. He pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line on 11 of his 42 punts and had a long punt of 70 yards. In addition to his punting duties, Ollari played linebacker for the Owls, registering more solo tackles (66) and total tackles (93) than any other player in conference action.

Sweeney, a 5-foot-11, 210-pound fullback, is a repeat All-Conference selection. The senior captain was a strong lead blocker, helping both of the Owls main running backs average 4.5 yards per carry or more. He also rushed for two touchdowns and averaged 4 yards per carry.

Here is the full list of the All-MASCAC football selections.

Framingham State senior quarterback Matt Silva earned Offensive Player of the Year, while Matt Mangano of Framingham Sate was named Defensive Player of the Year.

The Westfield Owls took on Western Connecticut University in the final game of the season last Saturday. West Conn took home the victory in a shootout that ended with a score 63-42. This game was the highest scoring game in history for the Owls totaling 105 points.

To Start the game, West Conn put together an impressive 73 yard drive on 13 plays. Westfield didn't have the same success on their first drive punted the ball back to West Conn. The on their next offensive possession West Conn was driving in Westfield territory when they fumbled and it was recovered by John Ollari who returned it to the West Conn one yard line. This was a huge shift in momentum swing for the Owls.

On the Next play Bryan Waruhiu went over the top to tie the game at 7 a piece. West Conn then responded with a 59-yard touchdown. The Owls once again responded with a Waruhiu touchdown in order to close out the first quarter 14 all.

Unfortunately the Owls couldn't get anything going at the start of the second. It was West Conn with all the momentum scoring four touchdowns including one to close out the first half. With Westfield trailing at half they needed a spark to get their offense going again.

The Owls received the ball in the second half and took advantage. Running an impressive seven-minute drive taking the ball down 64 yards in 12 plays. It was freshmen Travon Holder that ran it up the gut to make it 42-21. West Conn then responded with a touchdown of their own to make the score 49-21.

A costly fumble for the Owls on their own 25 put West Conn in scoring position and they converted it for a score to make it 56-21.

Then with short time to go in the third the Owls to cap off their 11 play 73 yard drive they went to once again Waruhiu who punched it in to make it 56-28 going into the final quarter of play.

West Conn had one more touchdown in the fourth quarter to make their total for the day 63. Westfield closed out the game with two touchdowns in the air. The first coming from Senior Quarterback Eric Washburn connected with Colin Smith to score a 29-yard touchdown pass. The second touchdown pass went to Smith also but by the way of sophomore quarterback Phil Cohen. Cohen hit Smith over the middle for a 45-yard touchdown pass, which made the final score of the game 63-42.

The final stats for Washburn were 17/27 for 164 yards and one touchdown. Cohen threw for 101 yards and a touchdown. Senior wide out Colin smith ended the day with 101 yards receiving and two touchdowns. Along with Waruhiu having 85 rushing yards for three touchdowns. On the defensive side of the ball John Ollari racked up 15 tackles 14 of them coming solo. Noting also that this was the fourth time this season the Owls have managed to score 40 plus points.

Overall this was a season for the Owls with many games that could have gone either way. There was a lot of fight in this team that was easy to tell for sure.

Marino to be honored

Dec. 1, 2015

WESTFIELD — Retired Westfield State University football coach Steve Marino will receive the George C. Carens award for lifetime contributions to college football in New England at the 2015 New England Football Writers' Association Annual Awards and Captains Banquet on December 10.

Marino was the head coach for 24 years at Westfield State, compiling a 119-115-1 record before retiring after the 2013 season.

After a one-year hiatus from coaching, Marino rejoined the Owls staff this year to serve as offensive coordinator on Pete Kowalski's staff.

Marino, 66, had the third longest tenure among active coaches in New England Division III football at the time of his retirement, trailing only Springfield College's Mike DeLong (31 years) and Worcester State's Brien Cullen (28 years). The Owl mentor roamed the sidelines for 24 of the first 32 years that Westfield State fielded a varsity football team. He coached 235 games highlighted by three consecutive New England Football Conference championship game appearances in 2001, 2002, and 2003.

Marino guided the 2001 Westfield squad to its first and only perfect regular season, a 10-0 record. The Owls won the New England Football Conference championship and qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

During the special 2001 season, Marino was selected as the American Football Coaches Association Northeast Region Coach of the Year, the New England Division II/III Coach of the Year, and the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston Division II/III Coach of the Year.

Retired Westfield State head football coach Steve Marino will be honored with the George C. Carens Award for liftime contrbutions to New England Collegiate Football at the New England Football Writers Banquet on December 10.

Marino's coaching career spans a total of 42 years. The 1967 graduate of Springfield Classical High School coached football at Ludlow High School for 16 years, including an eight-year stint as the head coach from 1979-86. He served as defensive coordinator at Western New England University in 1987 before returning to Ludlow as an assistant in 1988.

Marino received his B.A. degree in 1971 and his master's degree in 1978 from Westfield State. He taught English at Ludlow High School for 29 years then moved into an administrative post as dean of students for six years. He retired from his full-time job in the Ludlow school system in June of 2006.

The Carens award is named after the sportswriter and editor for the 1930s -1950s Boston Transcript and Boston Traveler newspapers, and is considered the highest award presented by the New England Football Writers.

Past Carens recipients include coaches Jack Bicknell (Boston College), Joe Restic (Harvard), Carmen Cozza (Yale), Dick Farley (Williams); writers John Connolly of the Boston Herald, Bob Monahan of the Boston Globe; and longtime UMass athletic director, Warren McGuirk.

Retired Bridgewater State head coach Peter Mazzaferro was the last recipient with ties to the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference. Longtime Northeastern SID Jack Grinold and former Northeastern coach Barry Gallup were the winners last year.

The 2015 New England Football Writers' Association Annual Awards and Captains Banquet will be held on December 10th at the Montvale Plaza in Stoneham, Mass. The reception will be at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $50. Contact Dick Lipe at Bentley University at (781) 891-2334 to reserve a ticket. – Courtesy of Westfield State University Sports

Ollari earns All-East Region honors

WESTFIELD — Westfield State University sophomore punter John Ollari (Turners Falls HS/Millers Falls, Mass.) has earned all-region honors from the national website D3.football.com.

Ollari was chosen to the second team of the All-East Region team. The East Region is comprised of 73 schools in the northeast from Maine to Delaware.

Ollari, who was previously selected as a first-team All-Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletics Conference choice, led the MASCAC in punting with 42 punts for an average of 40.9 yards per kick. He had 11 punts inside the opponents' 20, and yielded six fair catches.

D3football.com has presented All-Region teams since 2005. Ollari is the sixth member of the Owls to be named to the all-region team, joining LB Jason Fiedling, 2007 (2nd), 2008 (2nd); WR David Benoit, 2008 (2nd); DE Nick Gniadek, 2009 (2nd); CB Josh Mathiueu, 2009 (1st); and P Chris Stengel, 2009 (1st), 2010 (3rd).

Ollari also played as a linebacker on the Owls' defensive unit and led the Owls with 107 total tackles, three interceptions and a pair of fumble recoveries.

Marcus Pettigrew earned All-ECAC honors for the second consecutive year

Pettigrew Named First-Team ECAC All-Star

WESTFIELD — Westfield State senior defensive lineman Marcus Pettigrew added another trophy to his case, as he was named to the ECAC Division III North All Star team for the second straight year.

Pettigrew was a first-team selection after a 2015 campaign in which he posted 88 tackles. He led the Owls with 16 tackles-for-losses and six sacks. He hurried the quarterback five more times and recovered two fumbles while forcing another.

He was previously named to the 2015 Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletics Conference first team.

Pettigrew was an ECAC second team pick a year ago. The ECAC North team recognizes players selected from among all NCAA Division III programs in New England and Upstate New York.

Pettigrew finishes his collegiate career with 232 total tackles, 46 tackles for loss, and 18.5 sacks.

Volleyball tops Lancers of Worcester State

Oct. 16, 2015

WSU Athletic Department

Kendyl Haney hammered out 15 kills to lead Westfield State as the Owls took the 3-0 win over Worcester State with set scores of 25-10, 25-19, and 25-15.

With the win the Owls improve to 2-2 MASCAC and 7-12 overall. The Lancers drop to 0-3 in conference play and 6-13 overall.

The Lancers marked the first two points of the match, as junior Jamika Townsend (Virginia Beach, Va.) recorded a kill and senior Jennifer Cabral (Swansea, Mass.) listed the team's first service ace of the night. Although, the Owls came out fighting and took the lead off a kill from senior Kendyl Haney (Ashland, Mass.) and two service aces from freshman Lizzie Taylor (Medfield, Mass.). The Owls kept their points rolling as they held the Lancers to only eight more points in the first set, resulting in the 25-10 win.

The second match of the game was much closer than the first as the Lancers rallied with the Owls, resulting in tied scores at nine and 10 on a kill from Worcester State's Cabral and Westfield's sophomore Courtney Ryan (Quincy, Mass.). It wasn't long after that the Owls went on a scoring binge off three kills from Haney and Worcester State errors to increase the Owls lead. Worcester State rallied back once again, but the Owls kept attacking and scored seven unanswered points to take the big lead and eventually win the set.

The Lancers had a chance to stay in the game with a win in the third set, but a group of errors resulted in a chance for the Owls to seal the deal and take the 3-0 win.

Westfield State recorded an overall .367 attack percentage throughout the night, while Worcester State logged a .040 attack percentage overall.

Westfield State's Haney recorded a game-high 15 kills on the night with a remarkable .483 attack percentage. Ryan marked a .500 attack percentage (2-14), while senior Casey Howe (Chelmsford, Mass.) recorded a .400 attack percentage (6-15). Ryan also recorded a game-high 33 assists on the night.

Defensively for the Owls, Taylor led the team with 16 digs, while senior Shannon Shea (Chelmsford, Mass.) added in 10.

Worcester State's junior Valerie Hoyle (Bridgewater, Mass.) and senior Meghan Deighan (Lynnfield, Mass.) held the team's best attack percentages with .375 and .308, respectively. Cabral led the team with seven kills and 13 digs, while freshman setter Alexandra Nolan (Melrose, Mass.) led the team with 12 assists on the night.

Next, the Lancers will face Rhode Island College for a non-conference match-up on Thursday (Oct. 15). The Owls will also resume play on Thursday as they will host East Nazarene.

Taylor Named MASCAC Volleyball Rookie Of The Week

LIZZIE TAYLOR

WESTFIELD, Mass. – Westfield State Owls freshman Lizzie Taylor (Medfield, Mass.) has earned the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference rookie of the week honors for the fourth time this season.

Taylor averaged 15.3 digs, 2.3 assists and three service aces in a 2-1 week for the Owls. She recorded 25 digs and 10 aces in a doubleheader sweep of Massachusetts Maritime and 21 digs, four assists and three aces in the 3-1 setback to Western Connecticut State University.

The freshman libero leads the MASCAC in total digs (505) and digs per set (4.9).

Westfield State earned the three-seed in the MASCAC playoffs with a 4-2 conference record and will host sixth-seeded Worcester State on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the quarterfinals. The winner will advance to a semifinal match on Friday, November 6 against Framingham State.

The Owls defeated Worcester State, 3-0, in their regular season match on Tuesday, October 13.

2015 MASCAC VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS PREVIEW

The MCLA Trailblazers have claimed the top seed in the 2015 Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference volleyball tournament which will begin with the quarterfinal round on Wednesday, November 4.

Kicking off the tournament with the quarterfinals on Wednesday will be fourth-seeded Bridgewater State hosting fifth-seeded Salem State at 6 pm while third-seeded Westfield State entertains sixth-seeded Worcester State at 7 pm.

The winner of Bridgewater State/Salem State will face off with top-seeded MCLA on Saturday in the first semifinal game at 11 am on Saturday, November 7. Second-seeded Framingham State will play the winner of Westfield State/Worcester State in the second semifinal at 1 pm. The two semifinal winners will then face each other Saturday afternoon for the title of MASCAC champion.

Earning the top seed and a first round bye, the Trailblazers claimed a share of their first MASCAC regular season title with a 5-1 record in MASCAC play. Leading the way for MCLA is Allison Clark who leads the conference in kills per set at 4.06, hitting percentage at .351 and second in total kills with 402. She also collected 302 digs and 53 total blocks.

Landing the second seed and the other first round bye, Framingham State finished the conference season with a 5-1 record to earn a share of the regular season championship. Alycia Rackliffe had a solid season for the Rams with a conference leading 410 kills while sitting in second in kills per set (4.06), hitting percentage (.331) and blocks per set (0.82).

Westfield State is the third seed with four wins during the MASCAC schedule. Kendyl Haney led the team with 238 total kills while also tallying 2.90 kills per set and seven blocks while freshman Lizzie Taylor led the conference with 505 digs and 65 service aces.

Finishing with three MASCAC wins this season, Bridgewater State earned the fourth seed in next week's tournament. Charleyne Panner is first in the league in assists with 904 while also netting 212 digs and 37 service aces.

Rounding out the tournament field are Salem State and Worcester State in fifth and sixth seed, respectively. The Vikings tallied two wins during the conference schedule. Emily Peay led the squad with 209 kills while adding 198 digs and 58 total blocks. The Lancers also collected two wins this season and were led my Jennifer Cabral who finished with 250 kills, 349 digs and 24 services aces.

During the 2014 MASCAC Volleyball Tournament, Framingham State defeated Worcester State in straight sets, 3-0, to earn the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Soccer maintains unbeaten streak in MASCAC play

The women's soccer team played a tough double overtime game at home on Friday against Framingham State, ultimately ending in a tie.

Both teams came in with very similar records and were evenly matched; however, the Rams came in with a 1-1-2 MASCAC record, compared to the Owls who are an impressive 3-0-0.

The Owls started off the scoring in the 42nd minute of the game off the foot of senior Amanda Magri after the Rams failed to clear the ball multiple times.

The Rams were able to answer quickly after the half, finding the net in the 54th minute. After a rebound off of Owls net minder Natalia Falcone, the Rams were able to move the ball to an open Angela Palotta who found the back of the net.

The rest of the match saw a lot of defensive play and aggressive goaltending from Framingham goaltender Sara Sullivan. She made six saves throughout the match. She also batted away several Westfield crosses,. which effectively interrupted the Owls offense. Without her aggressive play, the outcome may have been a little different.

Earlier this week the Owls cruised past Elms College with a 2-0 victory. The Owls goals were scored by senior Christina Buonopane and freshman Kayla Murphy. Goaltenders Natalia Falcone and Anne Stack split the game and registered a shutout for the Owls.

Falcone took home MASCAC freshman of the week for her part in both games, in which she posted a .058 goals-against average and a 1-0-1 record. Through four games this season, she has 1-1-1 record and a .786 save percentage, giving up only three goals.

Last week, the Owls swept the weekly MASCAC honors with both Kate Matroni and Lexi Kulik taking home awards. Matroni netted two goals during the week, both coming in the game against MCLA. She has three goals on the season, which is tied for first with Ashley Bovat.

Kulik registered two assists in the game against Mass College of Liberal Arts, assisting Matroni on a corner kick and then grabbing a secondary assist on Michaela St. Cry's first goal of the season.

With the week coming to a close, the Owls remain undefeated in MASCAC play while maintaining a 6-4-1 overall record. They remain tied for 2nd in the standings with Worcester State, who has an identical record and are not far behind Bridgewater, who is 4-0 in the conference.

The Owls pick up action on Wednesday Oct. 7 at Alumni Field against local rivals, Western New England

Matroni, Stack help Owls blank Bears

Oct. 26, 2015

BRIDGEWATER – Junior midfielder Kate Matroni (Hampden, Mass.) tallied a goal and two assists to lead the visiting Westfield State University women's soccer team to a 3-0 victory over Bridgewater State University in a Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) contest on Saturday afternoon at Swenson Field.

The Owls improve to 8-6-1 on the season and 4-1-1 in the MASCAC standings, while the Bears dropped to 9-6 overall and 5-1 in conference play.

Junior midfielder Nicole Gay (Hatfield, Mass.) headed in a cross from Matroni in the 31st minute to give the Owls the 1-0 first half lead. The goal marked Gay's first of the season.

Westfield took the 1-0 lead into the intermission as the Owls outshot the Bears, 11-5, over the first 45 minutes.

Matroni extended the Westfield advantage to 2-0 less than eight minutes into the second half with her fifth goal of the 2015 campaign as she knocked home the rebound of a Christina Buonopane (Stoneham, Mass.) shot.

Senior forward Amanda Magri (Hampden, Mass.) made it a 3-0 game as she one-timed a cross from Matroni in the 65th minute of play. For Magri, the goal was her second of the year.

In the 88th minute, freshman forward Lauren Farrell (Rockland, Mass.) had two great chances to pot the Owls' fourth goal on a breakaway opportunity, but was stoned twice by BSU sophomore goaltender Lauren DeSousa (Taunton, Mass.).

Westfield junior netminder Anne Stack (East Longmeadow, Mass.) made five saves as she recorded her sixth win of the season as well as her sixth shutout.

DeSousa turned aside eight shots between the pipes for the Bears.

The Owls finished with a 21-14 shot advantage as well as an 8-6 edge in corner kicks.

In upcoming action, the Bears host UMass Boston on Tuesday afternoon at three, while the Owls entertain Keene State College on Wednesday night at seven.

Matroni stars against Bridgewater State

Mike Barry
Sports Editor

The Owls' women's soccer team finished their game against Keene State in a scoreless tie. Neither team could put the ball in the net, even with an overtime period to end the game.

There's not doubt that the weather played a role in this one. Alumni field was in a total down poor for the duration of the match.

Keene came out firing, taking multiple shots on net in the opening minutes. Eventually the game settled down, beginning a competitive, back and forth contest.

Both teams had their fair share of scoring chances, but for whatever reason just couldn't finish. Keene out shot the Owls' by a total of 11-8.

Sophomore Taylor Farland was the star for Keene State. She was able to take four shots on net, and was almost able to put the game away for Keene with just three minutes left to play.

Farland had a chance to end the game in the opening minutes of overtime, putting a header just wide of the net. There's no doubt luck was on Westfield's side at multiple points in this one.

With the tie the Owls' record is now 8-6-2. Their final regular season game is against MASCAC rival Mass Maritime.

A win in their final game of the season would give this team great momentum, and better seeding for the conference tournament. They should finish the year off on a positive note.

Owls claim MASCAC title

WESTFIELD – Senior back Katy Knight (Woburn/Woburn, Mass.) picked an opportunistic time to score her first career goal, as her marker proved to be the lone goal of the match as second-seeded Westfield State defeated top-seeded Worcester State 1-0 in the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference championship game at Coughlin Field on Sunday afternoon.

Westfield improves to 10-6-3 on the season with the win, and with the win earns the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in the past eight years, and the first time since 2012.

Knight, who this week was named as a first-team All-Conference defender for the third year in a row, had just one career point, stemming from an assist as a freshman. Regarded as one of the best one-on-one defenders in the league, she typically marks the opponent's leading scorer.

Knight tallied in the 41st minute with a blast from 25 yards out that sailed over Worcester State goalkeeper Jillian Witkowski and under the crossbar. She was named MVP of the tournament.

The Owls split the game in goal between junior Anne Stack (East Longmeadow/East Longmeadow, Mass.) and freshman Natalia Falcone (Sutton/Sutton, Mass.), as has been their habit the past few weeks. Stack played 45 shutout minutes in the first half making a pair of saves, while Falcone closed out the second half with 45 scoreless minutes of her own while making one save.

The match was very evenly played, with both teams mustering four shots on goal; Westfield generated three corner kicks to the Lancers two.

Westfield avenged losses to Worcester State in the last two meetings between the teams. Westfield fell to Worcester 3-0 earlier this season, and the Lancers edged the Owls 1-0 in last year's MASCAC Championship game at Coughlin Field.

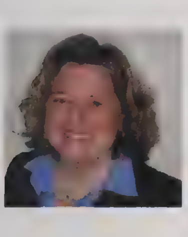
WELCOME FROM MASCAC COMMISSIONER ANGELA BAUMANN

On behalf of the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) and our eight member institutions, I would like to personally welcome you to the 2015 MASCAC Women's Soccer Championships.



The MASCAC has a rich history of producing outstanding student-athletes, and this year's tournament will once again showcase some of our top soccer student-athletes.

Let's join together and cheer on all of our participants as they compete in this year's MASCAC Women's Soccer Championship Tournament.

2015 MASCAC WOMEN'S SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIPS PREVIEW

For the second straight season, the Worcester State Lancers have earned the top seed in the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference Women's Soccer Tournament which launches on Tuesday, November 3 with the quarterfinal match-ups.

Beginning on Tuesday, the first quarterfinal will feature fourth-seeded Framingham State hosting fifth-seeded Salem State at 6 pm while third-seeded Bridgewater State entertains sixth-seeded MCLA at 7 pm. Second-seeded Westfield State will host the winner of Bridgewater State/MCLA at 4 pm on Friday, November 6. Worcester State will play the winner of Framingham State/Salem State at 7 pm.

The winners of the semifinal contests will hit the field on Sunday at the highest remaining seed to decide the MASCAC tournament champion and automatic qualifier for the NCAA tournament.

Earning the top seed, first round bye and MASCAC regular season championship, Worcester State finished 6-0-1 in conference play. The Lancers were led by reigning MASCAC Player of the Year Alicia Macomber who finished the regular season first in the conference in goals (10), assists (5) and points (25). Teammate Jillian Witkowski was strong in goal with the second-best save percentage (.901) and goals against average (0.65) in the MASCAC.

Grabbing the other first round bye and second seed is Westfield State who finished with a 5-1-1 conference record. Goalie Anne Stack was solid between the pipes for the Owls, leading the MASCAC in save percentage (.902) and goals against average (0.38). Kate Matroni led the team in points with 13 on five goals and three assists.

Bridgewater State lands in the third seed after closing out the league schedule with a 5-2 record. The Bears' Marissa Yowell ended the regular season with the most points at 12 on five goals and two assists. Goalie Lauren DeSousa tallied 90 saves, save percentage of .826 and a 1.20 goals against average.

Sitting in the fourth spot is Framingham State. The Rams ended the conference season with a 4-1-2 record. Marissa Miele netted the second most points in the league (19) and third most goals (8). During her freshman campaign, Megan White was second to Miele on the team with 14 points on five goals and four assists.

Rounding out the tournament slots is Salem State and MCLA in the fifth and sixth seed, respectively. The Vikings tallied three wins during conference competition. Ashley Lebouef led the way for the squad with seven goals and an assist for 15 points. The Trailblazers finished with one win in conference play while Jackie Dwyer and Natalie Caney both had six points to close out the regular season.

During the 2014 MASCAC Tournament, top seed Worcester State outlasted second seed Westfield State for the 1-0 win to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Westfield finishes successful fall season in conference tournaments

The Westfield Women's Soccer team won the MASCAC conference championship for the first time since 2012 with a 1-0 win over Worcester State, who were looking to repeat as champions.

Westfield Voice
Nov. 13, 2015

With the fall season coming to a close, Westfield athletics have another successful athletic season under their belt. Multiple sports had extremely successful seasons with finishes resulting in conference titles and deep runs in the conference tournament.

The Owl's Women's soccer team is still alive after winning the MASCAC tournament. They beat Bridgewater State by a final score of 1-0. The game was tied throughout regulation and overtime. Westfield was able to finally win in a thrilling shootout.

After their phenomenal regular season, four members of the women's soccer team received all MASCAC honors. Seniors Katy Knight, Ashley Bovat and junior Kate Matroni were all named to the all MASCAC first team. Freshman back Caitlin MacGregor was named to the all MASCAC second team. MacGregor is poised for a fantastic career here at Westfield if she continues to play the way she did this year.

Westfield will now play in the NCAA tournament with hoping the momentum from their successful conference tournament will carry them far in the national one. They play their first tournament game against local power Williams College this Saturday in Williamstown, MA at 1 p.m.

Men's soccer had a phenomenal season of their own. They finished the regular season as the top ranked team in the MASCAC tournament. Finding individual success as well as team success, three members of the Men's team received all MASCAC honors. Sophomore defensemen Cam Ritter was placed on the first team while junior midfielder Cody Baglow and sophomore goalie Alex Kraver obtained second team honors.

The Owl's suffered a heartbreaking loss in the semifinals of the MASCAC tournament by a score of 2-0 against rivals Bridgewater State. Regardless of their tournament loss, this team has to be proud of the way their season ended. Coach Evans has to be excited with the amount of talent his team is returning next year and they should be back in the tournament again this time next year.

Our Cross Country program is consistently one of the most successful teams on campus. As a surprise to no one, this year wasn't any different. The Women's team won the MASCAC for the year as well as the MASCAC year-end meet. The individual winners of the year-end meet were both Westfield State team members. For the men senior Mike Skelly capped off a great running career the best way possible with a conference meet win. Sophomore Jessie Cardin dominated the conference meet, leading the entire race and winning the meet.

Field Hockey had a much-improved season this year finishing in fifth place in the LEC. They finished in 9th last year, so the team must be thrilled with the improvement.

Football had a bit of an off year with their record currently at 2-7. However things could be very different if a few bounces went the Owl's way. Three of their losses were close back and forth games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

It has been another successful athletic season here at Westfield State and the winter sports shouldn't be any different.

Plymouth State spoils 'Senior Day'

WESTFIELD – Junior field hockey forward Nicole Burgess (Mountain Valley/ Mexico, ME) scored two goals as Plymouth State spoiled Westfield State's Senior Day, 3-0, Saturday afternoon at Alumni Field.

The Panthers improve to 11-3, and remain in first place in the Little East Conference at 9-1. Westfield State drops to 7-8 overall, 5-5 in the LEC.

Ten minutes later, freshman forward Kialah Reeder (Mascoma Valley/ Enfield, NH) smashed home a rebound that caromed wildly in front of the net after a blocked shot to give the Panthers a 2-0 lead.

Westfield State peppered Plymouth with shots in the final 15 minutes, but couldn't beat Panthers sophomore goalkeeper Alivia Bates (Pennsauken/ Pennsauken, N.J.). Owls' junior forward Holly Brouillette (Burlington/ Burlington, Mass.) had two strong scoring chances in front of the net, but Bates saved both shots.

Burgess added her second goal with eight seconds remaining in the match, sliding past Fountaine with some nifty stick-work. She now ranks second in the LEC with 12 goals scored.

Bates made four saves to pick up her fifth shutout of the season, while Fountaine had five stops in the loss.

The Owls outshot Plymouth, 18-17, including an 8-6 advantage in penalty corners.

Prior to the Westfield's two seniors—Allison Lucenta and Emily Williams–were recognized for their contributions to the program over the past four years.

The Owls look to rebound from the loss on Tuesday, October 27 when they head to Mount Holyoke for a 7 p.m. match.

Westfield News Nov. 4, 2015

MANSFIELD, Conn. -- Westfield State's field hockey season came to an end as the fifth-seeded Owls fell to fourth-seeded Eastern Connecticut, 3-0 in the Little East Conference tournament at the Mansfield Outdoor Complex.

In extending its program-record win streak to five, Eastern downed fifth-seeded Westfield (8-10) for the second time this year, outshooting the Owls 21-5 and amassing a 12-2 advantage in penalty corners.

Tuesday, senior Hannah Keiser (Danbury) slipped a hard shot under the pads of Westfield junior goalie Megan Fountaine (Scituate, MA) on a shot from the middle of the circle to give the Warriors a 1-0 lead in the 13th minute Tuesday. That slim margin stood up until Passero and junior Paige Schneider (East Lyme) connected 13 minutes apart late in the game to give junior goalie Samantha Scavo (Redding) a three-goal cushion over the final eight minutes.

The goal was the fourth in the last three matches and eighth of the season for Passero, who had managed only two goals in the first 30 matches of her career. Keiser collected her seventh goal this year and 27th of her career (two behind the all-time leader), while Schneider had an assist on Passero's goal on a cross from the end line before potting her fifth of the season by re-directing a drive by junior Gabriela Meza (Norwalk), who dribbled into the circle on a penalty corner from junior MaryKate Custer (South Windsor).

Eastern controlled play within its offensive third throughout most of the match, limiting Westfield scoring leader Holly Brouillette (Burlington, MA) to just two shots, both of which were stopped by Scavo.

Scavo made three saves for her tenth win of the year in 14 starts, and Fountaine turned back 11 Eastern shots.

The win by No. 4 seed Eastern (12-6) – which breaks the 14-year record for victories in a season – coupled with No. 8 Fitchburg State University's 1-0 upset at No. 1 Plymouth State University Tuesday night – gives the Warriors their second LEC home playoff match ever.

Eastern hosts Fitchburg State (11-8) Thursday night at 6 p.m. in one semifinal, while third-seeded and defending champion Keene State College (14-7) hosts No. 7 Worcester State University Thursday at 6 p.m. in the other semifinal. The championship match is scheduled for Saturday at the site of the highest remaining seed.

Field Hockey had a much-improved season this year finishing in fifth place in the LEC. They finished in 9th last year, so the team must be thrilled with the improvement.

Two field hockey players earn All-LEC Honors

WESTFIELD, Mass- The Westfield State's women's field hockey team landed two players on the Little East All-Conference Team.

Junior forward Holly Brouillette (Burlington/Burlington, Mass) made second team All-LEC and sophomore defender Delaney Gembis(Chelmsford/North Chelmsford, Mass) earned a spot on the third team.

Brouillette, a prolific scorer, landed on the second team for consecutive seasons. Brouillette lead the Owls with 11 goals and ranked third in the conference with an average of .65 goals per game.

Gembis played in all 18 games for Westfield as they finished third in the conference with 14 defensive saves. Gembis tallied 9 of the 14 saves for the Owls.

Westfield State finished 6-5 in the Little East and 8-10 overall on the season.

Field Hockey Earns NFHCA Division III National Academic Team Award

WESTFIELD — Westfield State's field hockey team earned themselves a spot on the 2015 ZAG Field Hockey/NFHCA Division III National Academic Team Award list.

The National Academic Team Award recognizes those institutions that achieved a team GPA of 3.0 or higher during the first semester of the 2015-16 academic year.

Freshman F/M Brittany Bowes (Leicester / Leicester) earned herself a spot on the 2015 ZAG Field Hockey/NFHCA Division III Scholars of Distinction list. To do so, student athletes must have a cumulative GPA of 3.90 or higher through the first semester of the 2015-16 academic year.

Westfield State student athletes who made the 2015 ZAG Field Hockey/NFHCA Division III National Academic Squad include Brittany Bowes (Leicester / Leicester), Holly Brouillette (Burlington / Burlington), Rachel Bunce (East Dennis / Dennis-Yarmouth), Page Demarest (Templeton / Narragansett), Megan Doherty (Mansfield / Mansfield), Kristina Economou (Worcester / West Boylston), Megan Evans (Enfield, CT / Enfield), Megan Fountaine (Scituate / Scituate), Delaney Gembis (North Chelmsford / Chelmsford), Allison Lucenta (Natick / Natick), Marci Macsata (Enfield, CT / Fermi), Alexa Whitney (Athol / Athol), and Emily Williams (Deerfield / Frontier Regional).

Westfield State's field hockey season came to an end as the fifth-seeded Owls fell to fourth-seeded Eastern Connecticut, 3-0 in the Little East Conference tournament.

The Owls finished their 2015-2016 season with a 6-5 record in the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC).

Soccer drops first conference game of season

Mike Barry
Sports Editor

The Westfield State men's soccer team has been on a real roll as of late. Coming into their game against Elms College, they recorded a bounced back 3-1 victory of MCLA. The win put them atop the MASCAC with a record of 3-0 in the conference.

It took 40 minutes for the scoring to start, but once Westfield Junior Joe Pantuosco netted the first goal of the game, there was no turning back for this team.

Westfield scored twice more late in the second half, and eventually won the game 3-1. Freshman Brodie Keene scored two unassisted goals with less than ten minutes to play.

Both Westfield and Elms College recorded 10 shots on the game, however it was the Owls who were able to capitalize on their chances. Only four of the Elms College shots were on net, giving goalie Marc Patnaude a fairly easy night. Besides a meaningless Elms goal in the 87th minute, Patnaude had a great game.

The Owls line up at midfield before their conference game against Framingham State. The team was 4-6-1 heading into the game but were on a two game winning streak and had an unblemished 3-0-0 conference record

The offensive efficiency by the Owls was the most impressive part of their game. They put eight of their ten shots on net, making Elms College keeper Nichonlson Pennant really have to work. Pennant recorded five saves and if it weren't for his stand out performance, this one could have been a lot worse.

The victory against Elms had Westfield riding high as they head into their MASCAC contest against the Rams of Framingham State.

With just five minutes left in the contest, Framingham State scored a heartbreaking goal. With very little time to respond, the game ended 1-0, giving Westfield their first MASCAC loss of the season.

Coming into the game, these were two very evenly matched teams. Westfield had a total record of 4-6-1, with a 3-0 record in the conference. Framingham boasted a less impressive 3-7 record, but had a respectable 2-1 record in the conference.

Both teams had their chances, particularly Framingham who out shot Westfield 26-14 on total shots and 9-6 on shots on net. If the Owls were able to capitalize on their chances like they did against Elms College, this one would have had a very different outcome.

The Owls have five games remaining on their schedule. Other than their home game against Rhode Island College on the 21st, all of the remaining games are against MASCAC opponents. This team needs to win majority of those games if it hopes to hold their high seed in the upcoming MASCAC tournament.

They will play conference rival Worcester State at home this upcoming Saturday at 11 a.m.

Bridgewater Bears clip Owls

Oct. 26, 2015

WESTFIELD – Bridgewater State soccer defeated Westfield State, 1-0, in a battle for the top spot in the MASCAC standings on Saturday, Oct. 24 at Alumni Field.

The Owls fall to 5-9-1, 4-2 in the MASCAC, while the Bears improve to 13-2-1 and 6-0 heading into the final week of the regular season.

The Bears attacked in the seventh minute on a corner kick for the game's only goal. Diego DelasCasas (Miami, Fla./ Miami Killian) served the ball to the far post connecting with Jonathan Pires (Medford, Mass./ Medford) whose header filled the net at point blank range.

Westfield had their best chance of the day to draw even when Brodie Keene (Feeding Hills, Mass./ Agawam) attempted to chip Bridgewater keeper, Colin Jepson (Sandwich, Mass./ Upper Cape Cod Regional), from 30 yards. The lobbed shot was punched high by a fully extended Jepson before the deflection hit the top half of the crossbar.

Prior to the game Westfield's five seniors were recognized for their contributions to the program- Pat Collins (West Newbury, Mass./ Pentucket Regional), Kevin Bengle (West Springfield, Mass./ West Springfield), Matt Carvalho (Chicopee, Mass./ Chicopee), Zach Horn (Carver, Mass./ Old Colony) and Jack Fisher (Rehoboth, Mass./ Dighton-Rehoboth).

Owls' keeper Alex Kraver (West Springfield, Mass./ West Springfield) made seven saves on the day and Jepson registered nine for the shutout including eight in the second half.

Both teams return to action on Wednesday, Oct. 28, at 7:00 p.m. Westfield travels to Danbury, Conn. to face Western Connecticut and Bridgewater hosts Babson.

Bridgewater move to top spot in MASCAC with win at WSU

Mike Barry
Sports Editor

The Westfield State Men's soccer team suffered a difficult loss to Bridgewater State on senior night. Bridgewater won with a final score of 1-0, and took the top sport in the conference.

The loss drops Westfield's record to 5-9-1 overall, with a 4-2 record in the MASCAC.

Bridgewater is no doubt the top dog in the conference. The win brings their overall record to an impressive 13-2-1 and are undefeated at 6-0 in the conference. Although a win would have been ideal, playing a game this close with a team like Bridgewater is something to be proud of.

Bridgewater scored early and never looked back as Jonathan Pires' header went into the back of the net.

Westfield ended the day with the edge in total shots and shots on net. The Owls' had 16 total shots and nine of them on net. The Owls' had their chances and were unable to capitalize due to Bridgewater's phenomenal play in net.

The ref's were very active in this one, giving out a total of four yellow cards and ejecting a player on each team. Each team played with a ton of passion, which unfortunately got the best of two guys.

Regardless of the outcome, this one was about the five seniors who were playing their last game at Alumni field. Pat Collins, Kevin Bengle, Matt Carvalho, Zach Horn and Jack Fisher should all be proud with the careers they had here at Westfield

Men's Soccer is Top Seed in MASCAC Tourney

WESTFIELD, Mass. – Westfield State University's men's soccer team will be the top seed in the upcoming Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletics Conference tournament.

Westfield will host a semifinal round playoff game on Friday, November 6 at 7:00 p.m. at Alumni Field.

The Owls will face the winner of the game that pits #4 seed Massachusetts Maritime against #5 seed Bridgewater State on Tuesday in Buzzards Bay, Mass.

Westfield State finished the season with a 5-2 record in the league, and a 6-9-1 overall mark.

Bridgewater State rolled through conference play with a 7-0 record, however the Bears were forced to vacate several wins due to use of an ineligible player. While the Bears remain eligible for the MASCAC and NCAA tournaments, the resulting league action dropped them to a #5 seed in the MASCAC tournament.

Westfield has played its best soccer in league competition this year. The Owls are led by the scoring of freshman Brodie Keene (Feeding Hills/Agawam, Mass.) and the play from sophomore goalkeeper Alex Kraver (West Springfield/West Springfield, Mass.). Keene has a team high seven goals and two assists for 16 points. Kraver has posted a 5-4-1 record in goal while posting a 1.48 goals against average and a pair of shutouts.

Westfield faced both of its potential semifinal opponents during the regular season, defeating Mass Maritime 2-0 this past weekend, but fell to Bridgewater by a 1-0 score.

If the Owls advance to the championship game, Westfield would host the game on Saturday at a time that will be determined after the semifinals.

Westfield News Nov. 4, 2015

Westfield State heads into the conference tournament as the number one seed.

Men's soccer had a phenomenal season of their own. They finished the regular season as the top ranked team in the MASCAC tournament. Finding individual success as well as team success, three members of the Men's team received all MASCAC honors. Sophomore defensemen Cam Ritter was placed on the first team while junior midfielder Cody Baglow and sophomore goalie Alex Kraver obtained second team honors.

The Owl's suffered a heartbreaking loss in the semifinals of the MASCAC tournament by a score of 2-0 against rivals Bridgewater State. Regardless of their tournament loss, this team has to be proud of the way their season ended. Coach Evans has to be excited with the amount of talent his team is returning next year and they should be back in the tournament again this time next year.

2015 MASCAC MEN'S SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIPS PREVIEW

The Westfield State Owls have landed the top seed in the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference Men's Soccer Tournament which starts on Tuesday, November 3 with the quarterfinal round of play.

The quarterfinals begin on Tuesday with third-seeded MCLA taking on sixth-seeded Worcester State at 1:30 pm while fourth-seeded Massachusetts Maritime hosts fifth-seeded Bridgewater State at 7 pm. The winner of MCLA/ Worcester State will play second-seeded Framingham State on Friday, November 6 at 6 pm. Winner of Massachusetts Maritime/Bridgewater State plays top-seeded Westfield State at 7 pm Friday.

The winners of the semifinal contests will hit the pitch on Sunday at the highest remaining seed to decide the MASCAC tournament champion and automatic qualifier for the NCAA tournament.

Landing the top-seed in the tournament and a first round bye, Westfield State finished the MASCAC season with a 5-2 record and the regular season title. Goalie Alex Kraver is third in the league in save percentage (.826) and goals against average (1.48) and fourth in saves (76). Brodie Keene led the Owls with 16 points on seven goals and two assists during his freshman campaign.

Earning the other first round bye, Framingham State closed out the league schedule with a 4-3 record. Cory Cardeiro finished second in the conference with 31 points on 13 goals and five assists. He also led the conference in shots with 88.

MCLA is next with the third seed after tallying three wins in league play. Anthony Basile netted 19 points which was the fifth best total in the MASCAC and nine goals, good enough for fifth in the league. Following in the fourth seed is Massachusetts Maritime who also had three wins during the MASCAC season. Joe Cohen had a solid seed for the Buccaneers with the fourth-best league goals against average (1.69) and fifth-best save percentage (.767).

Sitting in the fifth spot is Bridgewater State. Due to competition oversight, the Bears vacated four conference wins (12 points) and four non-conference games to account for their seeding in the tournament. Reigning MASCAC Player of the Year Conor Murtagh finished the season first in the MASCAC in goals with 14 and points with 32. Goalie Colin Jepson was top in the league in goals against average (0.54) and save percentage (.877).

Closing out the tournament field is Worcester State with the sixth seed. The Lancers netted three wins during the MASCAC schedule. Bryan Brasil, in his first season with the team, was third in the MASCAC in goals with 10 and points with 25.

Last season, Fitchburg State claimed the 2014 MASCAC Tournament Championship with a victory over top-seeded Bridgewater State, 1-0, to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

WSU women track down 3rd

WESTFIELD – The Westfield State Owls women's track team won six events at the Springfield College Open, finishing third out of four teams.

Springfield College won the meet with 181 points, followed by Worcester Polytechnic Institute with 159 points and Westfield State with 124 points.

Westfield State freshman Alexa Popp (Westford, Mass.) won the 400-meter dash, completing the race in 1:01.78, more than two seconds ahead of the second-place finisher.

The Owls placed strong in the distance runs, as junior Ashley Monahan (Springfield, Mass.) placed first in the 1000-meter run with a time of 3:11.01 and sophomore Jessie Cardin (Sutton, Mass.) won the 5000-meter run at 18:14.67.

Sophomore Sabrina Pray (Mansfield, Mass. took a competitive 60-meter hurdles with a time of 9.28, while freshman Anna Grudzinski finished third.

Sophomores Ashley Craig and Naloti Palma-Kaluma each won a field event for the Owls. Craig finished first in the pole vault, while Palma-Kaluma (Westborough, Mass.) won the shot put.

Westfield News Oct 26, 2015

WESTFIELD – Westfield State senior cross country runner Mike Skelly is enjoying a strong senior season that has seen him earn MASCAC runner of the week honors on two occasions, including after a solid performance at the Paul Short Run in Bethlehem, Pa., one of the biggest cross country meets in the nations.

“Short was an awesome experience Some of the best of the best teams on the East Coast are there, and it’s almost humbing to go from a big fish in a small pond to being a small fish,” Skelly said. “But we ran really well, we all PR’d (personal records) and that made it more fun.”

After finishing sixth at the Owls’ 20th annual James Earley Invitational Cross Country meet at Stanley Park on October 10, Skelly sat out Westfield’s final regular season meet in preparation for the MASCAC Championships on October 31.

“It’s very beneficial for us to have a true home course, and to have it across the street from campus,” said Skelly. “It’s always a soft spot to run so that we don’t have to put as much time in on pavement. It’s a lot nicer on your legs; you don’t take as much pounding, which lets us get more mileage in.”

Westfield State has won back-to-back MASCAC championships, with Skelly finishing third overall last year at the Mount Greylock course to propel the Owls to the title.

“We want to win the MASCAC meet again, and we will have our work cut out for us,” Skelly said. “Fitchburg looks very tough this year. We have to be ready to run because that’s going to be a real race.”

A Movement Science – Sports Medicine major, Skelly is interested in attending chiropractic school or entering a physician’s assistant program after graduating this coming May.

“Coach Devine, and how close the team was were big factors in my coming to Westfield State,” said Skelly. “The whole atmosphere here was great – some of the other schools didn’t seem like the teams were as close knit as we are.”

Skelly has progressed well in his time at Westfield State under eighth-year head coach Bill Devine. Heading into his senior season, Skelly and many of his teammates have ramped up their training, doing long runs together on their off days, and it’s paying dividends on the course.

Skelly typically runs 60-65 miles per week, but that number has dropped in order to peak heading into the MASCAC and regional championship meets.

“I think he understands training,” Devine said. “He’s gotten better since he started doing more long runs. He’s our best runner in a meet.

“He’s matured and understands how to run an 8k race, and that it’s not a sprint. The race really doesn’t start until the 3-mile mark. He’s got tenacity and learned how to hang in there early – even if you aren’t running great – and then find that next gear and maintain it through the end of the race.”

“I have progressed a lot (at Westfield) – mostly by being smarter,” said Skelly. “I’ve learned from coach, from my teammates what really works.”

“He’s everything you expect from a senior captain,” said Devine. “He communicates with the team, as does Steve Parece, our other captain, he sets a good example, keeps the team in line and runs fast.”

“Coach Devine is interesting,” said Skelly “You can tell that he really cares about the team and he’s almost like a parent to us as well. He entertains us and helps keep us calm and succeed.”

“Mike is a quality person,” said Devine. “He has honesty, integrity, he’s a good student. A lot of runners are good students, but when I’m recruiting I am also looking at the quality of the person. If you have a good person, like Skelly, you don’t have issues.”

After the MASCAC championships, Skelly’s sights will be set on the NCAA regional qualifying meet.

“All New England is a realistic goal for Mike, which is top 35 in New England,” said Devine. “Last year number 30 got into nationals. It is extremely tough to qualify and it depends on how many teams the NCAA takes, and a number of factors. It’s on a fast course this year at Harkness State Park.”

“If I run well I might have a chance,” said Skelly. That’s a goal we strive for.”

2015-2016

Our Cross Country program is consistently one of the most successful teams on campus. As a surprise to no one, this year wasn't any different. The Women's team won the MASCAC for the year as well as the MASCAC year-end meet. The individual winners of the year-end meet were both Westfield State team members. For the men senior Mike Skelly capped off a great running career the best way possible with a conference meet win. Sophomore Jessie Cardin dominated the conference meet, leading the entire race and winning the meet.

Godette, Owls jump into 2nd

WESTFIELD – The Westfield State Owls men's track team won five events, including two relays, at the Springfield College Open, finishing second out of four teams.

Worcester Polytechnic Institute won the meet with 168 points, followed by Westfield State at 162 points.

Westfield State senior Travon Godette (Orange, Mass.) won the high jump with a final jump of 6-feet-6, one of two field events the Owls won. Senior Zachary Delisle (Chicopee, Mass.) won the pole vault with a jump of 14-feet-5.25.

The Owls also won both the 4×200-meter relay and the 4×400-meter relay events. Freshmen Paul James, Jordanio Oquendo, Esteafan Jack, and Dorian Johnson took the 4×200-meter relay with a time of 1:34.29. Edison Perez, Jeremy Forgue, Matthew Bergin, and John Tomlin won the 400-meter relay at 3:30.88.

Perez also won the 60-meter hurdles with a final time of 8.62, while sophomore David Bergin took second at 8.97.

Senior Matthew Moussamih (Fall River, Mass.) placed first in the 1000-meter run, edging out Alex Haji of Springfield College with a time of 2:37.09.

Westfield State travels to Utica, N.Y. on Saturday, December 12 for the Jen and Todd Hutton Invitational.

WESTFIELD – Naloti Palma (Westborough, Mass.) had a big day for the Westfield State Owls women's track & field team, winning both the shot put and the weight throw at the Jen and Todd Hutton Invitational hosted by Utica College.

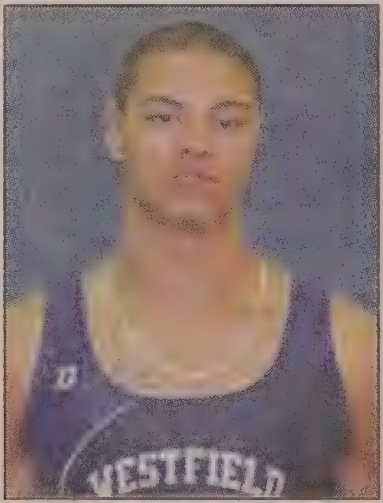
Palma won the shot put with a throw of 12.94 meters and the weight throw at 15.46 meters.

After earning MASCAC field athlete of the week, sophomore Ashley Craig (Groton, Mass.) once again took home first place in the pole vault, clearing the bar at 3.35 meters for the win.

Freshman Brianna Deloury (Andover, Mass.) earned top spot in the high jump with a best jump of 1.55 meters.

Sophomore Sabrina Pray won the 60-meter hurdles, finishing in 9.28 seconds.

In the 3000-meter race, Westfield State placed the top five runners, led by senior Megan Erickson (Westbrook, Conn.) at 11:51.78. Junior Shannon Grossman (Harwich, Mass.) took second place, finishing just .09 after Erickson.



TRAVON GODETTE

The Owls also won both the 4×400-meter relay and the 4 x800-meter relay.

Sophomore Katherine Paltz, sophomore Brooke Mello, junior Nicole Lanoie, and sophomore Lilly Whalen won the 4×400-meter relay with a time of 4:19.08.

Junior Jennifer Asci, sophomore Autumn Brown, freshman Lauren Izabel, and sophomore Katherine Leahy won the 4×800-meter relay with a time of 10:37.64.

The Owls will return to action after the winter break, competing in the Springfield College Open on January 23.

GODETTE LEADS MEN: Senior Travon Godette (Orange, Mass.) had a strong showing for the Westfield State men's indoor track & field team, winning the high jump at the Jen & Todd Hutton Invitational at Utica College.

Godette won the event with a jump of 2.03 meters, or 6-feet-8.

Sophomore Dereck Stone (Bellingham, Mass.) took first place in the long jump, clearing 6.57 meters for the win.

The Owls also won the 4×400-meter relay with a team of freshman. Matthew Bergin, Dorian Johnson, Estefan Jack, and Jordan Oquendo took first place with a time of 3:28.60.

Senior Mike Skelly (Pepperell, Mass.) placed second in the 3000-meter run, while senior Zack Delisle (Chicopee, Mass.) finished second in the pole vault, clearing 4.5 meters on his third jump.

The Owls will return to action after the winter break, competing in the Springfield College Open on January 23.

Westfield Leads Smith Cup Race After Fall

WESTFIELD — After the completion of the fall regular season, Westfield State has the lead in the first round of the Howard C. Smith Cup standings. The Smith Cup is awarded annually to the member institution which compiles the most points based on the placement of each of its programs competing in the 15 league championship sports.

The Smith Cup is named in honor of former Massachusetts State College Trustee Howard C. Smith, who in 1970, urged the athletic directors of the eight State institutions to hold a series of meetings to discuss the possibility of forming an intercollegiate conference. In June of 1971, Smith's dream became a reality as an affirmative agreement was reached and the MASCAC was created.

Westfield State took home 59 points (77.63 percent) out of 76 possible points. The Owls finished first in men's soccer and women's cross country while finishing in the second spot in field hockey, men's cross country and women's soccer.

Coming in second is Bridgewater State with 51 points (67.11 percent) out of 76 points available. The Bears were the top MASCAC finishers in field hockey and second in women's cross country.

Framingham State is next in third with 49.67 points (65.35 percent) of 76 points. The Rams claimed the MASCAC regular season crown in football and tied for first in the volleyball regular season standings.

Worcester State lands in the fourth spot with 40.17 points (52.85 percent) of 76 possible points. The Lancers ended the fall as the women's soccer regular season champions and third in both men's soccer and women's cross country.

Fitchburg State finished the fall season with 33.17 points (51.82 percent) out of 64 points available, good enough for fifth. The Falcons took home the top spot in men's cross country and finished second in football.

MCLA lands in the sixth spot with 23.50 points (45.19 percent) out of 52 possible. The Trailblazers nabbed a share of the volleyball regular season title and finished in a tie for third in men's soccer.

Rounding out the Fall Howard C. Smith Cup standings are Massachusetts Maritime and Salem State in seventh and eighth, respectively. The Buccaneers had 20 points (31.25 percent) out of 64 possible. The Buccaneers were fourth in football and men's cross country at the end of the regular season. Salem State finished with 11.50 points (23.96 percent) out of 48 available points. The Vikings were fifth at the end of the regular season in women's soccer and volleyball.

Westfield is defending the Smith Cup title after winning in 2014-15. The Owls have won five of the last 10 Smith Cups.

WSU Men's Track claims silver

SPRINGFIELD – Tevin Cintron won the 800 meters, Zack Delisle won the pole vault, and the Westfield State men's track and field team used it's depth to advantage as the Owls placed second at the Maroon and White Invitational meet at the Springfield College field house on Saturday.

Delisle cleared 4.40 Meters (14′ 5-1/4″) in winning the pole vault by a full foot more than his closest competitor.

Cintron claimed the 800 meter crown in 2:04.35, nosing out teammate Connor Gotzman at the wire by 33/100ths of a second.

The Owls 4×400 relay team was also a winner.

Depth was a factor as the Owls had three runners score points in the 60, the 600, the 800, the mile and had four athletes (Derik Noland, Yuta Suzuki, Tim Forrest and Pat Burns) score in the mile.

Ed Perez was a strong second in the 60 meter hurdles in a time of 8.61 seconds. Matt Moussamih (600) Dereck Stone (long jump) and Jacob Clements (high jump) also earned second place finishes for the Owls.

The Owls scored 146 points in finishing second. Worcester State won the meet with a total of 183.50.

Westfield will return to Springfield College next Saturday for another invitational meet.

Palma, Pray winners at Invite

SPRINGFIELD – Sabrina Pray was a winner in the 60 hurdles and senior Naloti Palma (Westborough/Westborough, Mass.) took first place in the shot put to lead the Westfield State women's track and field team's efforts at the Maroon and White Invitational meet at the Springfield College field house on Saturday.

Palma put the shot 13.02 meters (42′-8.75″) in winning the event by more than three feet over her closest competitor. She also took second place in the 20-lb. weight throw with a toss of 51′-1″.

Pray got home in the 60 hurdles in a time of 9.29 seconds, improving both her standing and time after qualifying third in the prelims in 9.51. She also earned a third place finish in the long jump.

Westfield also got a winning effort from the 4×800 team.

Ashley Monahan placed third in the 400 and fourth in the 1000 to score significant points.

The Owls placed fourth with 115 points. Hosts Springfield College won the meet with 157 points.

MEN'S RESULTS

SPRINGFIELD – Westfield State University senior high jumper Travon Godette (Mahar/Orange, Mass.) broke a 27-year old school record by clearing 6′-9.75″ in winning the event at the Massasoit Classic indoor track and field meet on Saturday.

Godette's efforts helped lead the Owls to a third-place finish at the eight-team meet held at the Springfield College Field House.

Godette's leap bettered the old mark of 6′-9.5″ set by Westfield State Athletic Hall of Famer Jim Forrest'90 in 1989.

Godette cleared the record height on his first try; he missed in three subsequent attempts to go over the bar at 6-11.75. The big jump puts Godette sixth on the NCAA Division III qualifying performance list as of the moment. Godette also placed second in the triple jump with a mark of 12.70 meters (41′-8″).

Westfield State also got strong performances from senior Zack Delisle (Chicopee/Chicopee, Mass.), who won the pole vault with a mark of 15′-5.5″. Delise vaulted in to 10th place on the the current performance list. His brother Patrick (Chicopee/Chicopee, Mass.), a sophomore, placed third at the Massasoit Classic with a height of 13′-11.25″.

Mike Stender (Amherst/Amherst, Mass.) won the 500 meters in 1:08.12. He led a Owls group that placed 1-3-4-5 in the race with Jeremy Forgue Chicopee/Belchertown, Mass.), Esteafan Jack (Lincoln-Sudbury/Boston, Mass.) and Tevin Cintron (Diman Vocational/Fall River, Mass.) chasing him across the finish line.

Westfield also won the 4×400 relay in a time of 3:34.92.

The Owls placed third at the meet with 121 points, finishing behind host Springfield (127) and Amherst (124). Westfield will be back on the track next Saturday at the Doris and Walt Miga Invitational at Utica (NY) College. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

Women's Track and Field Second at MASCAC's

PLYMOUTH, N.H. – Westfield State's women's track and field team placed second at the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference Women's Indoor Track and Field Championship, held at the George Clark Track on the campus of Plymouth State University on Saturday, February 13.

Bridgewater State took the team title for the third straight season with 240 points, followed by the Owls with 187, Worcester State with 74 and Fitchburg State with 72.

Runner-up Westfield State finished the day with five individual titles and the final two relays.

Senior Naloti Palma (Westborough/Westborough, Mass.) was a dual champion with top honors in the weight throw 15.14m (49' 8.25") and shot put (13.33m/43' 9"). Ashley Craig (Westford Academy/Groton, Mass.) earned a MASCAC title and new conference record in the pole vault 3.40m (11' 1.75") while Jessie Cardin (Sutton/Sutton, Mass.) claimed the top spot in the mile (5:27.19). Ashley Monahan (Agawam/Springfield, Mass.) closed out the Westfield State first place honorees with a title in the 800 meter run (2:22.27).

The Owls also were victorious in two relays. The group of Valdemira Fernandes (Amherst/Amherst, Mass.), Craig, Jen Gaudet (Lynn Classical/Lynn, Mass.) Lexi Popp (Westford Academy/Westford, Mass.) crossed the line first in the 4x200 relay (1:48.59) and Monahan, Lauren Izabel (Suffield/Enfield, Conn.), Autumn Brown (Murdock/Winchendon, Mass.), Cardin finished first in the 4x800 meter relay (9:58.90).

The meet was run in conjunction with the New England Alliance Meet that features includes Little East Conference schools. Westfield placed third in the 11-team alliance meet with 103 points, behind Southern Maine (171) and Bridgewater State (113).

Palma scored a pair of wins in the shot put and weight throw, and the Owls 4x800 relay team was an easy winner, outpacing their closest competition by more than 12 seconds.

Cardin placed second in the 3,000 meters. Freshman Brianna Deloury (Andover/Andover, Mass.) took home second in the high jump, clearing 1.58m (5'-02.25"). Craig placed second in the pole vault.

Sabrina Pray finished third in the 60 meter hurdles after running a school-record time of 9.23 in the preliminaries.

Palma wins NED3 shot put

WESTFIELD – Westfield State senior Naloti Palma (Westborough, Mass.) took first place in the shot put at the New England Division III women's indoor track & field championships for the third consecutive year, while also placing fifth in the weight throw.

Palma's winning throw in the shot put was 13.52 meters (44'4.25″), while her best weight throw was 15.39 meters (50'6″).

The Owls finished 12th out of 30 teams at the championship meet at Middlebury College, tops among MASCAC competition. MIT won the overall team scoring, picking up 123.50 points compared to 93.93 for second place Williams College.

Sophomore Ashley Craig (Groton, Mass.) set a personal best and school record in the pole vault, finishing second in the competition with a final jump of 3.65 meters (11'11.5″). Last week, Craig won the MASCAC championship with a meet-record jump of 3.4 meters (11'1.75″).

Freshman Brianna Deloury (Andover, Mass.) also scored 0.5 points in the high jump, tying for 8th place with a best jump of 1.58 meters (5'2.5″).

In the track events, Ashley Monahan (Springfield, Mass.) and Sabrina Pray (Mansfield, Mass.) registered points for Westfield. Monahan took fifth place in the 800-meter with a time of 2:18.65. After breaking the school record in the event earlier in the season, Pray finished sixth in the 60-meter hurdles (9.35).

All-American cross country runner Jessie Cardin (Sutton, Mass.), meanwhile, ran 10th in the 3000-meter run, finishing in 10:34.47.

All qualified Owls will compete next Friday and Saturday at the All-New England Championships at Boston University.

Palma, Godette ready for NCAA Championship

WESTFIELD — Westfield State seniors Naloti Palma (Westborough, Mass.) and Travon Godette (Orange, Mass.) will compete in the NCAA Division III Indoor Track & Field championship this weekend at Grinnell College in Iowa.

The top 17 competitors in each event qualify for the national championship meet, while the top eight earn All-American honors.

"The hardest part is getting to nationals," Westfield State track & field coach Sean O'Brien said. "Whenever you get an athlete to NCAA's, the goal is always to become an All-American. They are excited and ready to compete."

Palma will compete in the women's shot put, where she ranks 11th in the nation with a top throw of 13.85 meters (45'5.25") this season. A three-time New England Division III shot put champion, Palma has qualified for the NCAA championship in each of the last three indoor seasons. Palma finished 15th in the NCAA meet last year and 12th in 2014.

Godette, a national champion in the javelin in 2015, is competing in the NCAA indoor championship in the high jump for the first time. The Orange, Mass. native ranks 12th on the high jump national qualifying list, having cleared 2.08 meters (6'9.75") in his best jump of the season at the Springfield College Massasoit Invitational.

"Both Naloti and Travon, they are used to this, they have been there before," O'Brien said. "It's not like they are big-eyed rookies. They know how to handle a big meet like this.

"It's the athletes that put in the work, that are consistent in their preparation, that listen to their coaches and apply the instruction who become All-Americans. And that's Naloti and Travon, both of them are extremely hard workers."

The women's shot put will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, while the men's high jump final begins an hour later at 2:30 p.m. Results will be posted to WestfieldStateOwls.com when they become available.

Travon Godette qualified for the NCAA Division III Indoor Track & Field Championships.

Craig sets pole vault record

SPRINGFIELD – Westfield State sophomore Ashley Craig set a school record in the pole vault to help the Owls' women's track and field team win the Springfield Classic track and field meet on Saturday.

Westfield won the 14-team meet with a score of 102. Coast Guard was second with 96 points, and Wheaton third with 89.5.

Craig cleared 3.66M or 12′-0″ in the record setting vault, surpassing her own outdoor mark of 11′-10″.

The result caps an eventful week for Craig, who was originally believed to have set a record last week before a scoring error was revealed after the meet that officials had not set the bar at the announced height.

Craig's winning vault highlighted a group of solid performances for the Owls.

In the 1500, Westfield State got a 1-2 finish from Ashley Monahan and Jessie Cardin, with Monahan edging her teammate by .62 seconds in 4:48.27.

Senior Naloti Palma won the discus with a throw of 44.20m (145′-00″) just two inches shy of her own school record. Palma had a runner up finish in the shot put with a toss of 12.48m (40′-11.50″) on her final throw of the afternoon, and placed fifth in the hammer throw.

Senior Meg McNamara placed third in the 100 hurdles in 15.69 and fourth in the triple jump with a hop, skip and jump of 10.46m (34′-04.00″).

Perez wins Classic hurdles

SPRINGFIELD – Ed Perez won the 110 meter high hurdles and ran the third leg of the Owls winning 4×100 meter relay to help the Westfield State men's track and field team to a fourth place finish at the 12 team Springfield Classic meet on Saturday.

Perez completed the hurdles in 15.07, and teamed with Paul James, Jordanio Oquendo and Elijuan Diaz to win the 4×100 in 43.39 seconds.

Other top point scorers for Westfield included Dereck Stone, who placed second in the high jump by clearing 1.88m (6′-02.00″).

Patrick Delisle took second in the pole vault with a height of 4.10m (13′-05.25″), John Tomlin had a runner up finish in the 400 meters (50.84), Matt Moussamih was second in the 800 meters with a time of 1:58.63, and Brent Kane took a third in the 400 meter hurdles (59.51).

SAAC Athletics Banquet Highlights Year End

WESTFIELD — Westfield State University held its annual athletics awards banquet on Monday night, honoring its senior class, all-conference student athletes and special award winners.

One highlight of the evening was the formal presentation of the Smith Cup, the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference's annual trophy presented to the best overall athletics program in the conference.

Special award winners included senior track and field athlete Travon Godette (Mahar/Orange, Mass.), who earned the Coach John Kurty Contributions to Athletics Award for commitment, loyalty, hard work, dedication, sportsmanship, leadership and athletics ability, who was also presented with a National Championship Ring for winning the javelin title in spring 2015. Football player Greg Sheridan (Burlington, Mass.) and women's soccer athlete Amanda Magri (Ashland, Mass.) earned the Male and Female Senior Scholar-Athlete Award for earning the highest GPA among the school's student-athletes. Senior track and field athlete Naloti Palma (Westborough/Westborough, Mass.) earned the Peter Mazza award for excellence in academics, athletics ability, sportsmanship, character, service, leadership, and personal development.

Women's basketball center Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) and women's lacrosse goaltender Mimi Khampaeng (Minnechaug/Hampden, Mass.) shared the Female Athlete of the Year award.

The Male Athlete of the Year was shared by hockey player Kyllian Kirkwood (Copper Cliffs, Ont.) and cross-country and track and field standout Mike Skelly (N. Middlesex/Pepperell, Mass.).

At the conclusion of the banquet the formal announcement was made that the Owls had claimed the 2015-16 Smith Cup. Westfield retained the cup for a second straight year, and the Owls have now won six of the last 11 cups.

Overall, the Owls won seven MASCAC team titles this season.

Sponsored by the Student Athlete Advisory committee, men's soccer player Cody Baglow (Amherst, Mass.), and women's cross country and track and field athlete Taylor Surrette (Wachussett/Rutland, Mass.) emceed the event, which included remarks from President Dr. Ramon S. Torrecilha and Vice President for Student Affairs Dr. Carlton Pickron.

More details on the individual award winners will be released on WestfieldStateOwls.com in the coming days.

Palma named 7/23/16 WSU, MASCAC 'Woman of Year'

WESTFIELD – Recent Westfield State University graduate Naloti Palma has been named as a candidate for the NCAA's Woman of the Year award.

Palma, who completed a stellar career in the track and field throwing events, capped her career at Westfield with her sixth appearance in an NCAA Championship meet and earned All-America honors with an eighth-in-the-nation finish in the shot put.

Palma was also a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, and was chosen as the MASCAC Female Scholar Athlete of the Year.

She was selected as Westfield State University's NCAA woman of the year candidate, and in turn was chosen as the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference's candidate.

Candidates are nominated and selected based on academic achievement, athletic excellence, service and leadership and a personal statement.

The NCAA Woman of the Year award honors graduating female college athletes who have exhausted their eligibility and distinguished themselves throughout their collegiate careers in academics, athletics, service and leadership.

This pool of school honorees marks the largest in the 26-year history of the award. Of the nominees for the national award, 231 competed in Division I, 117 competed in Division II and 169 competed in Division III athletics. The nominees also represent 21 different women's sports, and 127 of the nominees competed in more than one sport in college.

The Woman of the Year selection committee, made up of representatives from the NCAA membership, will then choose the top 30 honorees – 10 from each division.

From the top 30, the selection committee determines the top three honorees from each division and announces the nine finalists in September. The NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics then chooses from among those nine to determine the 2016 NCAA Woman of the Year.

The top 30 honorees will be celebrated and the 2016 NCAA Woman of the Year winner will be announced at the annual award ceremony Oct. 16 in Indianapolis.

WSU wins Falcon Cup

SPRINGFIELD – Westfield State got a pair of goals apiece from Dalton Jay and Jackson Leef as the Owls rallied past Western New England by a 6-2 score to retain the Falcon Cup, in the annual trophy game between the two schools in the season lid lifter for both ice hockey teams at the MassMutual Center on Friday afternoon.

Westfield, now 1-0 this season, won the Falcon Cup for the seventh time in eight tries, and its second consecutive cup. The Owls also won the first five games in the annual cup series.

Western New England grabbed a 1-0 lead just 2:58 into the contest on a goal from Steve Beck. The Owls answered five minutes later as Jay picked up a loose puck near his own blue line and went the length of the ice, slipping a shot past Golden Bears netminder Cole Semchak on the forehand side, and the two teams went to the dressing room at the first intermission with the score tied at 1-1.

The Golden Bears retook the lead early in the second period as Brian Hurley fed the puck up the left side to an unmarked Chris Lembo who fired a quick wrister past Owls goaltender Jonathan LoParco.

The Owls finally garnered their momentum midway through the second period. Westfield tied the game at 2-2 using good passing as Cory Wilson fed Jeremy Young in the slot after Colby Daniels had dug the puck out in the corner.

Westfield took the lead for good at the 18:03 mark on a nifty move as freshman Mason Wade dropped the puck at the blue line for Cody Campbell-Rich who blasted a shot that gave Westfield a 3-2 lead after two periods.

The Owls tacked on three more goals in the third period with Leef sandwiching a pair of goals around Jay's second marker of the day.

LoParco stopped 32 shots in earning the win on net, while Semchak stopped 34 shots before yielding to Austin Keiser late in the game. Keiser made five saves in his short stint in net.

The game, played at the MassMutual Center as the opening act to tonight's game between the Springfield Falcons and the Rochester Americans was the first NCAA Division III game in the nation to drop the puck this year, starting an hour and a half before any of their fellow competitors at that level.

Westfield State will be back in action on Thursday, hosting Salem State at Amelia Park in Westfield in a MASCAC conference game. WNEU will next travel to Worcester State on Thursday.

The Westfield State men's hockey team dropped their home opener against the Salem State Viking on Thursday in a losing 3-1 effort.

The Owls managed to get on the board first in the contest, but gave up two quick goals at the end of the first period and couldn't get any offense going after that.

It was senior defenseman Kyllian Kirkwood who got the puck past Salem goaltender Jason Pucciarelli on the power play for the game's first goal. Kirkwood one timed a nicely placed pass from sophomore forward Roman Pfennings at 13:44 of the first period.

Salem got a power play goal of soon after the Owls'. At 17:28 of the first, Vikings junior forward Brandon Platt redirected a shot from the point past Owls goaltender Jonathan LoParco to tie the game at one.

Salem was quick to tally again just thirty seconds later on a goal from sophomore forward Da Holland. The goal sent the Owls into the first intermission down 2-1.

Neither team was able to score until Salem struck at the 14:36 mark of the third period, sealing their 3-1 victory over the Owls.

Not only was it the Owls' home opener, but their first MASCAC game of the season. The Owls weren't too outmatched against Salem, in fact they registered more shots, but the Owls weren't able to take advantage of numerous power plays.

In total, the Owls' finished 1-5 on the power play, so at least they were able to break through once, but special teams is where games can be won, and only registering one goal in five tries isn't going to get the job done.

They also played somewhat undisciplined taking 4 trips to the box; including a 10-minute misconduct to freshman forward Joseph Napoli, for a hit to the head.

It was a different looking team than the one seen in a deciding 6-2 victory for the Owls over Western New England for the Falcons Cup. In that contest the Owls had only one penalty and took full advantage of their power play unit, going 2-for-3 in the game.

The Owls will have a chance to earn their first MASCAC win of the season on Thursday November 12th, but draw a tough matchup against a 3-1 Fitchburg State at the Wallace Civic Center, a team that scored seven goals in their last game on Saturday against Framingham.

The Owls won their first game of the season against Western New England 6-2 on October 30. The team currently sits at 1-1 and is looking to start the season 2-1 in conecutive years. In the beginning of the 2014-2015 season, the hockey team won their first two games against Western New England and Assumption 1-0 and 2-1 respectively, only to lose to Curry in their next game 3-2.

Leef named Ice Hockey Player of the Week

WESTFIELD — Westfield State junior Jackson Leef (Fort Wayne, Ind.) has been named the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference men's ice hockey player of the week.

The 6-foot, 186-pound center registered four points, including a hat trick and a game-winning goal, in a 2-0 week for the Owls.

On Thursday, Leef scored all three Westfield goals, including the game-winner with 29 seconds remaining in regulation, to knock off MASCAC rival Fitchburg State, 3-2. He added an assist in the Owls' 5-2 win over UMass Dartmouth on Saturday.

Leef currently ranks second in the MASAC in goals (5) and points (8), while leading the league with two points per game.

Junior goaltender Jonathan LoParco (Vaughan, Ont.) earned honorable mention for his efforts, posting a 2.00 goals against average and .923 save percentage for the Owls. LoParco stopped 27 shots against Fitchburg State and 31 shots from UMass Dartmouth.

The Owls return to the ice on Thursday, November 19 when they host Worcester State at 7:35 p.m.

Napoli, Clancy rally WSU

'Westfield News
Nov. 23, 2015

WESTFIELD – Freshman Joseph Napoli (Deer Park, NY) scored a pair of goals to lead Westfield State University as the Posted a 5-3 MASCAC ice hockey win over Framingham State on Saturday evening.

Westfield jumped out to a 2-0 lead after one period on a nifty short-handed goal by Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.) who went to the back hand to score, and Napoli's first goal of the day.

Plagued by frequent trips to the penalty box in the second period, Westfield went down 3-2 after a natural hat trick by Framingham's Keith Barnaby (Leominster, Mass.) in a span of 9:35 to start the second period. Barnaby tallied 26 seconds into the second on the power play, added another power play goal 2:24 later, and then redirected a shot at the 10:01 mark of the period to complete the trick.

Westfield pounded Framingham State with shots all night. Finally the Owls got the tying goal win Napoli scoring off assists from Johnny Orlando (Georgetown, Mass.) and Tyler Scearbo (Revere, Mass.) at the 16:55 mark of the second.

The Owls got the game-winner from another freshman, Aaron Clancy (Catholic Memorial/Quincy, Mass.) who fired in a rebound of a Roman Pfennings (Grefath, Ger.)shot 6:57 into the third. Westfield got some breathing room when Cory Wilson (Maitland, Ont.) flipped a loose puck through traffic and beat Framingham netminder Adam Calabrese (Philadelphia, PA) to the short side at the 10:18 mark.

The Rams pulled Calabrese for the final 30 seconds in a last-ditch attempt to rally. Westfield's Napoli had a long shot at the empty next slide just wide as the horn sounded to deny his attempt at a hat trick.

Jonathan LoParco (Vaughn, Ont.) made 33 saves for Westfield in picking up the win. Calabrese withstood 56 shots from Westfield, making 51 saves on the night.

Westfield improves to 5-1 with the the win, 4-1 in the MASCAC. Framingham falls to 2-4, 1-3 in the MASCAC.

Leef continues hot start against Fitchburg

Andrew McGill
Voice Reporter

Last week was an optimistic one for the Men's hockey team. They took part in two MASCAC contest and came out of both of them with big wins.

On Thursday, the team travelled to Fitchburg and made a late comeback to win its second contest this season. Lead by Captain Jackson Leef, who potted 3 goals in the game, the Owls were able to clip the Falcons.

Leef opened the scoring with two and a half minutes left in the first on a tally assisted by senior defenseman Kyllian Kirkwood and sophomore forward Cory Wilson.

The lead didn't last at all, however, as Fitchburg State was able beat Westfield goaltender Jonathan LoPraco just 8 seconds later off the stick of senior forward Nat Rojas.

Both teams were kept off the score sheet, until an eventful third frame, which Fitchburg opened up with a at the 10:02 mark of the period.

This lead would hold up until there was 2:15 remaining in the period when Jackson Leef was once again able to get one past Fitchburg's freshman net minder Charles Jakobsson.

Then, with only 30 seconds remaining in the game, Leef completed the hat trick just in the nick of time, giving the Owls the victory, 3-2.

The team played very well in the game outshooting Fitchburg 41-29. Although, the Owls' easily could've easily dropped the game if it wasn't for the late game heroics of Leef.

The Owls then faced another MASCAC opponent on Saturday, in the form of the UMass Dartmouth Corsairs. This contest was less competitive as the Owls' never allowed the Corsairs to take the lead.

After giving up three unanswered goals, the Corsairs were able to use some of the momentum given to them by a couple of Westfield penalties and snuck in two relatively quick goals past Westfield's Lopraco. At that point it was a one-goal game with just over 6 minutes to go in the third.

The Owls' would not let the Corsairs back into the game however, and got off their heels with a Dalton Jay goal less than a minute after the Corsairs made it a one-goal game.

Just a few minutes later Jay was able to net his second of the game and put the game out of reach, solidifying the Owls 5-2 victory over UMass Dartmouth.

The Owls are currently ranked 2nd in the MASCAC with its 2-1 record in the conference. Its win over Fitchburg gave the Falcons their first loss in the conference this season, and pushed the Owls up to number 2.

Two of the Owls' were honored this week with awards for their play from the MASCAC. Jackson Leef was named the men's ice hockey player of the week for his efforts against Fitchburg and UMD. Leef ranks second in the conference in goals (5) and points (8), and leads the conference in points per game (2).

Goaltender Jonathan LoPraco was also given honorable mention for his performances, posting 2.00 goals against average and .923 save percentage. He made 27 and 31 saves against Fitchburg and UMass Dartmouth, respectively.

The Owls will play a pair of home games this week. They will play Thursday against Worcester State, then turn around and play Franklin Pierce on Saturday.

While Franklin Pierce has yet to win a game all year, Worcester State has yet to win an in-conference game and the Owls will be looking to keep it that way.

Hockey continues hot start against Ravens

Andrew McIntosh
Voice Reporter

The Westfield Men's Hockey team keeps riding a wave of momentum, extending their win streak to now five games. The Owls are currently 6-1 on the season and seem to have started the year off with something to prove.

Their most recent victory comes against Franklin Pierce with a final score of 4-3—a hard fought game with plenty of action, which makes for some great hockey.

The first goal came from Cody Campbell-Rich (unassisted) 10:51 into the first period to put Westfield up 1-0. About five minutes passed until the Owls struck again. The score was now 2-0, coming by way of Carl Greco, assisted by Wyatt Trumbley and Cory Wilson 15:36 into the period.

Two to zero has been called the most dangerous lead in hockey, and it would be put to the test in the second period for the Owls. With the adjustments made at the break, Franklin Pierce came out of the intermission firing out on all cylinders.

Anthony Hogan of Franklin Pierce had the goal that sparked the run assisted by Dylan Yameen at 5:12 into the second period. Then Hogan struck again, this time unassisted, at 11:35 into the period. Westfield needed to stop the run, and with a penalty committed by Franklin Pierce late in the second, Westfield found their opportunity to take the momentum back.

Westfield scored a power play goal to break the tie and put them up 3-2. The goal was scored, once again, by Cody Campbell¬-Rich and assisted by Cory Wilson and Colby Daniels.

At the start of the third period, Westfield was not going to let Franklin Pierce sneak back into this game like they did in the second. By keeping the puck out of their own end with hard defense, Westfield did a great job of creating shot opportunities in the third. Johnny Orlando scored unassisted at 14:13 to put the Owls up 42, which ended up being the deciding goal. Late in the third, Jonathan Haun scored for Franklin Pierce making the score 4-3, but it would not be enough to get a rally going.

At the end of the game both teams' combined totaled 12 penalties but only capitalizing on one of them. Both teams played an aggressive game and paid for it with their penalty kill units having to play a few extra minutes.

The Owls also have had outstanding play from their goaltender Jonathan LoParco, who had 42 saves against Franklin Pierce. His save percentage for the game was .932, which is actually the same percentage he has on the year.

Owls Hockey Can't Complete Comeback Against Plymouth State

Andrew McGill
Voice Reporter

The Westfield men's hockey team found themselves down big on the road against a tough Plymouth State Panthers team on Saturday, but they refused to give up and showed some signs of life at the end of the third period. Unfortunately, it was not enough as they dropped the contest 4-2.

The Owls actually had the momentum in the first period. They managed 13 shots in the first frame, but they couldn't seem to get it past Plymouth goaltender Gordon Ceasar. The Panthers only managed to get six shots in the first, all turned away by Owls tender Jonathan LoParco.

The Panthers broke through twice in the second period, with goals from Erik Strom and Dan Dupell.

They continued to pour it on the Owls in the third, scoring goals five minutes and nine minutes in the final frame. This is when Westfield decided to join the party.

After giving up a the second goal of the period—the fourth of the game—Dalton Jay converted on the power play, putting the Owls on the board late and swinging the momentum in their favor.

Just four minutes later, freshman forward Mason Wade recorded his first goal in an Owls uniform, but it was too little too late as the Owls sputtered out, finishing with a final of 4-2.

Plymouth State increased its win streak to seven games and improved its overall record to 8-1 with the win. They remain undefeated in conference play at 6-0.

Earlier in the week the Owls were able to hold off Assumption College in an offensive battle thanks to the 36-save shutout effort from Jonathan LoParco and the two-goal performance from sophomore Roman Pfennings.

Pfennings scored the first goal for the Owls with a seeing-eye shot through a crowd of players. He also scored their fourth and final goal of the game, knocking home a rebound on the power play. Pfennings now has four goals on the season.

Assumption was able to get 36 shots on net but couldn't get any past. LoParco dropped to a lowly 2-5-2 overall record after the loss.

Senior captain Dalton Jay recorded goals in both games, bringing his team-leading total up to seven. Co-captain Kyllian Kirkwood recorded his team-leading tenth assist and continues to be the main cog on the Owls powerplay.

The Owls dropped to 4-2 in MASCAC play after the loss to Plymouth, which is tied for second in the conference along with Salem. Their overall record is still at a solid 7-2 on the season.

WESTFIELD – Junior goaltender Jonathan LoParco (Vaughan, Ont.) made 36 saves and posted his second shutout of the season, leading the Westfield State University men's hockey team to a 4-0 victory over visiting Assumption College.

Westfield State improves to 7-1 on the season, while Assumption drops to 2-5-2 with the loss.

Sophomore forward Roman Pfennings (Grefath, Germany) scored two goals to lead the Owls, including the first and last goal of the game.

With 13:53 remaining in the first period, Pfennings took a pass from freshman forward Mason Wade (Bellingham, Wash.) at the right faceoff circle and blasted a shot through a crowd of players and into the back of the net for the early lead.

Pfennings also scored a power play goal with 5:25 left in the game, knocking home a rebound for the Owls' fourth and final goal, and his fourth goal of the season.

In the second period, the Owls twice took advantage of strong faceoffs to stake themselves to a three-goal lead.

On the opening faceoff of the second period, freshman forward Colby Daniels (Leask, Sask.) secured the loose puck and passed to senior forward Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.), who streaked down the left side of the ice and ripped a shot from the top of the circle, beating Greyhounds goaltender Nick Commesso (Marshfield, Mass.) glove side for his sixth goal of the year.

Sophomore forward Nik Passero (Fort Erie, Ont.) then scored his first goal of the season with one second remaining in the period to put the Owls ahead 3-0 heading into the final frame. In the final seconds of the period, sophomore Jeremy Young (Lynnfield, Mass.) won the faceoff in front of the Assumption net and Cody Campbell-Rich (Ridgecrest, Calif.) dished to Passero for a nice top shelf goal.

Commesso played the first two periods in net for Assumption, making 23 saves and allowing three goals to take the loss. Senior Chris Hemhauser (Old Saybrook, Conn.) played the final period, making 15 saves and allowing one goal.

Westfield State heads to Plymouth State on Saturday for a 6 p.m. showdown between the two top teams in the MASCAC. Plymouth State enters the game 4-0 in league play, while Westfield is 4-1.

Plymouth holds off WSU

Westfield News

PLYMOUTH, N.H. – Plymouth State University jumped out to a 4-0 lead Saturday evening and held off a Westfield State University comeback for a 4-2 victory in a Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference men's ice hockey game at Hanaway Rink.

Plymouth State extended its winning streak to seven games, improving to 8-1 overall, and maintained its perfect conference record at 6-0-0. Westfield State dropped to 7-2 overall and 4-2 in the MASCAC.

Senior goalie Gordon Ceasar (Oak Park, Calif.) remained undefeated on the season (7-0-0), making 23 saves. Junior Jonathan LoParco (Vaughan, Ont.) made 24 saves but fell to 7-2-0 with the loss.

The visiting Owls had the upper hand in the first period, out-shooting PSU 13-6, but couldn't get one past Ceasar. The Panthers bounced back and took the lead in the second period with a pair of goals. Junior Erik Strom (Gothenburg, Sweden) opened the scoring midway through the period, converting a feed from junior Michael Economos (Crystal Lake, Ill.) in the slot with a shot that went inside the left post passed a screened LoParco. Junior Dan Dupell (Collegeville, Pa.) doubled the score with his fifth of the season with two minutes to go to make it 2-0 at the end of the period.

Senior Andrew Wigg (Lantz, N.S.) extended the margin to 3-0 six minutes into the third period, snapping a shot through LoParco's pads from the right circle, and Economos made it 4-0 with a power play goal with 11 minutes to play, taking a cross-ice pass from freshman Colby Lanceleve (Stewiacke, N.S.) and rifling one past LoParco from the left circle.

Westfield finally broke through against Ceasar with two goals in the final 10 minutes. Ceasar stopped sophomore Roman Pfennings (Grefrath, Germany) on a shot but senior Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.) knocked home the rebound for his seventh of the year at 10:31, and freshman Mason Wade (Bellingham, Wash.) tacked on his first of the year with 3:44 remaining.

Hawks Fly By Owls, 6-3

MARLBORO, Mass. - The Westfield State men's ice hockey team jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but allowed four second-period goals en route to a 6-3 loss in non-conference men's ice hockey action at New England Sports Center on Wednesday evening.

Becker sophomore James Wallace notched his first career hat trick, while Bryan Parsons, Nicholas McKee and Conner Allison also each tallied goals for the Hawks.

With the loss, the Owls dip to 7-3 on the season, while the Hawks head into the winter break sporting a 4-7 record.

Sophomore forward Cory Wilson (Maintland, Ont.) got Westfield off to a fast start just four minutes into the contest, beating Becker College junior goaltender Tyler Stepke tucking the first goal of the game just under his sprawling left pad. The Owls doubled their advantage at the 15:34 mark when sophomore Nik Passero (Fort Erie, Ont.) found an open Jeremy Young (Lynnfield, Mass.) for the visitors as Westfield carried a 2-0 lead into the first intermission.

The Hawks turned the tables in the second period outscoring the Owls 4-0 over the second twenty minute span. After the Owls held the Hawks scoreless for a 5-minute major penalty to start the second frame, Becker finally solved Owls netminder Jonathan LoParco.

First, Becker junior Connor Merrick had his wrist shot from the top of the right circle tipped past LoParco by junior Nicholas McKee. Next, Wallace would get the hot hand for Becker, potting a pair of goals, including his second from an impossible angle to the left of the goal that soared top shelf past the Owls goaltender to give the Hawks their first lead of the game at 3-2. The Hawks doubled their lead with just under a minute left in the period with a power-play goal off the stick of Bryan Parsons, with Morgan and Merrick notching assists.

Becker would continue to dominate in the third period. Hawks forward Connor Allison would open up the frame with an unassisted shorthanded goal, then Wallace would complete his hat trick at the 5:43 mark when Morgan found him wide open in the slot for the 6-3 final.

Stepke finished with 29 saves for his second win of the season, his counterpart LoParco finished the night with 31 stops in the loss.

Both teams will now enjoy the winter break before returning to action in 2016. Westfield State returns to the ice at the Codfish Bowl at UMass Boston on January 2, with a 4 p.m. opening round game against Johnson & Wales.

Westfield SAAC delivers children's presents

WESTFIELD — For the 11th consecutive year the Westfield State University Student-Athlete Advisory Committee collaborated with the Westfield Volunteers In Public Schools to provide Christmas gifts to needy children in Westfield.

The Owls' student-athletes sponsored a total of 27 children from the Abner Gibbs and Franklin Avenue Elementary Schools. The members of the SAAC raised a total of $850 from their teammates to provide gifts from the children's Christmas lists, shopping for and wrapping the presents and delivering them to the schools for families to pick up.

SAAC consists of two student-athletes from each varsity team. The committee focuses on community service, student-athlete education, leadership, and assisting the Westfield State Athletics department with programing for the 500 plus student-athletes.

Westfield State's Student-Athlete Advisiory Committee provided Christmas presents to 27 children in Westfield public schools in coordination with the VIPS program.

Codfish title goes to …

BOSTON – Freshman Johnny Orlando scored the lone goal for Westfield State, but it was too little, too late for the Owls as Westfield State fell to SUNY-Brockport by a 5-1 score in the championship game of the 51st annual Codfish Bowl tournament at the Beacons Ice Arena at UMass-Boston on Sunday afternoon.

The Owls had been vying for their fourth Codfish title in as many appearances in the tournament, the second longest-running collegiate hockey tournament in America.

Orlando tallied at 16:30 of the third period to cut the final margin to 5-1, off assists from Sam Quaranta and Mason Wade.

Brockport netted a pair of goals in the first period, a pair in the second period, and one in the third period. Tournament MVP Ryan Kangas got the Golden Eagles scoring started just 2:58 into the contest.

Chase Nieuwendyk added a goal and assist for Brockport and Tim Kielich handed out three assists.

Jonathan LoParco stopped 36 shots for Westfield, while Brockport netminder Cole Burack turned away 18 of Westfield's 19 shots on goal.

Westfield's Colby Daniels and Nik Passero were named to the All-Tournament team.

Westfield falls to 8-4 on the season, while Brockport improves to 6-5-2. The Owls will be back in action on Thursday at Nichols College.

Salem haunts WSU

SALEM – Westfield State tried to rally from a 2-0 deficit, but couldn't get all the way back as the Owls fell to Salem State University by a 2-1 score in a key MASCAC men's ice hockey game at the Rockett Arena on Saturday afternoon.

Westfield trailed 1-0 at the first intermission on the strength of an Andrew Bucci goal for the Vikings.

Salem extended its lead to 2-0 when Cam Moniz tallied at 11:39 of the second period.

Westfield got it's lone marker of the day exactly five minutes later with freshman Aaron Clancy netting a shorthander with an assist from classmate Mason Wade.

The Owls pulled junior goalie Jonathan LoParco for the final 57 seconds of the game and generated several late scoring chances but were unable to equalize. Loparco finished with 23 saves for the Owls, while Salem's Marcus Zelzer stoned Westfield with 22 saves.

Westfield falls to 9-5, 4-3 in the MASCAC, a game behind Salem in the league table. The Vikings improved to 9-4, 5-2 in the conference.

Falcons soar past Westfield State

1/15/16

WESTFIELD – Junior forward Cameron Snyder (Shawnee, Kan.) scored two goals and dished out two assists, leading Fitchburg State past Westfield State, 10-4, in MASCAC hockey action Thursday night at Amelia Park Ice Arena.

With the win, the Falcons move into third place in the league standings, improving to 4-3-1 in the MASCAC and 7-7-1 overall. Westfield, meanwhile, drops to 9-6 on the season and 4-4 in the MASCAC, good for fourth place.

WSU hockeyWith the game knotted at one late in the first period, Fitchburg State netted three goals in the span of two minutes to take a commanding 4-1 lead after the first period.

First, Snyder put home a missed shot that bounced off the boards and back in front of the net to give the Falcons a 2-1 lead with 6:54 remaining in the period. About a minute later, Snyder won a faceoff, directing the puck back to senior forward John Celli (Leominster, Mass.), who one-timed it home for the goal. Senior forward Nat Rojas (Elkridge, MD) added an unassisted goal on a hard slap shot to cap off the first period scoring.

Westfield State senior captain Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.) scored a shorthanded goal seconds into the second period, breaking free near center ice before beating freshman goalkeeper Charless Jakobsson (Jonkoping, Sweden) with a top shelf wrist shot on the glove side.

Fitchburg State, however, scored two goals in 10 seconds, and five goals in the second period, to take a commanding 9-3 lead into the final frame.

The Falcons first line of forwards—Rojas (1 goal, 2 assists), Celli (1 goal, 3 assists), Snyder (2 goals, 2 assists)—combined for 4 goals and 7 assists on the evening.

Freshman forward Nick DiNicola (Wolcott, Conn.) added two goals and two assists for Fitchburg, while Ricky Kramer, Ryan Connolly, Mike Fish, and Jon Johannesson each tallied a goal.

Jakobsson made 32 saves to earn the win in net for the Falcons. Westfield State junior goaltender Jonathan LoParco (Vaughn, Ont.) stopped 11 shots before being replaced by freshman Jake Carter (El Segundo, Calif.) midway through the second period. Carter (13 saves) and senior Evan Moorhouse (2 saves) each saw their first action in net for the Owls.

Westfield sophomore defenseman Lenny Caglianone (Matawan, N.J.) scored his first goal of the season on a shot from the slot to tie the game at 1 in the first period. Freshman Aaron Clancy (Quincy, Mass.) and senior Kyllian Kirkwood (Copper Cliff, Ont.) also scored for the Owls. Freshman defenseman Carl Greco (Niagara Falls, Ont.) led Westfield with two assists.

The Owls travel to UMass Dartmouth on Saturday, January 16 at 4 p.m. for the beginning of a three-game MASCAC road slate.

Clancy scores twice for WSU

FRAMINGHAM – The Framingham State men's ice hockey dropped a Massachusetts Athletic Collegiate Athletic Conference matchup to visiting Westfield State 6-1 Saturday afternoon in Framingham. The win moves the Owls to 11-7 and 6-5 in the MASCAC. The Rams fall to 3-12-1 and 2-7-1 in the league.

The Owls took the lead early in the 1st period when Dalton Jay (Hamilton, ON) caused a turnover on the Owls end and beat the Rams goalie. The visitors added two more late in the 1st stanza, in the 18th minute Nik Passero (Fort Erie, ON) scored and just 49 seconds later Aaron Clancy found the back of the cage to send the Owls to the break leading 3-0.

Westfield extended their lead to 4-0 when Clancy scored in the second minute of the 2nd period followed up by a Mason Wade (Bellingham, Mass.) a little over halfway through the period.

The Rams got on the board in the final minute of the 2nd period when Tyler Colacchio (Bellingham, Mass.) put one home for the hosts.

Westfield scored again in the 11th minute of the 3rd period this time off the stick of Nik Passero to reach the final margin of 6-1.

Jonathan LoParco (Vaughan, ON) made 38 saves in the win for the Owls. Adam Calabrese (Philadelphia, PA) made 17 stops in 21minutes before giving way to Alessio Muggli (Rueti, Switzerland) who turned away 23 shots.

Neither team was able to convert on the power-play. The Rams were 0-for-6 while the Owls were 0-for-4.

The Rams return to the ice on Thursday, January 28th when they travel to Salem State for MASCAC action. The Owls host Plymouth State on Saturday, January 30th.

League-leading Panthers freeze out WSU

WESTFIELD – The Plymouth State Panthers scored the first three goals of the game Saturday night, cruising to a 5-2 win over the Westfield State men's hockey team in MASCAC action at Amelia Park Ice Arena.

With the win, Plymouth State improves to 15-3-1, and sits atop the MASCAC standings with a league record of 10-1-1. Westfield State drops to 11-8 on the season, 6-6 in MASCAC play.

Junior forward Michael Economos (Crystal Lake, IL) led the Panthers with two goals, while junior forward Dan Dupell (Collegeville, PA) added a goal and two assists.

Junior defenseman Erik Strom (Gothenburg, Sweden) opened the scoring for Plymouth six minutes into the first period, pouncing on the puck in front of the net after a rebound from a shot by Dupell.

Economos netted his first goal with 1:47 remaining in the first period, scoring on a slap shot as the Panthers skated with a man advantage. Dupell and Zach Fox ((Sandown, NH) were credited with assists on the play.

Junior forward Ryan Callahan put the Panthers ahead 3-0 less than a minute into the second period before the Owls finally answered with a goal of their own.

Westfield freshman forward Aaron Clancy (Quincy, Mass.) put the Owls on the board eight minutes into the second period, cleaning up after a shot by sophomore forward Roman Pfennings (Grefath. Germany) bounced off Plymouth goaltender Gordon Ceasar (Oak Park, Calif.).

Three minutes later, however, Economos scored his second power play goal of the evening to push the Panthers lead to 4-1. Dupell scored Plymouth's final goal with 16:49 remaining in the third period.

Owls senior forward Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.) scored his league-leading 13th goal of the season late in the third period from just beyond the right faceoff circle to cap the scoring.

Ceasar made 33 saves on the night to earn the win in net for the Panthers. Westfield junior goaltender Jonathan LoParco (Vaughn, Ont.) made 26 saves in the loss.

Westfield State will try to rebound from the loss on Thursday, as they host Salem State at 7:35 p.m. Plymouth State will play host to UMass Dartmouth next Saturday at 6 p.m.

Salem downs Westfield State University

WESTFIELD – Senior forward Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.) scored for the fourth game in a row, but Westfield State dropped its third consecutive home game, falling to Salem State, 5-2, in MASCAC action Thursday night at Amelia Park Ice Arena.

With the win, Salem State improves to 15-5 overall and moves into first place in the MASCAC with an 11-2 conference record and 22 points. Westfield State drops to 11-9 on the season, and sits in fourth place in the conference standings at 6-7.

Salem State senior forward Andrew Bucci (Peabody, Mass.) opened the scoring on a shorthanded goal, deking Owls goaltender Jonathan LoParco (Vaughn, Ont.) before flipping the puck backhanded into the net less than four minutes into the game.

Jay evened the score with 7:01 remaining in the first period, beating a Salem defenseman one-one-one in the slot before sliding a shot underneath junior goaltender Marcus Zelzer's knee pads. Freshmen Wyatt Trumbley (Campbell River, B.C.) and Colby Daniels (Leask, Sask.) were credited with assists on the goal.

Salem, however, responded with two goals in the final four minutes of the first period to seize a 3-1 advantage.

Sophomore forward Mackenzie Cook (Reading, Mass.) stole an errant pass in front of the Owls net to take a 2-1 lead, then senior forward Cam Moniz (Seekonk, Mass.) deflected home a Gabriel Cromp (Montreal, Quebec) slapshot from the blue-line for a 3-1 edge.

Salem State peppered LoParco with shots throughout the night, outshooting the Owls, 42-22. LoParco made 37 saves in the loss.

Michael Chen added an unassisted goal 10 minutes into the second period, five-holing LoParco after scooping up a loose puck when an errant Owls pass deflected of a teammate's skate and into their defensive zone.

Cody Campbell-Rich (Ridgecrest, Calif.) cut the Vikings lead to 4-2 midway through the third period, stationing himself at the far post and tapping home his eighth goal of the season after a beautiful feed from sophomore forward Nik Passero (Fort Erie, Ont.). Sam Quaranta (Niagara Falls, Ont.) also earned an assist on the play.

The Owls pulled LoParco from the net with about three minutes remaining in the game and had chances to pull within one goal, but Zelzer and the Vikings defense held strong. Zelzer saved 20 of the 22 shots on net.

Senior forward Andrew Bettencourt (Riverside, RI) put home an empty-netter with 26 seconds left to cap the scoring for Salem.

Westfield will head to Fitchburg on Saturday, February 6 to take on the third-place Falcons at 6 p.m. The Falcons defeated the Owls, 10-4, in their last meeting,

MASCAC: Rally falls short for Westfield State

FEB. 19, 2016 WESTFIELD NEWS

WESTFIELD – Westfield State erased a four-goal deficit, but surrendered a late goal, falling to Framingham State, 5-4, in MASCAC hockey action Thursday evening in the 7th annual Pink-in-the-Rink game at Amelia Park Ice Arena.

Framingham State staked itself to a 4-0 lead after one period, but Westfield State scored the next four goals, evening the game on a Nik Passero goal—his third of the night– with 10:10 left in the game.

Rams sophomore forward Tyler Colacchio (Bellingham, Mass.), however, poked home a rebound in a mad scramble in front of the net for the game-winning goal with just under nine minutes remaining.

With the win, Framingham State secured a spot in the MASCAC Tournament, improving to 4-11-1 in the conference and 5-17-1 overall. Westfield State drops to 12-12 on the season, and sits in fifth place in the MASCAC at 8-9.

The Rams scored the first goal seven minutes into the first period. Melvin Nichols won a faceoff, playing it directly back to junior forward Cam Coburn, who passed across ice to junior defenseman Vaughn Guetens (Cheshire, Conn.), who scored on a one-timer slap shot from the blue line.

Freshman forward Cameron Klahre (Ashburnham, Mass.) scored the next two goals for Framingham, beating Owls goaltender Jonathan LoParco (Vaughn, Ont.) through the five-hole with six minutes remaining in the first period, then scoring a breakaway after two Owls collided at center ice and allowed Klahre behind the defense.

Sophomore forward Keith Barnaby (Leominster, Mass.) added a fourth goal with 48 seconds left in the period, flipping a shot over LoParco's shoulder pad.

Passero scored two goals in a three-goal second period for the Owls. With 10:39 left in the second period, Passero took a pass from freshman forward Aaron Clancy (Quincy, Mass.) and fired a wrist shot past Rams junior goaltender Alessio Muggli (Rueti, Switzerland).

Twenty seconds later, senior forward Dalton Jay (Hamilton, Ont.) fed Colby Daniels (Leask, Sask.), who fired a shot into the top left corner of the net from the left faceoff circle to pull the Owls within two.

Passero added his second goal on another nice pass from Jay, who found Passero behind the Rams defense for a snipe shot shorthanded goal with 59 seconds remaining in the second period.

After LoParco gave up four goals in the first period, freshman goaltender Jake Carter (El Segundo, Calif.) played the final two periods in net, making 15 saves on 16 shots. Muggli made 32 saves to earn the win for the Rams.

Framingham State dominated the faceoff game, 37-24, though they were actually outshot on the evening, 33-24.

Westfield State's Pink-in-the-Rink game is supported by the Coaches vs. Cancer Foundation and aims to raise awareness and money for cancer research.

The Owls have one final regular season game—at Plymouth State on Tuesday at 6 p.m.—before the MASCAC Tournament. Framingham State returns to the rink on Saturday when it hosts Salem State at 7:40 p.m. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

Owls advance in MASCAC tourney

NEW BEDFORD – Westfield State parlayed good health into victory, as the Owls skated to a 4-2 win over UMass Dartmouth in the opening round of the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference men's ice hockey tournament at Hetland Arena on Saturday afternoon.

Westfield which had skated a line short due to a variety of injuries in the closing weeks of the season were buoyed by the returns of Jackson Leef, Cory Wilson, Mason Wade and Jeremy Young.

Westfield jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the first period on a goal by senior Kyllian Kirkwood assisted by Leef.

UMass Darmouth answered 7:46 into the second period when Mike Kelly tallied the first of his two goals on the day on the power play to tie the game at 1-1.

The Owls Roman Pfennings gave Westfield a 2-1 lead later in the second with Leef picking up a second assist on the afternoon.

Nik Passero extended Westfield State's lead to 3-1 with an assist from Wilson with just over 12 minutes left in the game, but Kelly's second marker of the day pulled the Corsairs to within 3-2.

Westfield withstood a late Corsairs' power play, and finally Owls' senior Dalton Jay tallied an empty-netter with 23 seconds left in the game to give Westfield the 4-2 final. Jay's goal was his team leading 18th of the season.

Westfield peppered UMD goaltender Drew Michals with 37 shots. The Owls Jonathan LoParco stopped 36 shots in goal.

Kirkwood named to All-America Team

WESTFIELD — Westfield State University senior defenseman Kyllian Kirkwood has been selected as an All-American on the HeroSports.com All-America Team.

Kirkwood, a defenseman from Copper Cliff, Ontario was the Owls' second-leading point scorer and tied for the team lead in assists, scoring four goals and assisting on 18 others. Typically Westfield's top blueliner, he was pressed into duty as a forward for several games late in the season as Westfield State battled the injury bug.

Kirkwood finishes his four year stint at Westfield with 104 games played, 20 goals and 57 assists for 77 points. He was a first-team All-Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference choice in 2016 and a second team all-conference pick in 2015.

Kirkwood's 57 assists are 17th on the school's all-time list. Kirkwood played junior hockey for the Wellington Dukes of the OJHL.

He played in all 27 games for the Owls this season, and served as a team captain.

Kirkwood signed with the Fayetteville FireAntz of the Southern Professional Hockey League and has played 10 games with the team while finishing his classes online.

HeroSports.com is a national website whose mission is to advance interest and appreciation for small-school athletics through aggregating and publicizing stories about teams, players, fans, and coaches.

The All-America team consists of six players (three forwards, two defensemen and one goalie) each from the East and West Regions. Kirkwood was joined on the east team by defenseman Rich Botting of Plattsburgh State, forwards Stephen Collins and Trevor Hills of SUNY-Geneseo, UMass-Boston's Matt LeMire and goalie Evan Buitenhuis from Hamilton College.

About the Tournament

The Rick Martin - Holiday Inn Tournament is a tribute to Rick Martin, a freshman member of the 2003 men's basketball team who passed away on Oct. 16 – the second day of preseason practice - while playing the sport he loved. The son of Dana Martin and Richard Cofield, Ricky was born in Boston. He discovered his love of basketball at age 12, and competed in numerous youth leagues. He concluded his high school career at Taunton High in 2002 with a sensational senior campaign and was named All-Scholastic. Ricky was sought after by many colleges and universities before he chose Westfield State College to pursue his athletic and educational goals.

WSU men's hoops set to tip off

Westfield News 11/12/15

WESTFIELD – The Westfield State Owls' men's basketball team begins its 2015-16 campaign in the upcoming Rick Martin/Holiday Inn Express Tournament Friday, November 13 at the Woodward Center, looking to build upon the success they've had in recent years.

Westfield State won 20 games a year ago and qualified for the NCAA tournament, but graduated five senior starters. In January, Sutter went to the all-senior starting lineup, as the Owls reeled off 15 of 16 games before falling to Babson in the opening round NCAA tournament.

Despite the success from last season, the Owls placed fifth out of seven teams in a MASCAC pre-season coaches' poll.

The Owls will have to find different ways to score after graduating their top three scorers and more than 75 percent of their points from last season. Among the players lost was leading scorer and rebounder Grant Cooper, who averaged 17.3 points per game and 8.9 rebounds in 2014-15.

Head coach Rich Sutter returns to the bench for his 18th season. He leads a young and exciting team that looks to showcase its talent.

"A lot of people do not think we will be good because we've lost five seniors but it happens. Kids graduate but I think we have a good group," said Sutter when asked about this year's team.

Junior guard Jesus Sanchez figures to play a bigger role offensively. Sanchez started 10 games last year and was the team's fourth-leading scorer. In 19 minutes per game, Sanchez averaged 7.7 points on 45.5 percent shooting.

Sanchez will likely be joined in the backcourt by 6-foot-3 sophomore Allister Williams at point guard. Williams played just 87 minutes as a freshman, but he's a fluid athlete who averaged 19.6 points, 4 rebounds, and 3.5 assists as a senior at Bedford High School, shooting 37 percent on three-pointers.

Sophomore Phillip DiPhillipo, a hard-nosed defender, should also see some time at point guard for Owls, while explosive junior forward Nathan Powers looks to mature into a high-minute player on the wing.

Sutter will look to 6-foot-6 sophomore center Shane Pasquantonio and high-flying senior forward Tchuijo Nkamebo to control the paint defensively for the Owls.

Playing in 14 games after winter break, Pasquantonio showed good finishing ability around the rim and will likely draw the opponent's top post-up threat on defense. Nkamebo led the team last season in blocks per 40 minutes at 1.85, while also averaging 9.9 rebounds per 40.

Brian Foley, a 6-foot-6 senior forward, looks to build upon a solid junior year. Foley was second on the team in field goal percentage shooting just over 56 percent.

After graduating all five starters, the biggest challenge for Sutter may be figuring out a reliable and consistent starting lineup. The Owls return just two seniors, and only three players who played more than 10 minutes per game last season.

Westfield will have to develop its young talent on the fly and gain experience throughout the season. Though the Owls may suit up as many as five freshmen in the opener on Friday, Sutter does not expect any of them to crack the starting lineup.

"I'm not sure. We are not big on [starting freshmen]," Sutter said. "I don't hold them back either. If they are ready to go, they are ready to go."

Cam Earle, a 6-foot-4 shooting guard, is one of the freshmen who could crack the Owls' rotation this season. In his senior year at South Hadley High, Earle averaged 23.7 points per game and led the Tigers to a Division II Western Mass. championship, scoring 31 points per game in the postseason. The lights-out shooter made 153 three-pointers and scored 1,015 points in his high school career.

Another freshman to look out for is 6-foot-5 forward Dan Lanoue, who figures to add much-needed depth to the Owls' frontcourt.

Kevan Cuffie, a 6-foot-6 freshman, should also see major minutes in the frontcourt when he returns from an ACL injury in January. The former local high school standout at New Leadership Charter School is long and athletic, with a soft shooting touch, and will bring versatility to both ends of the court for the Owls.

Although the Owls are young, many players returning will have another year of experience in Sutter's system. Sutter has led Westfield to winning seasons in 11 of the 13 past seasons.

Last year's team finished the season at 20-7. Though it will be hard to duplicate last season's success, the talent on this year's team leaves many excited about the future. When asked to project his team's win total for the season, Sutter said he does not predict the future, but added, "I can tell you we are going to fight. We are going to play hard."

Intense play has been consistent in the Sutter era and this year figures to be no different.

The Owls are scheduled to play against Western New England University on November 13th at 5:30pm in the Rick Martin/Holiday Inn Express season-opening tournament, followed by either a championship or consolation game on Saturday.

Owls hit road block

NORTHFIELD, Vt. – The Westfield State men's basketball dropped its first road test, 77-70, to Norwich University Wednesday night in Andrews Gymnasium. Norwich is now 1-0 overall, while the Owls fall to 1-2 on the year.

Sophomore center Mike Hogervorst put up a team-best 24 points and 12 rebounds for his second double-double of the year. Junior guard David Hampton drilled five three-pointers along with a pair of free-throws for 17 points, while sophomore Ryan Booth contributed 12 points, all on threes followed by a charity stripe shot on the night.

In the opening tip-off, Westfield exploded out to an 11-2 lead in the first four minutes of the game on back-to-back three-pointers before head coach Paul Booth called for a 30-second timeout to calm down his players' nerves.

After the break, the Cadets settled right in and paced themselves to what would be a 14-5 stretch to catch up before sophomore guard Zygimantas Sirvydas went up for the layup to give Norwich its first lead of the game, 17-16, with 10:52 remaining in the first half.

Both teams would trade baskets for the next four minutes before the Cadets nailed four three-pointers, two from Booth and Hampton, to extend the lead at 36-25. Westfield added five more points to onto the board before Booth notched his third and final long bomb from beyond the arc down the stretch with Norwich leading 44-30 at the break.

The Owls' defense shifted into a full court pressure throughout the second half and it paid off in the opening minutes of the stanza as Norwich turned the ball over three times as Westfield shaved the 14-point margin to just two points, 58-56, at the 9:07 mark.

Hampton drilled in his fifth three-pointer on the night to keep the Owls at bay for the remainder of the game. The final eight minutes would come down to who could make the most free-throw shots as the Cadets made 10 of the 15 shots from the charity stripe, while the Owls made just 6-of-8 from the line along with several last second three-pointer shots before the buzzer sounded.

Junior center Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, Mas.) and senior forward Tchuijo Nkaemebo (Amherst, Mass.) led the Owls with 15 points and three steals each, with Pasquantonio pulling down 11 rebounds for a double-double. Junior guard Jose Allen (Amherst, Mass.) pitched in 12 points as junior guard Phillip DiPhillipo scored nine points off the bench.

Norwich shot 60.5 percent from the floor, hitting 57.1 percent from beyond the arc. The Cadets would make 65.4 percent (17-26) from the stripe and forced 10 Westfield turnovers, five of them on steals.

Westfield would shoot just 42.9 percent from the field, 27.3 from the three-point line, and struggled to hit the marks at the stripe, completing just 48.1 percent (13-27) on the night.

Westfield State will hit the road again this weekend, travelling to Emmanuel College for 1 p.m. tip off on Saturday, November 21.

Mafo, Pasquantonio lead Owls past Saints

Shane Pasquantonio scored 12 points and grabbed 14 rebounds in the Owls' win on Saturday. (File photo)

WESTFIELD – Freshman guard Peter Mafo (Lynn Classical/Lynn, Mass.) came off the bench to score 17 points and handed out six assists to lead Westfield State to an 84-75 win over Emmanuel College in a non-conference men's basketball game at the Woodward Center on Saturday afternoon.

Westfield State improves to 2-2 with the win, while Emmanuel drops to 0-3 on the season.

Westfield led 34-21 at the half, behind 12 first-half points from junior center Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland/Ashland, Mass.).

The Owls managed the lead in the second half, never letting the Saints get closer than six points, 39-33 with 14:35 left in the game.

Mafo's play sparked the Owls in the second half, keying several Saints turnovers and pushing the pace. Jose Allen (Amherst/Amherst, Mass.) hit four three pointers for the Owls in the second half, and Pasquantonio swept the boards late, finishing with 14 rebounds, including 11 of on the defensive end.

Emmanuel was led by 25 points from sophomore forwardAlex Minetti (Providence Country Day/Wakefield, R.I.) on 10-19 shooting, including 5-9 from three-point range. Joe Tamburro (S. Windsor/S Windsor, Conn.) added 12 points and John Clay (Westport/Westport, Mass.) scored eight points and grebbed nine rebounds for the Saints.

Pasquantonio finished with 12 points and 14 rebounds for the Owls. Allen added 13 points. Westfield had 12 players appear in the scoring column. The Owls were 27-38 (71 pct) at the foul line and scored 20 points on the fast break.

Westfield will be back in action on Tuesday, November 24, hosting Nichols College at 7:30 p.m. Emmanuel will be idle until traveling to St. Joseph's College (ME) on Dec. 1.

Owls Sail Past Dutchmen

SCHENECTADY, NY -- Shane Pasquantonio scored a game high 27 points with 10 rebounds to lead Westfield State to an 85-78 non-league basketball win over host Union at the Sig Makofski Classic Saturday night. The Owls evened their early season record to 3-3 while the Dutchmen fell to 1-2.

Peter Mafo added 16 points and Justin McElroy had 11 for the Owls, who shot 49% for the game and had a 45-34 rebounding advantage. Pasquantonio made 11 of 20 shots and five of six from the line and nine of his boards came on the defensive side.

Union was led by Deshon Burgess, who scored 23 along with four assists and seven rebounds. William Hython had a double double with 16 points and 10 rebounds. Wade McNamara scored 15 and Ryan Whelpley added 14 with six rebounds. Union shot 43% for the game.

Westfield led 43-37 at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the first 20 minutes (32-20 with 6:04 remaining). Union tied it at 47-47 with 15:12 left and it was 55-55 with 12:17 to play in the second half. The Dutchmen then went on a six point run for a 61-57 lead with 9:42 left and also led by six at 67-61 with 6:43 to play after a layup by Whelpley. But the Owls came back to take a 72-70 lead with 3:19 to play. Burgess hit a layup with 3:02 left for the tie, but a jumper by Pasquantonio with 2:44 to play gave the guests the lead for good. The Owls made six free throws in the final 27 seconds to provide the final.

Clarkson engineers win over Westfield

SCHENECTADY, NY – Felix Abongo scored a game high 17 points with seven rebounds and Derek Hart had 16 with a game best eight boards to lead Clarkson to an 81-62 win over Westfield State at the Sig Makofski Classic at Union's Viniar Athletic Center Sunday. The Golden Knights improved to 2-5 while the Owls fell to 3-4.

Conrad Zampier scored 15 points and Drew Zlogar added 13 for Clarkson, which shot 54% for the game making 28 of 52 shots. The Knights also made 86% of the free throws, 18 for 21. Malaquias Canery had a game best four assists.

Jesus Sanchez led Westfield State with nine points and Shane Pasquantonio had seven points with a team high four rebounds. Nick Guerriero added seven points off the Westfield State bench. The Owls shot 47% and had a 30-28 rebounding advantage.

Clarkson jumped out early and led by 14 with 11:16 left in the first half. The largest lead of the half was the 22 point margin at halftime, 43-21, after a three pointer by Drew Zlogar. The largest lead of the day came when Canery made a jumper for a 79-51 lead with 4:06 left.

Clarkson returns to action December 1 when the Knights host Postdam at 7 p.m. Westfield State hosts Amherst December 1 at 7 p.m.

Owls show promise despite tough early season schedule

Tim Jaroche
Voice Reporter

The men's basketball team is 3-4 for the season but has plenty of games left to fix their record. This past weekend they participated in the Union College tournament where they played Union College and Clarkson University.

To start the game against Union, things were even for the first 10 minutes or so. Then, around the 11-minute mark, Westfield was leading 17-16. From there the Owls went on a 15-4 run, making the score 32-20. Things then slowed down for the Owls, but they were able to maintain their lead.

After Joe Crane hit a three pointer to put the Owls up 37-27 with three and a half minutes left in the half, Union had enough. In the next two minutes Union held Westfield at 37 and scored ten points for themselves, tying it up with a minute and a half to go.

Going into the half with momentum is important, and Union was doing just that. A layup by Shane Pasquantonio, a free throw by Evan Hopson, and a buzzer-beating three by Peter Mafo ruined Union's hopes of having momentum going into the half and left the score at 43-37 with Owls on top.

Sophomore Allister Williams drives to the hoop against Amherst on Tuesday night. He is averaging five points per game in an average of 20 minutes of action on the season so far.

In the first half, although the game was somewhat even throughout, Union shot only 37.9% from the field on 29 shots. Westfield got up 35 shots and put in 42.9% of them in the first half.

In the second half, Union gained momentum and jumped on the Owls from the start. In the first five minutes, Union scored ten points to take a 47-45 lead.

At the three-minute mark Westfield's Justin McElroy knocked down a three pointer to regain the Owls lead 72-70.

The last contested play of the game took place with one minute left when Peter Mafo hit a layup to make it 79-76 Owls.

From then on Union fouled Westfield and the Owls hit 6 free throws to close Union out 85-78.

Clarkson University would be the opponent the following day. This game would not go as smooth as the Union affair.

Five minutes into the first half, Westfield was running with Clarkson, down by two, 12-10. From then on, however, Clarkson turned up the heat and wouldn't look back.

The closest the Owls came was within eight for the rest of the half. By halftime things were out of hand with Clarkson leading by a score of 43-21.

In the second half Westfield came as close as 19 points from Clarkson. The final score was 81-62 in a one sided affair.

The first half is what hurt Westfield the most, going down by 22. In the second half they outscored Clarkson 41-38.

The Owls proved that they could stay with Clarkson; they just couldn't afford to slip like they did in the first half.

On Tuesday, Dec. 1, the Owls dropped another one to #4 Amherst College by a score of 89-65.

Coming up they have an out of conference game versus Western Connecticut State this Thursday, Dec. 3.

DANBURY, CT – Holding a 13-point lead with two minutes remaining, the Western Connecticut State University men's basketball team held off a late charge by the visitors from Westfield State University to claim a 77-76 victory Thursday night at Feldman Arena.

For Western, senior Phil Starks (Hartford, CT) led all scorers with 27 points, while freshman Jauch Green (Hartford, CT) scored 19. Senior Luis Bridtter (Stamford, CT) recorded a double-double with 18 points to go with 10 rebounds for the Colonials.

For Westfield State, junior Jesus Sanchez (Springfield, MA) led with 26 points, followed by junior Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, MA) with 12 points and sophomore Allister Williams (Boston, MA) with 10 points. Pasquantonio and senior Brian Foley (Worcester, MA) each had eight rebounds for the Owls.

Western ran out to an early 6-0 lead, prompting a Westfield State timeout. The Owls responded with a 9-0 run coming out of the timeout to take a 9-6 lead.

Western regained the lead, 17-15, after a Bridtter layup midway through the first half, but a pair of free throws by Williams put Westfield State back in front, 19-17.

Westfield State took its final lead of the game, 23-22, after a Pasquantonio jumper with five minutes left in the half, but Western closed with an 18-8 run to take a 40-31 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Western maintained its lead early in the second half, eventually building a 15-point advantage, 58-43, after a Green jumper with 12 minutes remaining.

Western took its largest lead of the game, 17 points, when Starks hit one of two free throws after a technical foul was called on the Westfield State bench three minutes later.

Western still led by 15 with four minutes to play and by 13 points, 74-61, with two minutes left, but Westfield State went on a 12-0 run to cut the lead to 74-73 with 18 seconds left on the clock.

Starks hit a pair of free throws to push the Western lead to 76-73, and after a Westfield State turnover, senior Ryan Belote (Meriden, CT) hit one of two free throws to give Western a four-point cushion with 11 seconds to play.

That lead proved to be just enough as Sanchez banked in a 3-pointer with one second remaining, making Western's final margin of victory 77-76.

For the game, Westfield State held a 38-33 advantage in rebounds, but Western had the edge in assists, 20-9. Western finished shooting 44.3% from the floor and 64.3% from the line, while Westfield State hit 54.4% and 71.4%, respectively.

With the win, Western improves to 4-1 on the season, while Westfield State falls to 3-6. The Colonials return to action on Saturday, December 5, when they travel to play Little East Conference rival UMass Boston. Tipoff is scheduled for 3 p.m.

WESTFIELD – Senior center Brian Foley (Worcester, Mass.) scored a season-high 17 points, but the Westfield State men's basketball team dropped one on the road to Wesleyan, 82-61, Saturday afternoon at Silloway Gym in Middletown, Conn.

With the loss, the Owls drop to 4-7, while Wesleyan improves to 8-1 with the win.

Wesleyan led by five at halftime, but pulled away from Westfield after break with some hot shooting from the outside. The Cardinals drained 9-of-16 three-point attempts in the second half, and sunk 14 three-pointers in the game.

BJ Davis led the charge for the Cardinals, scoring a game-high 26 points, while making 7-of-9 three-pointers. Joseph Kuo (13 points) and Rashid Epps (12 points) also reached double figures for Wesleyan.

Westfield State had nine players score, but only Foley reached double figures for the Owls. Senior Tchuijo Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) nearly registered a double-double with nine points and nine rebounds.

Wesleyan shot over 50 percent for the game, and outrebounded Westfield State, 38-30.

The Owls will be off until after the new year, when they host Regis College on January 2 at 5:30 p.m. at the Woodward Center.

Westfield News

WESTFIELD – It took three overtime periods, but the Westfield State men's basketball team outlasted Regis College, 89-83, in its first game back from the holiday break Saturday afternoon at the Woodward Center.

After scoring just six points in the first 42 minutes of the game, Westfield State junior guard Jose Allen (Amherst, Mass.) scored 10 points and nailed two three-pointers—including the dagger with 30 seconds remaining—in the third overtime to lead the Owls to the victory. With Westfield up 82-79, Allen canned a gutsy three early in the shot clock to extend the lead to six and ice the game.

Westfield led by three with seven seconds remaining in regulation, but Regis was able to force overtime with a made free throw and on offensive rebound put back. After Chris Leak Jr. (New Haven, Conn.) made the first free throw to cut the lead to two, Jeff Tagger Jr. (Brockton, Mass.) raced in from outside the arc and put home the miss with four seconds left to force the first overtime.

Regis shot just 33 percent from the field for the game, but pulled down 25 offensive rebounds and scored 20 second-chance points to keep themselves close. Westfield also missed 19 of its 48 free throw attempts, including six in the final five minutes of regulation, to allow Regis to hang around.

In the second overtime, with Westfield trailing 73-71, Owls sophomore guard Phillip DiPhillipo (Orange, Mass.) went coast-to-coast in five seconds, scooping in a finger roll as he crashed into a student worker under the hoop with two seconds remaining to extend the game yet again.

Sophomore center Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, Mass.) put the Owls on his back in the second half, registering a double-double with 22 points, 11 rebounds, 4 assists, and 3 blocks before fouling out late in the contest. Regis elected to guard Pasquantonio one-on-one in the post for the majority of the game and the 6-foot-6 center consistently picked on smaller defenders as the Owls ran their offense through him in the second half.

Regis College center and leading-scorer Sam Jean-Giles (Melrose, Mass.) fouled out at the end of regulation, opening the paint up even more for Pasquantonio. Jean-Giles (10 points, 10 rebounds) missed 13 of his 17 shots on the night, but hit a key three in the final minute of regulation to cut the Owls lead to two before Tagger's last-second heroics.

Tagger tallied 13 points, 6 rebounds, and 4 assists before fouling out in the second overtime. Sixth man Ademola Afonja (Staten Island, N.Y.) carried the Pride after the break, registering a double-double (17 points, 10 rebounds) in the second half and overtime periods alone.

With Jean-Giles fouled out, and Pasquantonio guarding him with four fouls, the Pride went to Afonja however, was injured on the final play of double overtime and was unable to return to the court for the final period.

Senior guard Hector Heredia (Lawrence, Mass.) played a game-high 51 minutes for the short-handed Pride, while senior guard Jordan Monts played 45 minutes and chipped in 15 points. Leak also registered a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

After picking up two quick fouls in the first half, Tchuijo Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) gave the Owls a great spark in the second half, finishing with 14 points, 9 rebounds, and 4 blocks. Junior guard Jesus Sanchez played a lackluster first half, but finished with 14 points and some key plays on the pick-and-roll in overtime to help seal the victory.

Sophomore guard Allister Williams chipped in eight points in 12 minutes off the bench, including a team-high seven points in the first half as he consistently beat his man off the dribble.

With the win Westfield State improves to 5-7, while Regis College drops to 2-6 with the loss. The Owls return to action on Wednesday, January 6 at 7:30 p.m., opening MASCAC play at Fitchburg State.

Sanchez, Allen shoot Owls past MCLA

WESTFIELD – After a three-pointer by Paul Maurice (Boston, Mass.) put MCLA ahead by two with 4:31 left, Westfield State rattled off the last 18 points of the first half to take a 46-30 lead into the break.

The Trailblazers never got the Owls lead below double figures the rest of the afternoon, as Westfield State cruised to an 87-66 victory over MCLA in its MASCAC home opener Saturday at the Woodward Center.

With the win, Westfield State improve to 6-8, 1-1 in the MASCAC, while MCLA drops to 4-9, 0-2 in the MASCAC.

During the 18-0 run, junior guard Jose Allen (Amherst, Mass.) drained three consecutive three-pointers, all of which were assisted by sophomore forward Evan Hopson (North Providence, R.I.), while junior center Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, Mass.) sunk his first three-pointer of the season.

Westfield State made 8-of-12 shots from beyond the arc and assisted on 11 of its 15 made baskets in the first half. Junior guard Jesus Sanchez (Springfield, Mass.) also had a big first half for the Owls, sinking all three of his three-pointers and scoring 22 points.

Hopson, making just his third start of the season, brought great energy for the Owls on both ends, finishing with 8 points, 4 assists, a steal and a block.

MCLA scored the first six points of the second half to pull within 10, but when Trailblazers leading scorer Khalil Paul (Troy, N.Y.) went to the bench with his third foul, Westfield pushed its lead back to a comfortable margin. Paul scored nine of his 11 points in the first nine minutes of the second half, but didn't score again.

Sanchez led all scorers with 25 points to go along with 4 assists and 4 steals, while Pasquantonio (24 points, 9 rebounds) came up one rebound short of a double-double. Allen finished with 18 points and 6 assists.

Maurice led MCLA with 14 points before fouling out late in the game. Adam Conquest (Gardner, Mass.) and Dakari Hannah-Wornum (Dorchester, Mass.) chipped in eights points apiece for the Trailblazers, while Hannah-Wordnum also added 4 blocks.

Westfield forced 24 MCLA turnovers, scoring 23 points off those turnovers. The Owls also pulled down 14 offensive rebounds, which led to 25 second-chance points.

MCLA shot 44 percent from the field, but made just 4-of-19 long-range shots. Westfield shot 47 percent for the game and made 8-of-14 three-pointers.

Westfield State heads to Framingham State on Wednesday, January 13 for an 8 p.m. MASCAC tilt. MCLA heads to Salem State on Wednesday, January 13 looking to pick up its first MASCAC win. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

FRAMINGHAM – The Westfield State University men's basketball team placed a trio of Owls in double figures as they defeated the Framingham State University men's basketball team 69-45 in Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) action this evening at the Athletic Center.

With the win, the Owls improve to 7-8 on the season and 2-1 in the conference, while the Rams fall to 3-11 overall and 0-3 in the MASCAC.

The Owls started the game with an 18-0 run over the first seven minutes as the Rams started 0-for-7 from the floor with four turnovers. Junior Jose Allen (Amherst, Mass.) drained three threes during the opening run and classmate Jesus Sanchez (Springfield, Mass.) chipped in with five points including a conventional three point play.

Junior Dan Gould (Quincy, Mass.) got the Rams on the board with 12:30 remaining in the half with a three from long range. The Owls pushed the lead to as many as 23 in the opening half, but the Rams closed the frame with a 9-2 run capped by a Patrick Donovan (Walpole, Mass.) jumper as time expired to cut the deficit to 37-23 at half.

The Rams cut the lead down to seven after opening the second stanza with an 11-4 run fueled by a bucket in the paint from sophomore Tony Alexandre (Hyde Park, Mass.) and another three from Gould. The Owls countered with a run of their own capped by a dunk from Tchuijo Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) to push the lead to 14 with just over 10 minutes remaining. The Owls extended the lead to as many as 26 late in the second before securing the victory.

Allen paced the Owls with 19 points on 5-of-7 from behind the arc, while Sanchez filled the stat sheet with 16 points, four rebounds and four assists. Junior Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, Mass.) chipped in with 13 points and four boards, while Nkamembo grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds.

The Rams were led by 19 points and nine rebounds from Alexandre who finished just a rebound shy of a double double. Gould ended the night with nine points on 3-of-5 from behind the arc.

The Rams are back in action on Saturday afternoon when they host MASCAC rival MCLA at 3 p.m., while the Owls are back on the road for a MASCAC contest at Salem State, also at 3 p.m. – Story courtesy of Framingham sports info

Westfield State holds off Bridgewater

WESTFIELD – Junior guards Jesus Sanchez (Springfield, Mass.) and Jose Allen (Amherst, Mass.) scored 16 points each, leading the Westfield State men's basketball team past Bridgewater State, 78-70, in MASCAC play Saturday afternoon at the Woodward Center.

After being saddled with early foul trouble, Sanchez scored 13 of his 16 points after the break, dominating Bridgewater's smaller guard in the post and in the paint to lead the Owls to the victory in a rematch of last year's MASCAC championship game.

Westfield led by double digits much of the second half and pushed its lead to 12 points on layup by senior center Brian Foley (Worcester, Mass.) with just over two minutes remaining, but Bridgewater made a late charge by forcing turnovers with its full court pressure.

Foley, making a rare start for Westfield, made some great post passes and finished with 9 points, 5 rebounds, and 3 assists.

Bears junior forward Greg Romanko (Mansfield, Mass.) canned a three-pointer to cut the Owls lead to four with 30 seconds left. After Allen sunk two free throws on the other end, however, Romanko had another good look at a triple with 18 seconds left, but the ball rattled around the rim and out, allowing Westfield to escape with the win.

With Sanchez on the bench in the first half, Westfield initially struggled to find easy scoring, but 12 first-half Bridgewater turnovers led to easy opportunities for the Owls on the other end.

Two steals by sophomore forward Evan Hopson (North Providence, RI) led to transition jumpers for Allen, which sparked the Owls offense and pushed the lead to 10 before Romanko swished a rainbow three at the buzzer to send Bridgewater into the break trailing 32-25.

Bridgewater leading scorer Fawaz Mass (Taunton, Mass.) opened the second half on fire, scoring seven quick points for the Bears, before Hopson switched onto him defensively and slowed him down for the remainder of the game. Mass finished with 22 points and 8 rebounds to lead the Bears.

Romanko, Rocky DeAndrade (Mansfield, Mass.), and Patrick McGuiness (New City, NY) each had 10 points for Bridgewater.

The Bears shot 41 percent from the field and nailed seven three-pointers, but committed 18 turnovers on the evening.

Westfield outscored Bridgewater, 38-24, in the paint, relying on the post play of Sanchez, Foley, and junior Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, Mass.) Pasquantonio chipped in 9 points and 3 rebounds, while freshman Peter Mafo (Lynn, Mass.) added 10 points.

With the win, Westfield improves to 8-9, 3-2 in the MASCAC, while Bridgewater drops to 6-11, 2-3 in the MASCAC.

The Owls host Worcester State on Wednesday, January 27 at 7:30 p.m. in their next MASCAC matchup.Bridgewater State looks to rebound against MCLA, as they host the Trailblazers on Wednesday, January 27 at 7:30 p.m.

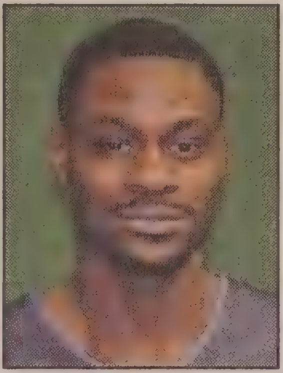
Fitchburg stops Westfield State



TCHUIJO NKAMEBO

WESTFIELD – Fitchburg State got 17 points from Jaleel Bell and parlayed an early run in the second half into an 84-67 win over Westfield State in a MASCAC men's basketball game at the Woodward Center on Saturday afternoon.

Fitchburg led 39-34 at the intermission after a see-saw first half.

The Falcons came out of the gate fast with a 9-0 spurt to start the second half capped by a layup from Bell. After Westfield broke the spurt with a free throw from Shane Pasquantonio, the Falcons further extended their lead by adding another seven unanswered points to build a 19-point lead, 54-35 with 15:10 to play in the game.

Fitchburg maintained a comfortable lead from that point forward. Lenny Burgos added 16 points and Givaughn Jones 14. The Falcons improve to 12-8, 5-2 in the MASCAC. The Falcons shot 52.5 percent from the floor and 46.2 percent (6-13) from three point range.

Westfield was led by 16 points from Tchuijo Nkamebo. Pasquantonio added 12 points and seven rebounds, and Brian Foley scored 10 with six rebounds for the Owls (8-11, 3-4 MASCAC).

The two teams traded leads early in the game. Westfield grabbed a 27-22 lead on a Jose Allen three pointer with 5:37 left in the first half.

The Falcons answered with a 7-0 run, fueled by a three pointer and layup from Bell to retake the lead 29-27 on a Jalen Williams layup with 4:26 to play in the half.

Westfield will be back in action on Wednesday, traveling to North Adams to face MCLA. Fitchburg will return to the court on next Saturday at Bridgewater State.

Westfield News Feb. 18, 2016

Westfield State falls to BSU late

BRIDGEWATER – Junior guard Fawaz Mass (Taunton, Mass.) scored 23 points to lead the Bridgewater State University men's basketball team to a 77-75 Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) victory over visiting Westfield State University on Wednesday night at the Tinsley Center.

The Bears improve to 11-12 on the season and 7-4 in the MASCAC as they are now tied for third place in the conference standings. The Owls fall to 10-14 overall and 4-7 in MASCAC play.

Mass connected on 9 of 17 field goals and was within rebound of a double-double as he pulled down nine boards.

Sophomore guard Rocky DeAndrade (Mansfield, Mass.) added 18 points, two assists and four steals for the Bears, while sophomore forward Joseph Carty (Natick, Mass.) contributed 11 points and eight rebounds and junior forward Michael Soares (Milford, Mass.) notched 12 points on 5 of 6 shooting in 26 minutes off the bench.

Junior center Shane Pasquantonio (Ashland, Mass.) posted a double-double with game-high 24 points and 14 rebounds to pace the visiting Owls. Pasquantonio was 10-for-14 from the floor and a perfect 4-for-4 at the free throw line.

All five Westfield starters finished in double-figure scoring and accounted for 73 of the team's 75 points. Junior guard Jose Allen (Amherst, Mass.) tallied 14 points and senior forward Tchuijo Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) checked in with 13, while junior guard Jesus Sanchez (Springfield, Mass.) and senior forward Brian Foley (Worcester, Mass.) finished with 12 and ten points, respectively.

The Bears jumped out to a 7-0 lead as they held the Owls scoreless for over three minutes to start the game. Westfield answered with a 7-0 run of their own over the next two minutes to knot the game at 7-7. The rest of the half featured five ties and lead changes.

A three-pointer by Sanchez with6:49 remaining accounted for the final lead change of the first half and put the Owls back on top, 30-29. Leading 40-36 later in the stanza, Westfield closed out the half with a 6-0 run to take a 46-36 lead into the break.

Both teams shot the ball well over the first 20 minutes. The Owls connected on 58% (19-33) of their field goal attempts, while the Bears shot 50% (16-32) from the floor. Mass lead all scorers with 12 first-half points, while Allen paced the Owls with 11 points and Nkamebo added ten.

An Allen three-pointer to open the second half extended the Westfield advantage to 49-36. Bridgewater, however, responded with an 8-0 run to cut the deficit to five (49-44). Westfield would maintain a single-digit lead heading into the waning minutes of the contest.

A Greg Romanko (Mansfield, Mass.) three-pointer with just over three minutes remaining pulled the Bears to within two at 73-71. After a stop, DeAndrade knocked down a pair of free throws to knot the score at 73-73.

A tie-up with the possession arrow in the Bears' advantage gave the hosts the ball back with just over two minutes showing on the scoreboard. Romanko then corralled a big offensive rebound and DeAndrade drove hard to the hoop for a layup to give the Bears their first lead since the 7:17 mark of the first half.

Westfield turned the ball over on each of their next two possessions and Mass knocked down a pair of free throws with just 16 seconds remaining to extend the BSU advantage to 77-73. A Sanchez layup at the buzzer accounted for the final score of 77-75.

The Bears shot 48% (30-62) while the Owls connected on 53% (32-60) of their field goal attempts in a very evenly played game.

Both teams wrap up regular season play on the road on Saturday afternoon at three. The Bears take on MCLA, while the Owls travel to play Worcester State University in a game that will be played at Worcester Polytechnic Institute.– Story courtesy BSU sports info

Mass.) paced the Owls with 10 points. Westfield falls to 10-15, 4-8 in the MASCAC. Worcester improves to 16-9, 8-4 in the league.

Westfield trailed 46-44 at the half. Nkamebo led the Owls with 10 points in the opening frame.

Both teams shot well from the floor as Worcester connected on 18-32 shots (56.35) while Westfield shot 48.6% from the floor. Westfield trailed by as many as eight points, 27-19 with 10:19 left in the half.

The Lancers held Westfield at arms-length for most of the second half. Westfield used a modest 6-0 run midway through the half to tie the game at 62-all on conventional three-point play by Jesus Sanchez (Holderness School/Springfield, Mass.) with 13:36 left in the game.

Worcester State finally edged away in the closing minutes, getting three pointers from McKreith-Collins, Bilal Shakir, and Ryan DiBernardo on their next three hoops to extend the lead.

The Lancers finished with six players scoring in double figures, paced by DiBernardo's 20. Worcester State shot 50.8 percent from the floor in the game and connected on 12 of 29 (41.4%) of their three point tries.

Pasquantonio finished with 14 points and 12 rebounds for Westfield. Sanchez added 15 points.

Westfield finishes the regular season in fifth place in the MASCAC. Ironically, the Owls first playoff game will be on Tuesday, February 23 against fourth-seeded Worcester State. That game will be played at Assumption College in Worcester at 7:00 p.m.

WESTFIELD — Westfield State men's basketball alumnus Chris Caputo '02 is back in the Sweet Sixteen.

Caputo played as a point guard for Owls' coach Rich Sutter from 1998-2002 before embarking on a collegiate coaching career that has taken him to the NCAA Division I men's basketball sweet sixteen three times, first with George Mason University, which made a run to the Final Four in 2006, and now for the second time as associate head coach under Jim Larranaga at the University of Miami.

Caputo's success has been well-documented on WestfieldStateOwls.com, and has frequently been mentioned as an up-and-coming candidate to take over his own program as a head coach in the near future.

Miami defeated Buffalo and Wichita State to advance. You can watch Caputo and the Hurricanes take on Villanova in the Sweet-Sixteen matchup on CBS on Thursday, March 24. Tip-off time is 7:10 p.m.

DEC 4, 2015 WESTFIELD VOICE

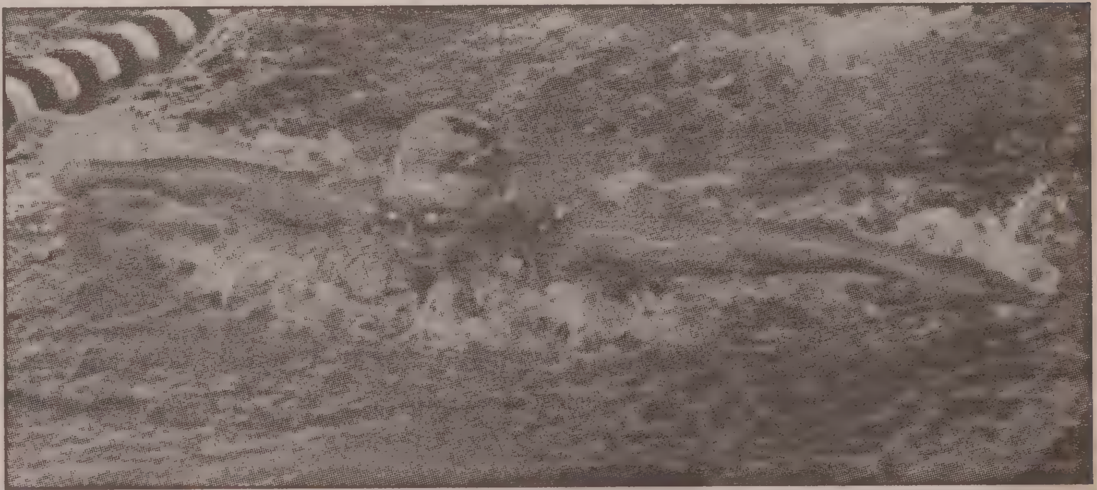
WSU Athletic Department

Anna Boucher won the 100 backstroke for Westfield State and keyed the Owls' victorious 200 medley relay team, but Westfield State fell to Smith by a 167-110 score in a dual meet at the Dalton Pool on Saturday.

Boucher swam a time of 1:06.92 in winning the 100 back. She aslo led off the medley relay team that touched-out the Smith A relay team by 15/100 of a second, teaming with Tia Pariseau, Haylee McQuay and Lesly Cano.

McQuay picked up a second in the 100 and 200 free, while Pariseau took second in the 50 free.

Westfield is now 1-3 on the season in dual meets. Westfield will host UMass Dartmouth on December 5th.



Women's Swimming defeats Western New England at home

WSU Athletic Department

Westfield State got a strong team performance as the Owls swam past Western New England, 148-102 in a dual meet at the Ely Pool on Wednesday night.

Junior Anna Boucher (Suffield/Suffield, Conn.) won three events, Alex Frazier (Dracut/Dracut, Mass.) and Tia Pariseau (St. Peter Marian/Holden, Mass.)each won two for the Owls.

Boucher got home first in the 50 free and the 50 and 100 backstroke. Frazier claimed first in the 500 and 1000 freestyle, and Pariseau was a winner in the 50 and 100 yard breaststroke events. Those three teamed with Haylee McQuay (Dartmouth/Dartmouth, Mass.) to also win the 200 medley relay.

Westfield levels its dual meet record at 1-1 on the season. The Owls will be back in action on Saturday, swimming a dual meet at Mount Holyoke College.

The Golden Bears fell to 1-1 in dual meets with the loss. Erika Shenhait (Framingham/Framigham, Mass.) won the 100 butterfly and led off the Bears winning 200 freestyle relay team.

Owls swamp Colonials

WESTFIELD – Westfield State swimmers won the first eight events of the meet as the Owls celebrated senior night at the Ely Pool on Monday night, defeating Western Connecticut State by a 105-86 score.

The Owls shared the wealth as six different swimmers earned wins, including Megan Coughlin in the 200 freestyle Monique Groux in 1-meter diving, Alex Frazier in the 50 yard backstroke, Tia Pariseau in the 50 breast, Haylee McQuay in the 100 butterfly, and Anna Boucher in the 50 freestyle.

Frazier, Pariseau, McQuay and Boucher teamed to win the 200-medley relay to open the meet.

Western Connecticut finally cracked the Owls event win streak when Sarah Basile won the 100 freestyle in 1:03.67.

With a comfortable lead, Westfield swam a number of swimmers in exhibition races and Alexa Collins and Annalise Alfieri picked up wins in the 100 back an 50 fly.

Westfield State improves to 5-3 in dual meets this season. The Owls posted their 29th season with a dual meet record of .500 or better in the last 30 years. The Owls honored their four seniors before the meet: Jenny Keane, Haylee McQuay and Alana Sullivan.

The meet had been rescheduled from Saturday as the winter storm prevented Western Connecticut from traveling.

The Colonials fall to 2-7. Both teams will be in action next Saturday at the Little East Conference Championship meet at UMass-Dartmouth.

Owls' swim team named Scholar All-America

July 23, 2016

WESTFIELD – Westfield State University's women's swimming and diving team has been recognized as a Scholar All-America Team by the College Swimming & Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA).

The Owls posted a collective 3.38 grade point average for the spring 2016 semester, while turning in a 5-3 dual-meet record in the pool. Westfield State had a .500 or better overall record for the 23rd consecutive season under longtime head coach Dave Laing.

To be selected as a CSCAA Scholar All-America Team, programs must have achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or higher over the Spring semester.

The College Swimming & Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) designated 658 men's and women's swimming and diving teams, representing 388 colleges and universities as Scholar All-America teams. The recognition comes as a result of each team's classroom performance in the past semester. It is only the second time in the program's 30+ year history of the program that more than 600 teams.

MASCAC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL LEADERS: A total of 853 student-athletes have been honored by the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference with selection to the league's Spring 20 16 All-Academic Team that was released earlier today by Commissioner Angela Baumann.

Student-athletes that compete in championship varsity sports offered by each of the MASCAC institutions during the course of the spring 2015 athletic season and have achieved a 3.20 cumulative or semester-based grade point average during the semester are eligible for selection to the Spring All-Academic Team. The sports recognized are baseball women's lacrosse, softball and men's and women's outdoor track and field. The team also includes student-athletes that competed in winter sports during the spring semester.

Westfield State University closed out the spring semester with the most student-athletes on the 2016 MASCAC Spring All-Academic Team with 263 total while Bridgewater State University and Fitchburg State University are next with 127, Worcester State University landed 105 and Salem State University rounded out the group with 75 student-athletes on the team.

"The increase in numbers on the MASCAC Spring All-Academic Team continues to show the strength of academics among the MASCAC student-athletes," Commissioner Baumann said. "Our student-athletes continue to thrive in the classroom while being successful in the field of play and around the community which is a true testament to the MASCAC and Division III philosophy."

The Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference, the nation's oldest Division III men's and women's playing conference, has a rich and storied tradition of competitive success while celebrating excellence in the classroom. MASCAC member schools include Bridgewater State University, Fitchburg State University, Framingham State University, MCLA, Massachusetts Maritime Academy, Salem State University, Westfield State University and Worcester State University. Two other institutions, the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth and Plymouth State University, are affiliate members of the conference in the sports of football and men's ice hockey, while Western Connecticut State University joined the conference as an affiliate member in football beginning in 2014.

WOMEN'S SOCCER TO HOLD CLINIC: Westfield State University women's soccer and head coach Todd Ditmar will host a soccer ID clinic on Sunday, August 14, 2016 from 11:00 AM to 5:30 PM. The clinic is open to 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 high school graduation class members.

This clinic is designed for elite players interested in competing at the college level. The sessions are designed to valuate individual skill, moment, and knowledge of the game while educating players on small and large soccer concepts. Goal Keepers will receive goalkeeper specific training.

There is a fee of $60 per player for participation in the I.D. Clinic. For full details and registration please view the attached Soccer ID Clinic Flyer and Registration Form.

WSU zaps Lasers

Westfield News Dec. 4, 2015

NEWTON, Mass. (12/3/15) – The Lasell women's basketball team fell short to the visiting Owls of Westfield State University 90-81 in non-conference action Thursday evening in the Athletic Center. With the setback the Lasers shift to 3-4 overall while the Owls even out at 3-3.

Despite the deficit, senior guard Katie Stopera (Hollis, N.H.) poured in a game-high 30 points and was just short of a double-double with eight rebounds. Freshman Brianna Hoffman (Mildford, N.H.) turned her first double-double as a Laser with 11 points and 12 rebounds, while senior guard Deanna Barrett (Berlin, Conn.) went 6-for-17 from the floor with 14 points.

For the Owls, freshman guard Lucy Barrett (Williamstown, Mass.) went 7-for-13 from the floor to go along with 50% shooting from downtown to score 21 points overall. Senior center Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) dominated her second double-double of the season 18 baskets and a game-best 13 caroms.

The Owls led from start to finish, rattling off an early 9-0 run to contribute to 44.0% shooting in the first quarter. With 4:06 left to go in half one, Westfield took its largest lead of 23 points after junior guard Krisy Segarra (Holyoke, Mass.) sunk 1-of-2 shots from the charity stripe. The Lasers would not go quietly, as they adjusted to Westfield's fast speed of play – a team that averages 85 points per game – and strung together eight unanswered points to pull within seven (55-48) with 3:17 left to go in the third. Lasell kept the ante up in the fourth quarter as it matched Westfield's 28 points that would go unjustified as the Owls came out with an eventual 90-81 victory.

The Lasers held a 38.5% to 36.8% margin in shots from the floor, while the Owls scored 33 points from behind the arc compared to the Lasers' 21. Westfield state scored a whopping 37 points off Lasell's turnovers, while both teams deadlocked in second chance points (15) and points in the paint (30).

Both teams return to non-league action on Saturday, December 3 at 1:00. The Lasers will hit the road for the first time since November 18 when they face Fitchburg State, while the Owls travel to familiar GNAC foe Rivier University. – Story courtesy of Lasell sports info

Forbasaw Nkamebo scored 18 points and grabbed 13 rebounds in the Owls win over Lasell.

12/7/15

WESTFIELD – The Westfield State University women's basketball team set a program record for points scored in a single game, and field goals attempted (105) defeating Rivier University, 113-71, in a non-conference game at the Woodward Center Saturday afternoon.

After Rivier jumped out to a 10-point lead at the end of the first quarter, Westfield outscored the Raiders by 52 points in the final three quarters to run away with the win.

Westfield State nailed four three-pointers in the second quarter and junior guards Jill Valley (Orange, Mass.) and Alyssa Darling (Palmer, Mass.) consistently challenged the defense off the dribble as the Owls took a four-point lead into the break. Valley and Darling scored 10 points each in the first half.

In the third quarter, Westfield wore down Rivier with its full-court pressure, outscoring the Raiders 39-10 to build a big lead. The 39 third-quarter points were a school record for points in a quarter, while the 63 second-half points also broke the program record set earlier this season when the two teams met for the first time. Westfield State defeated Rivier, 100-74, in the Fairfield Inn Tournament on November 15.

Fourteen different players made at least one field goal for Westfield, while crisp ball-movement and drive-and-kick action led to 25 assists on 44 made field goals. The Owls forced 36 turnovers, many which led to easy transition scoring opportunities.

Valley tallied 24 points, 8 rebounds, 4 steals, and 3 assists to lead the Owls, while Darling utilized a strong pull-up jumper to add 16 points.

Freshmen Ece Eldek (12 points) and Allison Hester (11 points) also reached double figures for Westfield, while sophomore center Rebecca Sapouckey (Chicopee, Mass.) had a strong game off the bench with eight points and five rebounds.

Rivier junior guard Caitlyn Perry led all scorers with 25 points, while Kaylee Kacavas chipped in eight points and seven assists. Junior forward Savanna Butterfield scored all 10 of her points in the first half.

With 5:09 left in the game, Westfield State freshman Lucy Barrett (Williamstown, Mass.) caught a lead pass on a fast break from junior Jill Valley and laid it in one motion, netting the Owls 107th point of the afternoon and setting a new program record for points scored in a single game. The previous record was 106 points scored against Rhode Island College in the 1975-76 season.

With the win, Westfield State improves to 4-3, while Rivier drops to 4-4. The Owls return to the hardwood on Tuesday, December 8 when they visit Eastern Connectcut State at 8 p.m. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

Tournament Preview

Westfield State hosts the second annual women's basketball holiday tournament, welcoming the University of St. Joseph (Conn.), Wellesley College, and Colby-Sawyer College (N.H.).

In the tournament opener, Westfield hosts the University of St. Joseph. The Owls enter the game with a 5-4 overall record. Westfield ranks among the top scoring teams in the nation, and led the nation in steals and turnover ratio entering the holiday break. Westfield is led by junior guard Jill Valley who is scoring 15.0 ppg, and senior center Forbasaw Nkambo, who adds 13.7 points and 8.4 rebounds per game. Westfield defeated St. Joe's by a 71-50 count last season. The Blue Jays have struggled to an 0-8 mark on the season. They feature three players who score in double figures in sophomore guard Rajeen Mayo (12.9), sophomore forward Kayla Guest (11.4) and junior guard Carlee Putnam (10.4).

In the other first round game Colby-Sawyer faces Wellesley. Colby-Sawyer has posted a 5-3 record this season. Junior guard Jessica Shenkel leads the Chargers with 12.3 points per game, while six-foot junior center Lexi Iannone scores 9.6 ppg. Wellesley has posted a 2-6 record to date. "The Blue" have been led by senior forward Chelsi Scott's 13.5 points per game, and get scoring support from junior forward Ailis Hanley, who adds 8.5 points per contest.

The two winners will square off in Sunday's Championship game at 3:00 p.m. The other two teams will meet in the consolation final on Sunday at 1:00 p.m.

Happy Holidays for Owls

1/4/2016 Westfield News

WESTFIELD – The Westfield State women's basketball team used an 18-0 run midway through the second quarter to pull free from Wellesley College, defeating the Blue, 80-61, in the Westfield State University Holiday Tournament Championship Sunday afternoon at the Woodward Center.

Westfield defeated the University of Saint Joseph (Conn.), 119-69, in its opening round matchup, while Wellesley advanced to the championship with a 50-48 overtime win over Colby-Sawyer.

Trailing by four early in the second quarter, the Owls forced nine Wellesley turnovers in the final eight minutes of the first half, fueling easy transition points. Westfield led by as many as 16 points late in the second quarter before Wellesley senior captain Chelsi Scott (Portland, Mich.) scored six points in the final 22 seconds of the half to cut the lead to 10, 45-35, at the break.

Scott dominated on the interior for the Blue, finishing with a game-high 28 points and 19 rebounds. The 5-foot-11 center used her speed to outrun the Owls pressure in transition along with nine offensive rebounds to fuel her scoring. She also registered five blocks and three steals.

Westfield senior center Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) earned tournament MVP honors, tallying 14 points and 11 rebounds in 18 minutes of action. Nkamebo controlled the offensive glass, racking up most of her points on second-chance opportunities. She also spearheaded the Owls 1-2-2 full-court, racking up three blocks, two steals, and multiple deflections at the point of attack.

The Owls forced 32 turnovers, leading to 32 points. Westfield shot just 23 percent in the second half, but managed to rebound 44 percent of its missed shots leading to 24 second-chance points. Westfield attempted 20 more shots than Wellesley on the afternoon.

After the big Owls run in the second quarter, Wellesley battled back, cutting the lead to single digits on multiple occasions, but the Blue could not get over the hump. Scott cut the Blue deficit to five on a layup with 5:44 remaining in the game, but Nkamebo responded with a put-back layup and then junior guard Jill Valley (Orange, Mass.) canned an off-the-bounce three to push the Owls' lead back to ten.

Valley finished with a team-high 17 points and 4 steals, while junior point guard Alyssa Darling (Palmer, Mass.) chipped in 13 points and 3 assists.

Ailis Hanley (Cranston, R.I.) recorded a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds for Wellesley, while sophomore point guard Kayla Jang (South Pasadena, Calif.) dished out 7 assists.

Westfield improves to 7-4 with the win, while Wellesley drops to 3-7. The Owls will open up MASCAC play on Wednesday, January 6 at Fitchburg State at 5:30 p.m.

Westfield State blazes past MCLA

Westfield News Jan 11, 2016

WESTFIELD – Jill Valley (Mahar/Orange, Mass.) scored 18 points and Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst/Amherst, Mass.) added 17 points and 10 rebounds as Westfield State blazed it way past Mass College of Liberal Arts, 90-69 in a MASCAC women's basketball game at the Woodward Center on Saturday afternoon.

Westfield State improves to 9-4 and 2-0 in the league, while MCLA is now 8-5 and 0-2 in the MASCAC.

After a tight first quarter, Westfield pulled away with a 25-13 score in the second quarter to lead 51-35 at the half.

Leading 31-28 after MCLA's Kayla Hotaling (Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk/Ravena, N.Y.) scored with 7:59 left in the second quarter, Westfield sparked a 19-4 run over the next five and a half minutes to seize control of the game. The Owls forced four turnovers in the critical stretch, and capped the run with a steal and layup from Lucy Barrett (Mt. Greylock/Williamstown, Mass.) that gave Westfield a 50-32 lead with 2:22 left in the quarter.

Westfield maintained a comfortable lead throughout the second half, never leading by less than 14 points.

The Owls forced 39 Trailblazer turnovers, made 24 steals and grabbed 27 offensive rebounds.

Valley shot 6-11 from the floor and made 3-5 three point attempts. Nkamebo shot 8-11 from the floor.

Alyssa Darling (Palmer/Palmer, Mass.) and Kirsy Segarra (Holyoke/Holyoke, Mass.) each added 10 points for the Owls. Freshman Kierra McCarthy (Ludlow/Ludlow, Mass.) scored nine points and grabbed seven boards for Westfield, and freshman Lauren Carnevale (Pittsfield/Pittsfield, Mass.) had a defensive impact with five steals and a blocked shot.

The Trailblazers got a game-high 19 points from Hotaling, who had a solid all-around game with eight rebounds and four assists. Ashley Clawson (Tolland/Tolland, Conn.) netted 15.

Westfield State will be back in action on Wednesday night with a key early-season matchup at Framingham State, while MCLA will host Salem State in another MASCAC game on Wednesday. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

Nkamebo Scores 1,000th point in win

FRAMINGHAM – Westfield State senior center Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst/Amherst, Mass.) scored 18 points, becoming the 14th 1,000-point scorer in Owls women's basketball history as Westfield posted an 86-77 win over Framingham State in a key early-season MASCAC conference game Wednesday night at Framingham.

Westfield improves to 10-4 overall and 3-0 in the MASCAC. The Rams drop to 9-5, 2-1 in the MASCAC.

Nkamebo's 18 points give her 1,009 in her career, moving her into 13th on the Owls all-time scoring list. Nkamebo passed former teammate Gabby Felix '15, who finished her career with an even 1,000 points. In an interesting twist, it was Felix's knee injury three years ago that lead to expanded playing time for Nkamebo. She is also shooting up the school's all-time rebounding chart – with 12 more rebounds tonight to give her 783 in her career, just two shy of third on the all-time list.

Junior guard Kirsy Segarra (Holyoke/Holyoke, Mass.) added 18 points and classmate Jill Valley (Mahar/Orange, Mass.) threw in 17 more for the Owls.

Westfield came out of the blocks fast with an early 13-2 lead in the first quarter, and lead by as many as 28 points in the first half. Westfield led 54-37 at halftime.

Raegin Mulherin led Framingham with 28 points. Alicia Rackliffe added 10 points and 14 rebounds for the Rams.

Westfield will be back in action on Sunday night at Eastern Connecticut game for a 6 p.m. tip off. That game was originally scheduled to be played in the first semester but due to complications was rescheduled for Sunday's matchup.

Segarra, Owls shoot down Falcons

WESTFIELD – Westfield State junior guard Kirsy Segarra (Holyoke, Mass.) scored a game-high 24 points, including 21 points in the first half, leading the Owls to a 102-60 victory over Fitchburg State Saturday afternoon at the Woodward Center.

Segarra nailed her first three three-pointers of the game, shooting over the top of the Falcons 2-3 zone, and swiped five steals in the first half as Westfield State opened up a 29-point halftime lead. The Owls forced 27 Falcons turnovers in the first half, leading to 29 points.

Westfield led from start to finish, improving to 13-6, 6-1 in the MASCAC. Fitchburg State drops to 0-19 on the season, 0-7 in league play.

Jill Valley (Orange, Mass.), the second-leading scorer in the MASCAC, finished with 21 points, 6 steals, and 3 rebounds, while freshman guard Lucy Barrett (Williamstown, Mass.) chipped in 13 points and 7 rebounds.

Twelve different players scored for the Owls, who assisted on 23 of their 37 made field goals. Freshman guard Caitlin MacGregor (Hampden, Mass.), an All-MASCAC soccer player, registered two rebounds, two assists, and a steal in her first action since joining the team this week.

Westfield State, which leads the nation in offensive rebounding, corralled more than 52 percent of their own missed shots (28 offensive rebounds), leading to 24 second-chance points.

Fitchburg State was also strong on the offensive glass, pulling down 21 offensive rebounds for 18 second-chance points. Both Michaela McTomney (14 points, 11 rebounds) and Erika Schneider (11 points, 10 rebounds) registered double-doubles for the Falcons.

Junior guard Shabelli Villa (Lawrence, Mass.) led Fitchburg with 18 points, drilling 4-of-9 three-point attempts. Freshman guard Hannah Keohan (Rockland, Mass.) and McTomney led the Falcons with four assists each, while Keohan also added 8 points and 7 rebounds.

The Owls registered 32 steals on the game and forced 45 Falcon turnovers. Twelve different players recorded at least one steal for Westfield. Owls freshman guard Allison Hester (Suttton, Mass.) led all players with 6 assists, in addition to grabbing 7 rebounds.

Westfield State hosts Williams College on Monday, February 1 at 7 p.m. in their last nonconference game of the season. Fitchburg looks to break through into the winner's circle against Pine Manor on February 3 at 7 p.m.

WSU claims share of MASCAC title

BRIDGEWATER – Junior guard Jill Valley (Orange, Mass.) scored a game-high 21 points and senior center Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) posted a double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds to lead the visiting Westfield State University women's basketball team to a 70-60 Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) win over Bridgewater State University on Wednesday evening at the Tinsley Center.

The Owls improve to 17-7 on the season and 10-1 in the MASCAC as they clinched at least a share of the conference regular season title. The host Bears fall to 11-12 overall and 8-3 in the MASCAC standings.

The Bears held a slight 35-33 advantage after two quarters of play. The first half featured six ties and seven lead changes as the score was close throughout with neither team leading by more than six points.

Nkamebo led all players with 11 points over the first 20 minutes, while Valley added nine for the Owls. Lindland paced the Bears with nine points in the first half while DaSilva scored eight and Conceicao and DeSantis tallied seven apiece.

Bridgewater shot 44% (14-32) from the floor over the opening two periods but connected on just 3 of 13 (23%) three-point field goals. Westfield converted 33% of its field goal attempts including 4-for-12 (33%) from behind the arc.

A 12-3 run to open the second half gave the visitors a 45-38 lead. The Bears answered with a 7-0 run, highlighted by six points from Lindland, to knot the score at 45-45. Westfield would ultimately carry a 50-47 lead into the fourth quarter.

A three-pointer by Valley to open the final period followed by a Rebecca Sapouckey (Chicopee, Mass.) jumper extended the Owls' advantage to 55-47. Three-pointers by Conceicao and DeSantis sandwiched around a Valley trifecta pulled the Bears to within five, 58-53, with 6:35 left to play.

Turnovers and poor rebounding, however, would plague the Bears over the next five minutes as they committed seven miscues and gave up five offensive boards during that stretch. A pair of layups by Nkamebo and one by Valley increased the Westfield lead to 64-55 with under two minutes remaining. The Owls would go 6-for-10 from the free throw line in the final 51 seconds to close out the 70-60 win.

Westfield shot just 33% (24-72) for the game but finished with 49 rebounds including 21 off the offensive glass. The Owls held a 26-13 advantage in points off turnovers as well as a decided 20-5 edge in second chance points. The Westfield bench also outscored the BSU reserves by a 19-2 margin. Kirsy Segarra (Holyoke, Mass.), Ece Eldek (Istanbul, Turkey), Rebecca Sapouckey (Chicopee, Mass.) each contributed five points for the Owls second unit.

The Bears went 10-for-14 (71%) from the floor in the first quarter, but made just 14 of 58 (24%) field goal attempts over the last three. Bridgewater also turned the ball over 23 times.

Valley finished with 21 points, her sixth consecutive game scoring 21 or more points.

Susan Bell made just her second start of the season for Westfield, but capitalized on the opportunity, scoring nine points on 3-4 shooting from behind the arc.

Nkamebo's 12 rebounds give her 866 for her career. She is three rebounds shy from matching Ellen (Carey) Leahy '92 for the top spot on the Owls all-time list.

With the win, Westfield clinches at least a share of the MASCAC regular-season crown for the third straight year and the fifth time since 2008. The Owls can win the title outright with a win Saturday when the Owls travel to play Worcester State in the final regular-season game of the season. Note that the game will be played at Worcester Polytechnic Institute as Worcester State's facility is under construction.

Junior forward Jennie Lindland (Edgartown, Mass.) paced Bridgewater State with 16 points on 7 of 8 shooting to go along with four rebounds and three steals, while senior guard Vanesa Conceicao (New Bedford, Mass.) notched 15 points, three boards and four assists. Conceicao was honored before the game as the Bears held Senior Night festivities.

BSU junior guard Stephanie DeSantis (Walpole, Mass.) added ten points, six rebounds and a game-high six assists, and freshman guard Sara DaSilva (Chelmsford, Mass.) chipped in with ten points, six boards and three steals. – Courtesy of Westfield State University Sports

Owls clinch MASCAC title

WORCESTER – Senior center Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst/Amherst, Mass) scored 19 points and grabbed 12 rebounds to lead Westfield State to a 75-67 win over Worcester State in a MASCAC women's basketball game at the Harrington Auditorium at Worcester Polytechnic Institute on Saturday afternoon.

Westfield (18-7, 11-1 MASCAC) clinches its second straight outright Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference Title. The Owls shared the regular season crown in 2014.

Nkambeo broke the Owls career record for rebounds with a defensive rebound late in the first quarter to give her 870 in her career, one more than Ellen (Carey) Leahy '92. Nkamebo has 878 career rebounds after today's game.

"Forbes is so strong and so athletic," said Owls head coach Andrea Bertini. "She has bought into the way we play – as a senior and a two and a half year starter – and you're seeing her offensive rebounding numbers have gone through the roof. It's been awesome to watch and I'm so happy that she has had the senior year she has had."

Westfield trailed 23-13 after the first quarter. The Lancers jumped out to a 9-2 start to the period after they honored senior guard Natasha Gonzalez prior to the game, then closed the period with a 10-run after Westfield had tied the game at 13-13. Worcester connected on 60 percent of its shots (9-15) from the floor, while Westfield committed seven turnovers in the opening 10 minutes. Westfield also shot just 2-8 from the foul line in the period.

Westfield trailed 41-34 at the half. The Lancers shot a blistering 63 percent (17-27) from the floor in the half.

"It was a tough first half," said Bertini. "We were a little slow out of the gates and gave way too many layups and gave them all the momentum. I think Worcester is a good team with good young players, I think this is a good game for us going into the tournament – it was a close game and we had to execute, and come from behind and show some mental toughness."

Westfield held Worcester to just two points over the first five minutes of the second half. The Owls opened the period with a 15-2 run, getting the press going and finally getting over the top on back-to-back threes from Jill Valley (Mahar/Orange, Mass.) and Susan Bell (Northampton/Northampton, Mass.) wrapped around a steal on the press gave Westfield a 49-43 lead with 3:01 left 3rd quarter.

Worcester took a 65-63 lead on a Katelyn Berkel (St bernards/Waterford, Conn.) layup with 5:28 to play.

Berkel missed a potential go ahead layup a few series later, and the Owls' Valley drove the ball and scored and coverted the plus-one free throw to give Westfield a 71-67 lead with 2:14 left.

Rebecca Sapouckey (Granby HS/Chicopee, Mass.) followed up an Owls' miss for a 73-67 lead with 1:21 to play and Westfield held on for the win.

Valley added 17 points for Westfield as the only other Owl in double figure scoring. Kirsy Segarra (Holyoke/Holyoke, Mass.) added eight points and Allison Hester (Sutton/Sutton, Mass.) seven.

Worcester (7-18, 4-8 MASCAC) was led by 19 points and nine rebounds from Herring and 14 points from Berkel.

Westfield has won or shared the MASCAC regular-season crown in five of the last eight seasons, all under head coach Andrea Bertini '96. The Owls have nine titles in the 40-year history of MASCAC women's basketball, all of which have come in the past 26 seasons.

Westfield is 23-1 in the last two seasons in conference play.

Westfield will be the number one seed in the upcoming MASCAC tournament. The Owls will host a semifinal game on Thursday, February 25 at 7:00 p.m. If the Owls win their semifinal matchup, the MASCAC Championship game will be played at Westfield State's Woodward Center on Saturday at 1:00 p.m.

"It's nice to have a home game," said Bertini. "But whoever we play – they have seen us play twice and know what we do. We're not going to change anything, and we've got to do our stuff well. We have to play hard and play together."

"If you told me told at the beginning of the year that Alyssa Darling only played 12 games and missed the majority of the league schedule and we were without arguably the best point guard in the league who had a ton of game experience as a 2-year starter, I'd never imagine we'd be at this point," said Bertini. "And that's a credit to our players. There aren't many teams you can take that good of a player out of the lineup and still have success," said Bertini.

"I give credit to my players who have stepped up, we've started 12 different lineups this year, Bertini added. "Susie (Bell) hit a monster three today, she hit monster three's against Bridgewater last week, and that's what we need, to keep playing well if we're going to win the league tournament."

The Owls have averaged 90.4 points per game this season, which has the team ranked third in the nation in NCAA Division III (among 435 schools). The Owls are on a pace to shatter their school record for points per game, which was set by the 1977-78 team with a 75.3 ppg pace. Westfield has scored 100 or more points eight times in their 24 games this season.

"I'm never going back to that slow-down crawl pace on offense," said Bertini. "Unless maybe we get a 6-4 center," she added with a smile. "We have athletic kids. We have some depth, our big kids are athletic, our guards are quick, and you play to your strengths and I think this is the best style for us and our players."

"The players are happy about it . they are happy more kids play, no time to hang your head if you miss a shot, you're running up and down and even though they are in and out of the lineup they feel like they play the whole game."

Westfield leads the nation in four statistical categories: offensive rebounds per game (23.0), steals per game (20.8), turnovers margin (13.83 per game), and turnovers forced per game (34.13).

WELCOME FROM MASCAC COMMISSIONER ANGELA BAUMANN

On behalf of the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) and our eight member institutions, I would like to personally welcome you to the 2016 MASCAC Women's Basketball Championship.

The top six teams will compete in a single-elimination tournament to determine the MASCAC Tournament Champion, who will then receive the conference's automatic bid into the upcoming NCAA Division III Championship.

The MASCAC has a rich history of producing outstanding student-athletes. This year's championship will once again showcase some of our top women's basketball performers, so let's join together and cheer on the student-athletes as they compete in this year's MASCAC Women's Basketball Championship!

Thank you for your continued support of the MASCAC!

Angela Baumann

2016 MASCAC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS PREVIEW

The Westfield State Owls women's basketball team has earned the top seed in next week's Massachusetts State Collegiate Athleti Conference Tournament that begins on Tuesday, February 23 with the quarterfinal round.

Beginning on Tuesday, third-seeded Bridgewater State entertains sixth-seeded Worcester state at 5:30 pm while fourth-seeded MCLA will host Salem State at 6 pm. Second-seeded Framingham State will host the winner of Bridgewater State/Worcester State on Thursday, February 25 at 6 pm in the first semifinal then Westfield State will face off with the winner of MCLA/Salem State at 7 pm.

The winner of the two semifinal contests on Thursday will meet on Saturday, February 27 at the highest remaining seed to determine the MASCAC Women's Basketball Tournament Champion.

Earning the top seed and a first round bye, the Owls finished the MASCAC regular season with an 11-1 record. The duo of Jill Valley and Forbasaw Nkamebo led the way for Westfield State averaging 17.6 and 14.8 points, respectively. Valley closed out the regular season first in the conference in total points (439), steals (85), three point percentage (42.9 percent) and free throw percentage (84 percent).

Getting the other first round bye was Framingham State with a 10-2 MASCAC record. Alycia Rackliffe led the conference in total rebounds (261), rebounds per game (10.9) and blocks (85) while also tallying 12.4 points per game. Raegan Mulherin led the league in points per game (18.1) and was second in total points (435) at the end of the regular season.

Bridgewater State in the third spot closed out the regular season with a 9-3 record in conference play. The duo of Chanelle Melton and Jennie Lindland led the Bears in points per game with 12.8 and 12.55 and rebounds with 5.6 and 5.9, respectively.

MCLA finds themselves with the fourth-seed after winning four games during the MASCAC season. Kayla Hotaling led the Trailblazers with 11.9 points per game while also having the second most rebounds per game in the league with 9.8 and total rebounds with 245.

Rounding the tournament field are Salem State and Worcester State with the fifth and sixth seed, respectively. Both teams acquired four wins during conference play. Kaitlyn Bryan closed out the regular season for the Vikings with the fourth most point per game in the conference (14.4), total points (360) and free throw percentage (73.7 percent). For the Lancers, Britt Herring had a strong freshman campaign, averaging 13 points per game and 8.8 rebounds which are the fifth most in the league while also averaging the third best field goal percentage at 53.7 percent.

During the 2015 MASCAC Tournament, Bridgewater State captured their fifth straight title with a 60-57 victory over top-seeded Westfield State and a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

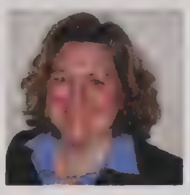
WELCOME FROM MASCAC COMMISSIONER ANGELA BAUMANN

On behalf of the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference (MASCAC) and our eight member institutions, I would like to personally welcome you to the 2016 MASCAC Women's Basketball Championship.



The top six teams will compete in a single-elimination tournament to determine the MASCAC Tournament Champion, who will then receive the conference's automatic bid into the upcoming NCAA Division III Championship.

The MASCAC has a rich history of producing outstanding student-athletes. This year's championship will once again showcase some of our top women's basketball performers, so let's join together and cheer on the student-athletes as they compete in this year's MASCAC Women's Basketball Championship!

Thank you for your continued support of the MASCAC!

Angela Baumann

2016 MASCAC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS PREVIEW

The Westfield State Owls women's basketball team has earned the top seed in next week's Massachusetts State Collegiate Athleti Conference Tournament that begins on Tuesday, February 23 with the quarterfinal round.

Beginning on Tuesday, third-seeded Bridgewater State entertains sixth-seeded Worcester state at 5:30 pm while fourth-seeded MCLA will host Salem State at 6 pm. Second-seeded Framingham State will host the winner of Bridgewater State/Worcester State on Thursday, February 25 at 6 pm in the first semifinal then Westfield State will face off with the winner of MCLA/Salem State at 7 pm.

The winner of the two semifinal contests on Thursday will meet on Saturday, February 27 at the highest remaining seed to determine the MASCAC Women's Basketball Tournament Champion.

Earning the top seed and a first round bye, the Owls finished the MASCAC regular season with an 11-1 record. The duo of Jill Valley and Forbasaw Nkamebo led the way for Westfield State averaging 17.6 and 14.8 points, respectively. Valley closed out the regular season first in the conference in total points (439), steals (85), three point percentage (42.9 percent) and free throw percentage (84 percent).

Getting the other first round bye was Framingham State with a 10-2 MASCAC record. Alycia Rackliffe led the conference in total rebounds (261), rebounds per game (10.9) and blocks (85) while also tallying 12.4 points per game. Raegan Mulherin led the league in points per game (18.1) and was second in total points (435) at the end of the regular season.

Bridgewater State in the third spot closed out the regular season with a 9-3 record in conference play. The duo of Chanelle Melton and Jennie Lindland led the Bears in points per game with 12.8 and 12.55 and rebounds with 5.6 and 5.9, respectively.

MCLA finds themselves with the fourth-seed after winning four games during the MASCAC season. Kayla Hotaling led the Trailblazers with 11.9 points per game while also having the second most rebounds per game in the league with 9.8 and total rebounds with 245.

Rounding the tournament field are Salem State and Worcester State with the fifth and sixth seed, respectively. Both teams acquired four wins during conference play. Kaitlyn Bryan closed out the regular season for the Vikings with the fourth most point per game in the conference (14.4), total points (360) and free throw percentage (73.7 percent). For the Lancers, Britt Herring had a strong freshman campaign, averaging 13 points per game and 8.8 rebounds which are the fifth most in the league while also averaging the third best field goal percentage at 53.7 percent.

During the 2015 MASCAC Tournament, Bridgewater State captured their fifth straight title with a 60-57 victory over top-seeded Westfield State and a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

Westfield State wins MASCAC championship, earns NCAA berth

WESTFIELD – After winning the regular season league title last year but losing in the MASCAC championship, Westfield State senior Forbasaw Nkamebo (Amherst, Mass.) was determined not to let her senior season end the same way.

Nkamebo scored a team-high 19 points and pulled down 9 rebounds, earning MVP honors and leading the top-seeded Owls to a 92-86 victory over No. 2 Framingham State in the MASCAC championship Saturday afternoon at the Woodward Center.

"We knew it wasn't going to be easy," Nkamebo said. "I really wanted to leave with a bang and win it with my team and this was the last time I could. We were so close last year and I just remembered that feeling and didn't want to lose again."

Last year, the Owls finished undefeated in conference play before falling to Bridgewater State in the league championship.

With the win, Westfield improves to 20-7 and earns an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament. The Owls won the MASCAC postseason title for just the third time in program history, and will make their second NCAA Tournament appearance.

MASCAC Player of the Year Jill Valley (Orange, Mass.) added 18 points, 7 steals, and 5 assists. She made just 4-of-18 shots, but drilled two huge three-pointers in the fourth quarter to help Westfield put the game away.

Trailing 73-71 with 6:20 remaining, Valley nailed her first three-pointer of the game to retake the lead. After stealing the ball on the next Framingham possession, Valley then knocked down a hesitation, step-back three in transition to put the Owls ahead, 77-73.

2015-2016

"Honestly, I was super frustrated, but I kept looking at the score and we were ahead, so I couldn't hang my head. I just tried to brush it off and keep shooting. Forbes was holding it down for us," Valley said.

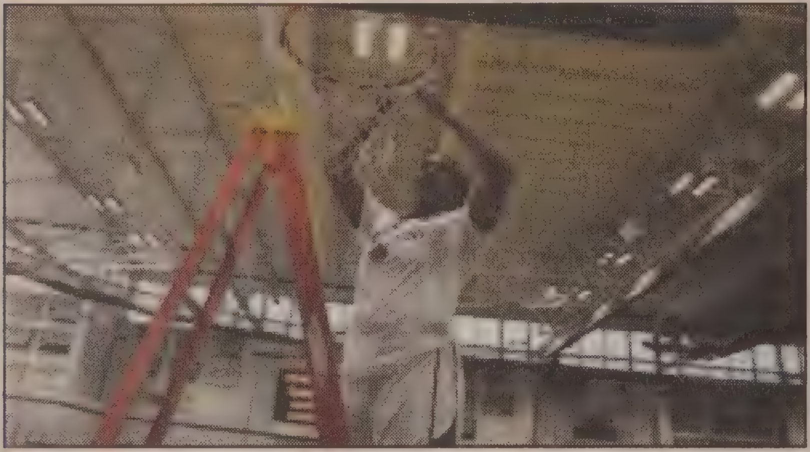
Following another Framingham State turnover, freshman guard Allison Hester (Sutton, Mass.) sunk the Owls third consecutive three-pointer, giving them an 80-73 lead they would not relinquish. She added another three a few plays later to push the lead to nine.

"Allison said to me after the game, 'of course I don't make a shot all year, but then I hit those two.' I told her that's all that matters, this is the only game that matters," Valley said.

Framingham State rallied down the stretch and had a chance to tie it, trailing 89-86 with 36 seconds left and possession of the ball, but the Rams missed two free throws and a jumper before Owls sophomore center Rebecca Sapouckey (Chicopee, Mass.) secured the rebound and Valley iced the game with two free throws.

"Honestly, I think I blacked out with like three minutes to go," Westfield State coach Andrea Bertini said. "It was a crazy game, they [Framingham State] are a really good team. How about Alli Hester hitting two three threes and Jill hitting that step back? We made some huge plays in the fourth quarter to win that game."

The game was a back-and-forth affair, with 10 ties and 13 lead changes. Westfield State forced 20 first-half turnovers, taking a 47-40 lead into half time.



The Owls pushed the lead up to ten, 59-49, midway through the third quarter, but Rams sophomore guard Raegan Mulherin (Baldwinville, Mass.) scored seven of the next nine points to cut the lead to two.

On the next play, however, Nkamebo pump-faked her defender, drew a foul and made the shot, completing a three-point play. She added another put back layup to push the lead back to five on the next possession.

Framingham State tied the game up at 64 on a layup late in the third, but Nkamebo added another bucket to give the Owls a 66-64 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

The Rams took their first lead of the second half with 9 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter on a pull up jumper from Mulherin in transition. Mulherin scored a career-high 32 points to lead the Rams. She also tallied 8 rebounds, 5 steals, and 4 assists.

Junior center Alycia Rackliffe (Feeding Hills, Mass.) also had a huge game for Framingham State, scoring 15 points and pulling down a program-record 26 rebounds. The 6-foot center also patrolled the paint defensively for the Rams, racking up six blocks.

Framingham State shot just 39 percent for the game, and committed 34 turnovers, but was able to stay in the game with timely three-point shooting (9-for-28) and 25 offensive rebounds.

Westfield State had 12 different players score, and its bench outscored Framingham's, 38-15. Freshman forward Kierra McCarthy (Ludlow, Mass.) also reached double figures for the Owls with 14 points on 6-of-7 shooting.

Westfield State will find out its first round NCAA opponent after selections and pairings are announced on Monday afternoon.

Framingham State finishes its season with a program-record 19 wins and 7 losses.

Moorhouse unmasked

EVAN MOORHOUSE
Westfield State University State goalie/catcher

WESTFIELD – Westfield native Evan Moorhouse has been doing double-duty for Westfield State University Owls this semester, living out a childhood dream by playing a season of college hockey while also beginning his fourth year as a catcher for the Owls' baseball team.

Moorhouse, a goaltender, essentially 'walked-on' to the Owls hockey team this season after not playing collegiate hockey for his first three years.

"Coach Miele spoke to me this fall about coming out for the team," said Moorhouse. "He asked when the last time I had played in goal was, and that he thought I had a good shot to make the team."

"At the end of the summer we had a goalie who was interested that didn't end up coming to school and freshman Jake Carter came in with an injury and we weren't sure how soon he would be available," said Bob Miele, the Owls seventh-year head coach.

"I had been aware Evan was on campus; knew he'd played in high school and junior hockey; knew his family from hockey circles around Westfield," said Miele.

"I grew up wanting to be a college hockey player," said Moorhouse. "My father has been the radio play-by-play announcer for the UMass Hockey team for a number of years, so I had always been around that program, gone to their camps with coaches Toot Cahoon and Mark Dennehy. They let me be around the team a lot. Watching what they and the players did revolutionized the way I attack college athletics now, right down to the way I stretch."

"I'd get to the rink at the same time as the players, go on some of the road trips, see how the players carried themselves and spoke to the people around them."

Moorhouse played high school hockey for three years at Springfield Cathedral, before the tornado that damaged the school. He transferred to Westfield High School for his senior year and played for the Springfield Pics in the Empire Junior Hockey league.

"I had been planning to go to STCC and continue playing junior hockey until I saw what opportunities there might be in collegiate hockey," said Moorhouse. [Ed. Note; Many hockey players play juniors until age 20 or 21 before entering college.]

"I was playing baseball for Westfield High School my senior year and (then) Westfield State (assistant) coach Mark Bonavita and head coach Ray Arra approached me about playing for Westfield State about halfway through my senior year. I was kind of blown away by that because I hadn't been expecting it."

"Baseball is important in the city of Westfield," said Moorhouse. "It's a big baseball town. The city is hosting the Babe Ruth World Series [in August] and my little brother will have a chance to play in it, my high school team won a Western Mass title and you will see hundreds of people at a high school game, right down to seeing the little league games packed."

"When I thought about it, I knew Jeremy Tanguay and Josh Blair who played for the Owls, and they had nothing but good things to say about the program. I knew I was going to have a chance to go to college right away and play, and the chance to go with the team on the trip to Cuba made the decision a no-brainer."

"There isn't a better town to play baseball in, and I was going to get to represent my hometown with "WESTFIELD" across the front of the jersey, it was just going to be a baseball uniform rather than a hockey sweater," said Moorhouse.

Moorhouse has been a solid contributor for the Owls for three seasons, the first for coach Arra and the last two current Owls head coach Nathan Bashaw. Moorhouse started 19 games behind the plate for Westfield State in 2015.

"He's always had the opportunity to get playing time," said Bashaw. "He really solidified he role last year and made huge strides defensively; throwing, blocking, receiving pitches. We hope he'll be a mainstay behind the plate for us again this year."

But Moorhouse has had to work doubly hard, playing hockey and still getting to baseball practices in the fall and spring.

"The players, coaches, and trainers and everyone have been great about helping me to get ready for both sports," said Moorhouse.

"I knew (Owls hockey senior captain) Dalton Jay pretty well going into the hockey season," said Moorhouse. "But the first day of practice I was still pretty nervous. I'm not sure I even sat down in the locker room because I wasn't sure where I should sit."

But on the ice, the hockey skills started coming back. "It took a few weeks," said Moorhouse. "I think over winter break I finally felt like I had my bearings back. As a goalie you want to have your hands out, and as a catcher you want to curl in and deaden the ball, and I knew I was doing it but it took a while to get used to. I had been coaching youth goalies and realized I needed to apply everything that I had been teaching them to do."

"He came in and treated hockey seriously," said Miele. "He prepares like he's going to play, and he competes in practice to help his teammates get better. It's impressive the way he approaches the game, and was excited about the opportunity no matter what his role."

Moorhouse spent a lot of time on the bench behind Jonathan LoParco, the Owls junior starter, who has won multiple league "goalie of the week" awards this season.

Finally the opportunity to get into a collegiate game came on January 14 with the Owls in a big deficit against Fitchburg State.

"Bob asked me if I wanted to go in," said Moorhouse. "I think I was nervous for the three seconds it took to get into net, but when I got there I felt like I was prepared because it was what I always wanted to do since childhood. I tried to have fun with it, my dad was in the stands taking pictures and videos, and it was a big moment for my family for me to finally be in a collegiate game with "MOORHOUSE" on the back of the sweater."

"The first shot came on a 2-1 breakaway, but I survived it. " Moorhouse only played for about five minutes but stopped both shots on goal that he faced. "I didn't waste a second of it," he said. "Those five minutes will stick in my memory and were pretty special."

As the Owls' hockey season wound towards the league playoffs, baseball's spring training unfolded. Moorhouse hustled between the two.

"It's a little bit tough leaving hockey practice early or getting to baseball late, then get home and do homework after," said Moorhouse. "Goalie and catcher are both tough on the knees and there have been a few more ice baths this year. It's a little bit stressful but I have a great support network from the staff, trainers, and my friends and family, who make it easy for me to rely on them."

His coaches have been aware of Moorhouse's ability to juggle everything.

"He doesn't cut corners," said Miele. "If he tells you he'll be a half hour late, he gets there when he said he would and hustles to get ready."

"I'm jumping right in when I get to baseball practice," said Moorhouse. "I've been with coach Bashaw for three years so just by seeing where everyone's standing when I get there I know what drill is coming or what's going on."

"It's been fine for me – tough for him," said Bashaw. "He's a senior and a leader and he hasn't missed anything. We've let him cut back on his conditioning work because of hockey, but he's been getting swings and catching bullpens and hasn't cost us anything from the baseball side. I'm happy for him. I knew he'd played hockey and it has been great for him to get a chance to play two collegiate sports."

"I live with six of the guys on the baseball team and they've been excited for me. Every day they're giggling 'there goes the hockey player' when I pick up my hockey bag and head to practice, but they have been very supportive. I think they've been to every home game even though my chances of getting in are slim."

"It's been nothing short of spectacular," said Moorhouse of his hockey season. "It's been a dream come true to put on a college sweater, and I'm happy to have any impact I can to help the team win." – Courtesy of Westfield State University Sports

The Westfield State men's ice hockey season ended in heartbreak a week ago when Salem State captain Cam Moniz netted a game-winning goal in overtime as the Vikings snuck past the Owls in dramatic fashion 5-4 in the semifinal round of the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference playoffs at Rockett Arena.

Westfield State erased a four-goal deficit in that game only to come up short in OT. Salem State slipped four out of seven shots past Westfield State goalie Jonathan LoParco.

The Westfield State baseball team opens the 2016 season with a double header against Dickinson Colelge March 12 at Lake Myrtle Park Main Field in Auburndale. First pitch is at 9:15 a.m.

The Westfield State University baseball program hosted a free coaches clinic for youth and high school coaches last Saturday in the Woodward Center. The clinic was sponsored by Westfield Bank. Westfield State head coach Nathan Bashaw and his staff covered topics including practice planning, team offense and defense, as well as fundamentals and drill work. Current college players were on hand for demonstrations. (Photo submitted)

DiMatteo, Gegetskas power Westfield State

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. – Freshman pitcher John Gegetskas earned his first collegiate win and senior outfielder Danny DiMatteo homered and scored a pair of runs to help Westfield State to its first baseball victory of the season as the Owls earned a doubleheader split with Curry College on Sunday afternoon.

Westfield claimed the second game by a 3-1 score, while Curry took the first by a 7-6 final.

Gegetskas (1-0) spun 5.1 innings of 1-hit baseball, yielding a single unearned run while walking three and fanning seven.

DiMatteo factored in both of the Owls scoring innings singling and scoring a run in the first inning, and launching a mammoth solo home run to lead off the third inning that left the park to dead center field over the 24-foot high batter's eye wall.

Sophomore Tyler Tongue entered the game in relief in the sixth inning and tossed 1-2/3 scoreless frames with a pair of strikeouts to earn his first save of the season.

Former Westfield High School All-Stars' Colin Dunn and Nate Barnes joined DiMatteo as repeat hitters for the Owls. Curry starter Alex McLean (0-1) took the loss for the Colonels (2-1).

In the opener, the Owls jumped on top 2-0 in the bottom of the first inning on Barnes' two run single that plated Dan McCormack and Dunn.

Curry tied the game with two runs in the top of the third, but Westfield responded with an RBI double from DiMatteo in the bottom half that plated McCormack to take a 3-2 lead. The Colonels grabbed a 4-3 lead with a two run double from William De La Cruz in the top of the fourth inning.

The Owls used a 3-run fifth inning to get back on top 6-4, with the big blow an infield single from freshman designated hitter Aaron Clancy, which plated Dunn from third, with DiMatteo catching the defense napping by racing all the way home from second on the play.

Curry however posted the final rally of the day, striking for three unearned runs of Owls closer Pete Liimatainen (0-1) in the top of the seventh, aided by three Owls errors.

Colonels' starter Tom Fogarty (1-0) outlasted the Owls. Going six innings and allowing six runs (all earned) while striking out seven. Brandon Berkovitz worked a 1-2-3 seventh to earn the save.

McCormack and DiMatteo each rapped out a pair of hits for Westfield.

Westfield is back in action on Monday at 9 a.m. facing Wheaton (Mass.) College in Auburndale, Fla.

Bell, Crowley lead Westfield State

WESTFIELD NEWS
MARCH 16, 2016

AUBURNDALE, FLA. – Sophomore starting pitcher Ray Bell tossed five strong innings and freshman designated hitter Anthony Crowley launched his first collegiate home run as Westfield State defeated Suffolk University, 5-2 at Lake Myrtle Park on Tuesday.

Bell allowed just two hits through five shutout innings, walking two and striking out two.

Westfield scored twice in the fourth inning on a pair of RBI doubles by Tyler Beach and Dan McCormack.

The Owls tacked on three more in the fifth, two on Crowley's homer, a line shot to left field that rang off the scoreboard above the outfield fence. Christian Morales followed a few batters later with an RBI triple.

Westfield totaled 16 hits on the day, with Danny DiMatteo and Dan Whigham each recording three-hit games.

Suffolk starter Ryan Pordes (0-2) took the loss, yielding 14 hits and five runs over 4-2/3 innings.

Westfield State improved to 2-4 on the season with the win, while Suffolk falls to 5-2.

Westfield will have a "B" squad game tomorrow, with the full varsity nine returning to action Thursday to face Stockton (NJ) University in a 9:30 AM double-header at Lake Myrtle Park's field number five. – Courtesy of Westfield State University Sports

TCNJ Sweeps Twinbill From Owls

WESTFIELD NEWS 3/21/2016

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. -- The College of New Jersey swept a baseball doubleheader from Westfield State University by final scores of 4-0 and 6-2 on Friday afternoon at the Chain O'Lakes Park complex.

In game one, Lions starter Eric Teasdale blanked the Owls while scattering nine hits and striking out just one while walking none.

Westfield got a solid pitching performance from freshman John Gegetskas, who went the distance while allowing two earned runs, four hits and striking out three while walking two.

Westfield was hurt by four errors and several baserunning errors, with two runners thrown out while trying to advance by the Lions outfielders.

Danny DiMatteo, Nate Barnes and Kyle Murphy all had two hits for the Owls.

In game two, The College of New Jersey struck for two runs in the second on an RBI double by CJ Gearhart and a run-scoring base hit from Erik Rano.

Westfield cut the lead to 2-1 in the third when Colin Dunn plated Dan Whigham with a solid base hit through the left side.

TCNJ struck the decisive blow in the game when three-hole hitte Pat Roberts launched a 2-run home run to right field to boost the Lions lead to 4-1.

Westfield threatened in the fifth, loading the bases with one out. The Owls score one run on a DiMatteo ground out to second base, but that was the lone run Westfield could muster from the prime scoring opportunity.

TCNJ tacked on two more runs on a Garen Turner double in the top of the seventh. Lions starter Michael Fischer earned the win, allowing just three hits while walking four and fanning two. Justin Thomson took the loss for the Owls.

TCNJ improved to 9-1 with the pair of wins. The Lions have bashed their way through Florida, averaging better than 10 runs per game entering today's play and are a prime candidate to climb into the national rankings next week.

Westfield drops to 4-6 on the spring trip with the losses.

The Owls play their final game of the spring break tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. against Lesley (MA) College at the Chain O'Lakes Complex in Winter Haven, the former spring training home of the Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians.

Westfield rolls past Lesley, 18-0

3/21/2016

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. -- Westfield State made it's get-away day a joyus one, pounding Lesley (Mass.) University, 18-0 at the Chain O'Lakes Complex on Saturday morning.

Westfield improves to 5-6 with the win, while Lesley falls to 3-7.

After the Owls went down in order in the first inning, Westfield scored in each of the next four innings to salt the game away. The Owls scored three times in the third as Anthony Crowley, Nate Barnes and Aaron Clancy each recorded base hits to open the inning. Clancy' s base hit scored Crowley, Barnes scored on a wild pitch, and Clancy scored on Dan Whigham's sac fly.

Westfield added seven more runs in the fourth inning as the Owls batted around. Dan McCormack singled and scored to start the inning, and delivered a knockout blow with a 2-run double in his second trip to the plate.

Westfield senior second baseman Conor Sheridan finished 2-3 with five RBI, including a three-run triple in the bottom of the fifth inning. Crowley finished 3-4 with four runs scored and an RBI, and Whigham drove in three runs.

The Owls rattled four Lesley pitchers for as total of 14 hits on the day.

Westfield starting pitcher Nick Cunningham earnd his first win of the season, spinning five innings of 2-hit baseball, striking out two and walking none.

WESTFIELD NEWS MARCH 30, 2016

Barnes raps Owls past Beacons

BOSTON, Mass. -- Junior first baseman Nate Barnes (Westfield/Westfield, Mass.) fisted a two-run double down the left field line to put Westfield State over the top as the Owls rallied from a 6-3 deficit for a 7-6 win over UMass-Boston at Monan Park on Tuesday evening.

Westfield fell behind 3-0 before rallying for three runs in the top of the fifth to tie the game 3-3. Evan Moorhouse (Westfield/Westfield, Mass.) delivered an rbi single, and Dan McCormack (Shelton/Shelton, Conn.) followed a batter later with a two-run triple to tie the game.

The Beacons struck for one run in the fifth and two in the sixth to build the lead up to 6-3.

Westfield exploded for four runs in the seventh. The Owls loaded the bases with none out, and senior right fielder Danny DiMatteo (Cape Cod Tech/Dennis, Mass.) pulled a ground ball single through the right side to score a run. Pinch-hitter Aaron Clancy (Catholic Memorial/Quincy, Mass.) walked to force in another run, and Barnes followed with the big hit on a ground ball that hugged the third base line to drive in two more and give Westfield a 7-6 lead.

Freshman Brian Hollister (Somers/Somers, Conn.) worked a 1-2-3 bottom of the seventh inning in picking up his first win, with sophomore pitcher Tyler Tongue (Minnechaug/Hampden, Mass.) working the final two innings to get his second save of the season. Tongue worked into and out of a 2-on, 1-out jam in the ninth inning, striking out the final two hitters.

DiMatteo pounded out three hits on the day, with McCormack and Connor Sheridan (South Hadley/South Hadley, Mass.) each recording a pair of hits.

Westfield State improves to 9-8 on the season with the quality win. Westfield received votes in this week's NEIBA New England Division III poll.

UMass Boston is now 8-8 on the season.

WSU baseball falls to Elms

WESTFIELD — Elms College took advantage of five walks and four Westfield State errors as the Blazers posted a 9-3 win over the Owls at Bud and Jim Hagan Field on Wednesday afternoon.

Elms (19-4) scored a single run in the first as Tim Gelzinis' (Dighton Rehoboth/North Dighton, Mass.) sacrifice fly plated Alex Hoss (Stafford/Stafford Springs, Conn.).

The Blazers tallied four more runs in the second after two were out. Stephen Harrison (Pomperaug/Southbury, Conn.) drove in Ben Ross (Woodstock Acad/Thompson, Conn.) with a base hit, Gelzinis walked with the bases loaded to drive in another run, Andy Vasquez (Knox/Queens, N.Y.) drove in Harrison with a base hit, and then Dan Brunetti's (Fermi/Enfield, Conn.) ground ball to short was misplayed to score the fourth run of the inning.

Westfield State (9-9) answered with three runs in the bottom of the fourth with Kyle Muphy (Westfield/Westfield, Mass.) and Colin Dunn (Westfield/Westfield, Mass.) each recording RBI singles, then Murphy stole home on the back end of a double steal with Dunn to score the Owls third run.

The Blazers added two in the seventh and two in the eight to pad their advantage.

Elms' starter Tom Weldon (6-0) (Cathedral/Springfield, Mass.) worked seven innings, striking out five without allowing a walk. He surrendered three runs, all earned, and six hits in picking up his sixth win of the season. Brian Langdon (Woodland Regional/Beacon Falls, Conn.) worked two innings of scoreless relief to finish the game.

Gelzinis finished with 3 rbi. Harrison and left fielder Aedin Wajda (Lyman/Lebanon, Conn.) each had a pair of hits for the Blazers.

Westfield State starter Ray Bell (2-1) (Grafton/N. Grafton, Mass.) took the loss, lasting just 1-2/3 innings, allowing three hits and four walks.

Dunn finished with three hits for the Owls. Senior OF Danny DiMatteo (Cape Cod Tech/Dennis, Mass.) had a pair of hits to extend a modest six-game hit streak.

Westfield will next play on Saturday, hosting Bridgewater State in a noon doubleheader that opens MASCAC conference play. Elms has a twin bill with Anna Maria on Saturday.

Coast Guard capsizes Owls late

WESTFIELD – Luke Thompson and Zach Serna delivered a pair of RBI singles in the top of the eighth inning to rally the Coast Guard Academy past Westfield State University, 8-7, in a non-conference baseball game at Bud and Jim Hagan Field on Monday afternoon.

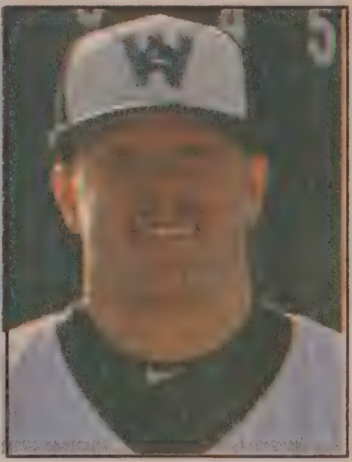
Coast Guard Improves to 11-13 with the win, while Westfield falls to 12-11.

The two big hits capped a see-saw afternoon for the two ball clubs.

Coast Guard pushed a run across in the first, with Westfield answering with two runs in the fourth inning as Nate Barnes and Dan Whigham led off the inning with back to back singles and eventually came around to score.

The Academy got four runs in the top of the fourth, aided by a catchers' interference call and three wild pitches before Will Stephens roped an RBI triple to right field and eventually scored on yet another wild pitch to give Coast Guard a 5-2 lead.

The Owls put their own crooked number on the board in the bottom half of the inning, scoring five times to regain a 7-5 lead, with the big blow coming on a bases-loaded, bases-clearing double from Whigham.



DAN WHIGHAM

Whigham finished 3-5 with three rbi. Owls' leadoff hitter Dan McCormack rapped out three hits and Jared Ferrari had two. Freshman Scott Strachan took the loss in relief.

For Coast Guard, Dan Finn got the win in relief. Stephens took the hill in the ninth to earn the save. Serna finished with three hits, while Thompson had a pair of hits and drove in two runs. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

Dunbar hits walk-off single

WESTFIELD – Westfield State junior Emma Dunbar (Weymouth, Mass.) hit a walk off single in the bottom of the seventh inning Sunday afternoon at Alumni Field, salvaging a split for the Owls in a doubleheader against MASCAC rival Bridgewater State.

Bridgewater State won the opener, 3-1, after plating three runs in the sixth inning.

Trailing 1-0, Westfield State pushed home a run in both the sixth and seventh innings to complete the dramatic come-from-behind victory, improving to 6-13 overall, and 1-3 in the MASCAC. With the split, Bridgewater State drops to 11-11 on the season, 2-2 in conference play.

In the sixth inning, after a one-out single from sophomore Maddy Atkocaitis (Westfield, Mass.), junior first baseman Julia Sullivan (West Barstable, Mass.) tied the game at 1 with a triple, scoring Atkocaitis from first.

Junior Sydney Ezold (Westfield, Mass.) led off the bottom of the seventh inning with a double, and pinch runner Julia Hebert (Auburn, Mass.) scored the game-winning run on Dunbar's one-out single.

Sarah Eugenio (Marshfield, Mass.) pitched a complete game to earn the win for the Owls, allowing seven hits and one run. The freshman hurler struck out five batters and walked none, improving to 3-3 on the year.

In the seventh inning, with a runner in scoring position, she also snared a hard liner for the third out to keep the game knotted at 1.

Bridgewater State scored its only run of the game in the fifth inning, when Kristyna Flaherty (Burlington, Mass.) ripped a lead off double. After a sacrifice bunt moved pinch runner Kacie Carvalho (Fairhaven, Mass.) to third, she then scored on an Owls error to give the Bears a 1-0 lead.

Junior Kelly McCarthy (9-5) took the loss in the second game for Bridgewater, surrendering two runs on six hits.

In the first game of the afternoon, Bridgewater State rallied from its own deficit, scoring three runs in the top of the sixth inning to pull out a 3-1 victory.

Westfield State pushed across the first run of the game in the third inning, when designated player Michaela LeBlanc (Marblehead, Mass.) ripped an RBI double to score centerfielder Bri Tortora (Worcester, Mass.), who reached base on an error.

In the sixth inning, Westfield committed two costly errors which led to a three-run inning for Bridgewater. McCarthy and Flaherty each hit RBI singles in the inning to lead the Bears to the victory.

Kathleen Bailey (Bayport, N.Y.) earned the win for Bridgewater, throwing seven strong innings, allowing just four hits and one unearned run. Sullivan pitched well for Westfield, giving up just one earned run and walking none, but still took the loss.

Westfield State 'Senior Day' split

WESTFIELD – Westfield State erupted for a 10-5 win over Fitchburg State in the second game of a Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference game to split the doubleheader and send its senior class out on a high note on Senior Day at Bud and Jim Hagan Field.

Westfield scored two runs in each of the first three innings to stake themselves to a 6-1 lead. In the first inning, Dan McCormack led off with a single, took second on wild pitch, advance to third on Danny DiMatteo's single and scored on a base hit by Nate Barnes. DiMatteo scored on the next play, scoring on a shallow sacrifice fly to center and scoring with a headfirst dive across the plate.

In the second, DiMatteo's RBI groundout scored Tyler Beach, and Tyler Adams singled and came around to score on an inning-extending error.

Holding a 6-3 lead in the 6th, the Owls tacked on four insurance runs, with Barnes singling to start the rally, and scoring on a double by Aaron Clancy. Beach drove in a run with a base hit later in the inning. Barnes and Beach each had two hits for the Owls.

Junior starting pitcher Matt Nunes (2-1) earned the win for Westfield, with senior closer Pete Liimatainen working the final 1-2/3 innings for the save.

Starter Javier Lozada took the loss for Fitchburg. Aaron Mooney finished 3-3 with a walk, 2 rbi and a run scored. Robert Lewis III finished 2-4 with two runs scored.

In the first game, Fitchburg State starting pitcher Tommy Parsons held Westfield without a hit through 5 innings on the way to a 5-3 Falcons' win.

Westfield finally broke through with a pinch-hit double from Stephen Brown to lead off the bottom of the sixth.

Fitchburg pushed across a lone run in the 3rd, fourth and fifh innings. In the third,

Andrew Currie singled and came around to score on a Nathan Littman RBI single. In the fourth, Mooney's RBI single delivered Mike St. John to the plate.

Littman hit a 2-run home run in the top of the seventh to extend the Falcons' lead to 5-0. Javier Lozada finished with three hits, including a double for Fitchburg.

Westfield scored three times in the bottom of the seventh to keep the game interesting, with Christian Morales RBI double the big blow of the inning, but Parsons fanned the final two Owls hitters to get the complete game win.

Parsons (5-3) allowed just two hits while striking out nine and walking four. Fitchburg is now 14-16 for the season, 7-3 in the MASCAC.

Freshman starting pitcher John Gegetskas (3-2) took the loss for Westfield. The Owls are 15-17 and 5-5 in the MASCAC. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

2015-2016

WESTFIELD – After Fitchburg State catcher Emily Comtois (Windham, N.H.) hit a three-run home run to tie the game in the top of the seventh inning, Westfield State right fielder Erika Gouin (Hampden, Mass.) hit a walk off sacrifice fly, leading the Owls to a 7-6 victory over the Falcons and a doubleheader sweep over their MASCAC rivals Saturday afternoon on Senior Day at Alumni Field.

Gouin's fly ball to shallow right field scored sophomore third baseman Maddy Atkocaitis (Westfield, Mass.), who tagged from third and beat the throw home with a head first slide. Atkocaitis led off the inning with a triple over the center fielder's head before Gouin drove her home in the next at bat.

Fitchburg State entered the seventh inning trailing 6-3, but senior Marisa Gemma singled to center and shortstop Maddie Medina reached on an error before Comtois launched the game-tying home run deep over the left field wall.

Westfield State led 2-1 in the second game before plating four runs in the bottom of the fourth inning. The Owls scored two runs on a Falcons throwing error when Emma Dunbar was caught in a pickle, then added two more on RBI singles by Sullivan and Gouin for a 6-1 lead.

Fitchburg cut into the Westfield lead in the fifth inning, when second baseman Marissa Gemma (Leominster, Mass.) led off the inning with a triple, then scored on a wild pitch. After a Maddie Medina walk, third baseman Tori Cyrus doubled to right center field to score Medina and cut the Owls lead to 6-3.

Both teams went scoreless in the sixth inning before the seventh inning heroics.

Freshman pitcher Sarah Eugenio (Marshfield, Mass.) improved to 7-6 on the season with the win, allowing four earned runs on nine hits and two walks. Galen Kerr (Concord, Mass.) took the loss for Fitchburg, surrendering seven runs, but only three earned, on 10 hits.

Westfield State took the opening game by a score of 10-2 in five innings. With the sweep, Westfield State improves to 13-20 on the season, 6-4 in the MASCAC. Fitchburg State drops to 15-15 overall, 5-5 in conference play.

In the opener, Westfield scored three runs in the third inning and six runs in the fourth inning to earn the victory.

Trailing 2-1 entering the bottom of the third inning, Sullivan tied up the game with a solo home run before the floodgates opened.

After an Atkocaitis single, Gouin then ripped a liner to left field which was misplayed by the left fielder and went all the way to the wall, scoring Atkocaitis and allowing Gouin to advance to third. Designated player Michaela LeBlanc (Marblehead, Mass.) then grounded out to the pitcher, scoring Gouin to give the Owls a 4-2 lead.

In the fourth inning, Sullivan drove in two more runs, singling to right field with the bases loaded to put Westfield ahead, 6-2. After Atkocaitis reached on error, Gouin doubled to the left field wall to plate two more Owl runs.

LeBlanc followed with a sacrifice fly and senior captain Jamie Ricciardi (Tewksbury, Mass.) hit an RBI single to center field to score Gouin for the final tally.

Gouin was 3-for-3 with a double, 3 RBI, and two runs scored, while Sullivan also drove in three runs on two hits, including her first career home run.

Sullivan (6-8) also earned the win in the circle for the Owls, pitching a complete game while allowing just two runs on four hits.

Falcons right fielder Michelle LeBlanc (Ashburnham, Mass.) had two of Fitchburg's four hits and drove in a run with an RBI single in the second inning. Freshman Kaylee Sylvestre (7-6) took the loss for the Falcons, allowing 10 runs on 11 hits.

The Owls honored their two senior captains—Ricciardi and second baseman Emilie Manna (Reading, Mass.)— in Senior Day festivities before the games.

Owls fall twice in Florida

CLERMONT, FLA. – Westfield State dropped a pair of softball games to open the 2016 season at the National Training Center on Sunday.

Westfield fell in the opener to Stevenson (Md.) University, 14-4, then lost to William Paterson, 4-3 in the second game of the split doubleheader.

Westfield got on the board first in the opener when Erika Gouin doubled to open the second inning, advanced to third on a ground out and scored on a wild pitch.

Westfield added two more in the third, as Emily Manna walked, Maddy Atkocaitis singled, with Manna scoring on an error as the ball got past the Stevenson outfielder. Westfield State starter Julia Sullivan (0-1) followed with an RBI single to plate Atkocaitis.

The Mustangs grabbed the lead, 4-3 with four runs in the top of the fourth, two scoring on a double by pitcher Jasmyn Ogletree.

The wheels disengaged for the Owls in the top of the fifth as Stevenson struck for 10 runs, the big blows being a 2-run homer for Ogletree and a grand slam from Kristen Mueller.

In the nightcap, Westfield State took 2-1 lead in the fourth on RBI singles from Sullivan and Atkocaitis. The Pioneers tied the game in the bottom half of the inning. Westfield took a 3-2 lead with another RBI base hit from Sullivan.

William Paterson snatched victory away from the Owls in the bottom of the seventh, as Kaitlyn Poretti tripled home a pair of runs to secure the win.

Late rallies stymie Westfield State

CLERMONT, FLA. – Westfield State was swept in a split doubleheader on Monday, falling to North Park (Ill.) University 8-6 in the opener and to Calvin (Mich.) University 12-7 in the night cap.

In the opener, Westfield trailed 4-0 after the top of the second inning, but the Owls struck for four runs of their own in the bottom half to tie the game, with Emilie Manna driving in a pair of runs with a hard-hit RBI single that scored Bri Tortora and Kayla Soucie.

Westfield took a 6-5 lead in the bottom of the fifth when catcher Lyndsey MacQuarrie plated Michaela LeBlanc with a sac fly to center.

The Vikings (1-2) tied the game with a single run in the sixth, and commandeered the lead in the top of the seventh with an RBI groundout from Amara Leith and an RBI single from Samantha Creachbaum.

Westfield put the first two runners on base in the bottom half of the inning, but the Owls' chances died when North Park center fielder Ashley Campos made a nice diving catch of MacQuarrie's fly ball to center for the final out.

Tortora finished with a pair of hits for Westfield.

Calvin (2-2) held off Westfield in the second game. The Knights took leads of 2-0, 5-1, and 7-4, but Westfield rallied to tie the game 7-7 in the fourth inning with a 2-run double from Angelica Banning on a blast down the left field line, and a run-scoring single from Maddie Keigwin.

The Knights answered with three runs in the fourth and two more in the fifth to secure the win.

Former Westfield High School All-Star Maddy Atkocaitis finished 3-5 with a triple and a pair of RBI for the Owls, with Banning also rapping out three hits and driving in three.

Westfield falls to 0-4 on the season. Westfield is back in action tomorrow the National Training Center in Clermont with a 9 a.m. start against Heidelberg (OH) College and an 11:00 a.m. date with The College of New Jersey. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

WINTER GARDEN, Fla. – Westfield State exploded for eight runs in the decisive fourth inning, and starting pitcher Julia Sullivan tossed a complete game to lead Westfield to a 9-5 win over Macalester (Minn.) College in the final game of the Owls' spring swing through Florida.

Trailing 5-0 entering the fourth inning, the Owls rallied, Sullivan drove in the first run with a base hit, Jamie Ricciardi plated two more with another single. The Owls tied the game when Michaela LeBlanc was hit by a pitch for the second time in the inning to force in a run, then Maddy Atkocaitis delivered a three run double to right center to cap the big inning.

The Owls added an insurance run in the sixth inning when Bri Tortora singled to score Julia Hebert.

Sullivan threw seven innings, yielding nine hits but no walks, and allowed just two earned runs.

The Owls dropped their first game of the day by an 8-0 score to Frostburg (Md.) State University. Bobcats starter Hanna Tavik three-hit the Owls, with LeBlanc registering two of the Owls' three hits.

Owls Sweep Doubleheader vs. Bay Path

MARCH 24, 2016

Atkocaitis hits two home runs

WESTFIELD — The Westfield State Owls softball team swept its doubleheader with Bay Path University Wednesday afternoon, defeating the Wildcats, 12-2, in the opening game and 14-4 in the second game at Alumni Field. Both games were 5-inning games.

In the first game, sophomore third baseman Maddy Atkocaitis (Westfield, Mass.) doubled and hit two home runs in her three plate appearances, driving in four runs to lead the Owls to the win.

Westfield batted around in the bottom of the first inning, scoring six runs in the opening frame. After centerfielder Julia Hebert (Auburn, Mass.) and shortstop Liz Kelly (Quincy, Mass.) reached base on a walk and a hit-by-pitch, respectively, designated player Michaela LeBlanc (Marblehead, Mass.) doubled to centerfield to drive both runners home. Atkocaitis then ripped a double to the left field wall, plating LeBlanc to give the Owls a 3-0 lead.

Bay Path pitcher Lauren Vallee (Bristol, Conn.) then walked three out of the next four batters, forcing Atkocaitis home on the final walk with the bases loaded. Westfield pitcher Julia Sullivan (West Barnstable, Mass.) then scored on a wild pitch for a five-run lead.

In her second plate appearance of the inning, Hebert singled to left to drive in the Owls final run of the inning.

After a LeBlanc walk to open the bottom of the second inning, Atkocaitis belted a line-drive home run to left center field to put the Owls ahead, 8-2. Westfield tacked on a third run in the inning when senior first baseman Jamie Ricciardi (Tewksbury, Mass.) smacked an RBI single, scoring Sullivan from second.

Marissa Sarna-McCarthy (Westhampton, Mass.) and Jailinne Ruiz (Hadley, Mass.) each responded with RBI singles in the third inning for Bay Path, but despite four hits in the inning, the Wildcats could not push across any more runs.

Sullivan (2-4) pitched four innings, allowing five hits and two earned runs to earn the win for the Owls. Freshman Saxon Bresnahan (Quincy, Mass.) pitched a 1-2-3 fifth inning to close the game out for Westfield.

In the second game, Westfield State freshman pitcher Sarah Eugenio (2-1) spun four innings of two-hit ball to lead the Owls to a 14-0 victory. Bresnahan once again came in to pitch the fifth inning and shut the door for Westfield.

After a scoreless first inning, Westfield scored four runs in both the second and third innings to take a commanding lead. A balk and a dropped infield fly led to four unearned runs for the Owls in the second inning, capped off by a triple from freshman centerfielder Bri Tortora (Worcester, Mass.), which drove in the final two runs.

LeBlanc opened the bottom of the third inning with a base hit, followed by an Atkocaitis double. A wild pitch then scored LeBlanc, and pushed Atkocaitis to third base. Sophomore catcher Angelica Banning drove in Atkocaitis with a single, before back-to-back RBI doubles from Erika Gouin (Hampden, Mass.) and Rachel Sheehan (Florence, Mass.) put the Owls ahead, 8-0.

Sullivan and Sheehan each hit two-RBI doubles in the bottom of the fourth inning as the Owls went on top, 14-0.

Gouin led Westfield with three hits, while Sheehan drove in a team-high three runs. Gouin, Sullivan, and Tortora drove in two runs a piece.

Westfield State hits the road on Friday, March 25 for a doubleheader at Worcester Polytechnic Institute beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Maddy Atkocaitis and her teammates celebrate one of her two home runs vs. Bay Path.

Softball Splits with WNE

3/31/2016

SPRINGFIELD — Westfield State team split a non-conference doubleheader with Western New England this afternoon at Golden Bear Softball Park. Western New England took the opener, 4-2, before the Owls held on for a 7-6 win in game two.

Senior co-captain Heidi Grieger (Hyde Park, N.Y) led the Golden Bears in the opener, as she tossed seven innings and fanned four batters without giving up any earned runs. With the win, Grieger improves to 5-4, giving her the most wins in the Commonwealth Coast Conference (CCC).

With two outs and one on in the bottom of the first, senior co-captain McKenzie Pezze (Albany, N.Y) tripled down the right-field line to score junior Gabby Lavinio (Dalton, Mass), putting the Golden Bears on the board, 1-0. Pezze collected two hits in the game.

Westfield State tallied single runs in the second and fourth innings to take a 2-1 lead on Erika Gouin's base hit that scored Kayla Soucie in the fourth.

The Golden Bears were unable to score over the next three innings, but in the fifth, with the bases loaded, junior Corianna DeLisi (Tuxedo, N.Y.) singled and drove in a run—knotting the game up, 2-2. With the bases still loaded, junior Katie Wood (Westport, Mass) fouled out, and Grieger, who was on third, scored—giving the Golden Bears a 3-2 lead.

Freshman Bri Tortora (Worcester, Mass.) went 2-for-3 and junior Erika Gouin (Hampden, Mass.) went 1-for-3.

Westfield State 7, Western New England 6

Westfield built a 6-0 lead and held on for the win.

The Owls plated two in the first on Gouin's rbi double. Westfield added a single run in the fourth, then added three more in the fifth on back-to-back doubles from Sydney Ezold and Bri Tortora.

Trailing 7-2 in the seventh inning, the Golden Bears put six runners on base and pushed across four runs, but came up short to the Owls, 7-6.

Four Golden Bears compiled multi-hits games, led by Wood who went 2-for-3 with three runs batted in. Sophomore Jenn Luba (Plymouth, Conn.), DeLisi, and Lavinio contributed two hits apiece.

For the Owls, Tortora added another two hits to her total, driving in two runs in five at-bats. Pitcher Julia Sullivan (West Barnstable, Mass.) helped her own cause, going 3-for-4 with one run scored, and Sydney Ezold (Westfield, Mass.) went 3-for-3 with a walk and two runs scored. Sullivan scattered nine hits and allowed three earned runs in picking up her third win of the season.

Westfield State Owls homer three times in loss

CHICOPEE, Mass. – Erika Gouin, Maddy Atkocaitis and Elizabeth Kelly all homered for Westfield State, but Elms College scratched across and unearned run in the seventh inning to edge the Owls, 5-4 in a non-conference game at Condon Field on Thursday afternoon.

Down 2-0 in the fourth inning, Akociaitis' bomb got the Owls first run on the board.

Gouin and Kelly hit their blasts in the top of the fifth. Gouin's solo shot followed a towering foul ball that had home-run distance that she had pulled just foul a few pitches earlier. Kelly followed a few batters later with a shot that plated Emma Dunbar and gave Westfield a 4-2 lead.

Elms turned three base hits and a fielders choice into a pair of runs in the bottom of the fifth.

The Blazers finished the walk off win in the bottom of the seventh, when Elizabeth Olzewski reached on an error to lead the inning, advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt, and scored on Erin O'Donnell's solid single to right field. The Owls threw to the plate but Olzewski was able to scamper home just ahead of the throw.

Freshman Saxon Bresnahan took the hard-luck pitching loss for the Owls. She allowed 10 hits and struck out four while issuing just one walk.

Raenna Tumel earned the pitching win for the Blazers (9-10).

Westfield State falls to 5-10 on the season with the loss. The Owls will have their first conference games of the season on Saturday, hosting Bridgewater State in a doubleheader at noon.

Westfield State lacrosse falls late to WNEU

SPRINGFIELD — Senior Taylor Scialdone (Yorktown Heights, N.Y.) scored the go-ahead goal with 2:22 remaining, lifting the Western New England University women's lacrosse team to a 10-9 victory over Westfield State University this afternoon in non-conference action at Golden Bear Stadium.

Scialdone led the way for Western New England with a team-high five points (four goals, one assist), while classmates Tori Cirocco (Carmel, N.Y.) and Brooke Kumnick (Granby, Conn.) combined for five goals and two assists. Senior Ashley Brunner (Stratford, Conn.) also chipped in with one goal and one assist as the Golden Bears earned their first victory of the 2016 campaign. Sophomore Shannon McFadden (West Islip, N.Y.) made a game-high ten saves in the cage, improving her record to 1-1.

Senior Samantha Lungarini (Agawam, Mass.) had a hand in seven of Westfield State's nine goals, netting three herself while setting up four others. Sophomore Brooke Williams (Wilbraham, Mass.) also finished with three goals, and senior Blair Smith (Milford, Mass.) added two.

The Owls employed three different goalies over the course of the contest, with senior Mimi Khampaeng (Hampden, Mass.) taking the loss after allowing six goals on 13 shots in 39:06 of action.

Led by a pair of goals from Lungarini, Westfield State jumped out to a 3-0 lead by the 16:27 mark of the first half. Scialdone got the Golden Bears on the board less than a minute later, however, and Western New England dominated the remainder of the period en route to a 5-3 lead at the break.

The Golden Bears continued to roll early in the second half, as Brunner, Cirocco and Scialdone each scored over the first 7:25 of the frame to extend Western New England's advantage to five (8-3). Kumnick pushed the margin to six with her fifth goal of the season at the 16:14 mark, but Westfield State would mount a late comeback to pull even.

Smith and Williams fueled the Owls' 6-0 rally with a pair of goals each, as the visitors tied the score at 9-9 with 5:49 on the clock. Scialdone spoiled Westfield State's comeback bid, however, scoring her fourth of the game on a feed from Brunner at the 2:22 mark. The Owls' had an opportunity to equalize again with 1:36 remaining, but McFadden was there to thwart the close range attempt.

The two teams were even in shots (24-24) and shots on goal (19-19), while Westfield State held a 30-28 edge in ground balls and the Golden Bears owned a 12-9 advantage in draw controls.

Western New England (1-1) wraps up its season-opening three-game homestand on Saturday afternoon against Smith, while Westfield State (0-1) returns to action next Wednesday at Mount Holyoke.

WSU lacrosse scales Mount Holyoke

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass. – Powered by goals from 10 different players, the Westfield State University lacrosse team defeated Mount Holyoke College, 11-5 in non-conference action on Wednesday evening. It was not only the first win of the season for the visiting Owls (1-1), but also the first series win over Mount Holyoke (0-2), who had won each of the previous seven meetings.

After a close opening half, which saw Owls' senior Roni Orcutt (Granville, Mass./Westfield) score at the 5:02 mark to send the game into intermission locked 2-2, Westfield State broke open the game with five straight goals to grab a 7-2 lead midway through the frame. Sophomore midfielder Stephanie Godek (West Springfield, Mass./West Springfield) paced the effort with tallies to open and end the rally.

Mount Holyoke responded with 19:18 to play as sophomore midfielder Leila Kouakou (Leeds, Mass./Northampton) fed it to herself on a drop ball and fired it in past Owls' goalie Mimi Khampaeng (Hampden, Mass./Minnechaug).

The Owls quickly answered as Orcutt sent a pass from behind the net on the left side to first year Alexa Tonelli (Shrewsbury, Mass./Shrewsbury), who cut down the middle and fired it past MHC's Isa Rodriguez (Columbus, Ohio/Westerville School) at the 18:19 mark. Godek then added a helper to her stat sheet as she fed a shot to a speeding Olivia Overdahl (Milford, Mass./Milford) for the score and a 9-3 advantage.

The homestanding Lyons made a run as sophomore Molly Dunphy (Williston, Vt./Champlain Valley Union) found the back of the net with 7:38 on the clock and classmate Kaitlin Braz (Tolland, Conn./East Catholic) made it a 9-5 game after collecting the ball from first year Haley Subocz (Northampton, Mass./Northampton) and sending a low shot in past Khampaeng.

Westfield State got the tallies back as sophomore Samantha Coyle (Weymouth, Mass./Weymouth) scored at 4:45 and first year Marissa Nimeskern (Hanover, Mass./Hanover) pitchforked a loose ball into an empty net to cap the game scoring at 1:29.

In goal, Khampaeng finished with 11 saves to earn the win, while Rodriguez stopped four shots in defeat.

The two teams equaled out in shots for the contest with 20 apiece, while Westfield State held a 12-6 edge in draw controls. The Lyons owned a 17-14 advantage in ground balls for the game, while also going 15-16 on the clear. Westfield State was 14-22 for the game in clears.

Both squads return to action on March 15 for spring break contests in Clermont, Fla. Mount Holyoke faces Fitchburg State (11am), while Westfield State plays Skidmore (4pm).

April 4, 2016

WORCESTER, Mass. -The Westfield State Owls (6-3, 1-0 MASCAC) came away with the 10-5 victory over Worcester State (3-6, 0-1 MASCAC) on the back of an impressive performance by senior goaltender Mimi Khampaeng (Hampden, Mass.), who tallied 15 saves.

Westfield came out of the gate hot scoring in the first half with six straight goals - three of them by senior midfielder Blair Smith (Milford, Mass). Senior Taylor Eaton (Nahant, Mass.), freshmen Sydney Lambert (Hanover, Mass.) and Alexa Tonelli (Shrewsbury, Mass.) also tallied points for the Owls during their 6-0 run.

Jackie Connors (Ashland, Mass) answered with an unassisted goal for the Lancers. With Worcester starting to control play, the Owls would strike back with a goal right before the halftime whistle when Lucy Barrett (Williamstown, Mass) netted the seventh goal for Westfield after a pass from Smith. The Owls would bring a 7-1 lead into the intermission.

Westfield came out of the half scoring two early goals that would quickly answered by four Lancer goals. The Blue and Gold goal scorers were Kaila Chase (Northbridge, Mass), Mackenzie Little (Marlboro, Mass), and Connors who added two of her own.

After the four straight goals from Worcester State, Khampaeng, aggressive off her line, would put a stop to Lancer scoring attempts for the remainder of play. The Westfield State Owls added one more goal from Rachel Testa (Westminster, Mass) to clinch the 10-5 victory.

Westfield State next travels to Smith College for a 7:00p.m. non-conference battle. The Lancers are back in action Tuesday when they travel to Rhode Island College for a 6:00 p.m. non-conference matchup.

April 6, 20

NORTHAMPTON – Westfield State won its sixth straight game since returning from Florida as the Owls posted an 11-7 win over Smith College in a non-conference women's lacrosse game on Tuesday afternoon

Westfield was led by three goals from Marissa Nimeskern and got two apiece from Rachel Testa and Hunter Zackaricz.

Westfield scored the final three goals of the first half, with Testa wrapping a pair of goals around a Nimeskern marker to take a 6-3 lead at the half.

Westfield held a 33-15 advantage in shots on goal in the game, with Smith goalkeeper Sarah Price coming up with 22 saves. Westfield split the game between goalies Mimi Khampaeng and Julia Hoggins.

Westfield improves to 7-3 on the season. The Owls will get back to conference play on Saturday, hosting Fitchburg State at noon. Smith falls to 4-6 with the loss.

Smith's OT goal lifts Owls

WESTFIELD – Westfield State senior captain Blair Smith (Milford, Mass.) ripped a shot from 10 yards out with 1:10 left in overtime to lead Westfield State past Bridgewater State, 12-11 in a critical battle for the top spot in the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference standings at Alumni Field on Tuesday night.

Smith's shot from the right side accounted for her third goal of the evening, and helped Westfield extract a measure of revenge for an overtime loss to the Bears in last season's MASCAC title game.

Westfield improves to 10-4 on the season and 3-1 in the MASCAC; Bridgewater falls to 7-5 overall and 3-1 in the league.

The two teams were evenly matched throughout the game. Westfield State managed early leads of 2-0, 3-1 and 4-3, but Bridgewater tied the game at 4-4 on a free position shot by Lauren Geary (Hull, Mass.) and took a 7-5 lead into the half after another Geary goal with 2:31 left in the half.

The Bears held a 9-7 lead after Alex King (Weymouth/North Weymouth, Mass.) scored with 18:36 left in regulation, but Westfield answered with a goal from Sydney Lambert (Hanover, Mass.) as she drove to the cage with 16:54 to play, then 30 seconds later fed Samantha Coyle (Weymouth, Mass.) for a game-tying tally.

King gave the Bears an 11-10 lead when Melissa Renauld (Framingham, Mass.) fed her from the left side and King's sidewinder of a shot snuck inside the far post with 5:26 left.

Westfield got the equalizer with 3:04 to play as Roni Orcutt (Westfield/Granville, Mass.) leapt to fire a shot over Bears' goalkeeper Allie Forman (Marblehead, Mass.) and just under the crossbar to force overtime at 11-all.

Both teams had chances to win it in overtime. Westfield got an early chance as Samantha Lungarini (Agawam, Mass.) broke in on goal, only to be thwarted by Forman.

Elizabeth Ettridge (Marshfield, Mass.) was awarded a free position shot for the Bears, but Westfield goalkeeper Mimi Khampaeng (Minnechaug/Hampden, Mass.) came up with a save.

Westfield's Smith hit a pipe on a free position shot about a minute before she netted the game-winner.

Smith and Orcutt led Westfield State with three goals apiece. Geary tallied three goals and an assist for the Bears. Bridgewater's Forman made 11 saves to Khampaeng's five.

Lax blazes past MCLA

NORTH ADAMS – The Westfield State women's lacrosse team scored the final five goals of the first half and cruised for the remainder of the game handing the MCLA Trailblazers a 15-2 defeat in MASCAC action at Shewcraft Field. With the win, the Owls remain atop the conference at 4-1 and improve to 11-4 overall. MCLA drops to 3-9 and 0-5 in the league.

In the opening half of play, the Owls scored the first three goals as three different players found the net. Alexa Tonelli scored the game's first goal, while Sydney Lambert and Lucy Barrett would convert to give the Owls a 3-0 lead. MCLA's Tanelle Ciempa would cut into that deficit when she would score off a nice spin move with 18:23 remaining to make it 3-1.

The two teams traded goals over the next two minutes making 4-2 before the Owls ran off five straight markers to end the half and seize control. Once again the Owls depth paid dividends as the goals were all scored by different players.

In the half, the Owls owned a commanding 25-6 shot edge and held a 13-5 advantage in ground balls. Seven different Owls recorded goals in the half.

The Owls would score the first five goals of the second half, two of them by Liz Navoni, to stretch the lead to 14-2 and they wouldn't be threatened from there.

Westfield didn't allow a goal over the final 43 minutes of play as they outscored MCLA 11-0 over that stretch.

Five Owls scored a pair of goals as Hunter Zackaricz, Sydney Lambert, Alexa Tonelli, Liz Navoni, and Samantha Lungarini led the balanced attack. In all, ten different Owls found the net. Westfield used a trio of keepers with Mimi Khampaeng earning the win in net.

Owls' Pechulis to Ride in Pan Mass Challenge

July 23, 2016

WESTFIELD – Westfield State women's lacrosse coach Jeff Pechulis will ride in the Pan-Mass Challenge bicycle ride to support the Jimmy Fund and the Dana Farber Cancer Institute.

The Pan-Mass Challenge riders cover a variety of routes on August 6 and 7. Pechulis has chosen to ride from Sturbridge to Provincetown, a route that makes an overnight stop at fellow MASCAC school Massachusetts Maritime Academy and is regarded as the toughest route among those offered by the PMC, with nearly 200 miles of riding over the two day event.

Pechulis is riding the route for the second straight year.

"The experience last year was amazing" said Pechulis. "Hundreds of families, patients and loved ones line the bike route each day to cheer us on and wave signs like 'You saved my mommy' or 'I'm alive because of you'. Over 4,000 volunteers are on hand throughout the ride to first thank us for riding and then to keep us hydrated, nourished and motivated."

Westfield State University student athletes and coaches make significant contributions to community service throughout the year, donating more than 1,500 hours of community service.

Last September, Pechulis and members of the Owls women's lacrosse team volunteered at the Team Lenhardt golf tournament in Duxbury, Mass. to help in the battle against cancer.

If you'd like to support coach Pechulis' ride, you can learn more or make a gift online at http://profile.pmc.org/JP0381

On the field, Pechulis coached the Westfield State women's lacrosse team to a 14-5 overall record and a share of the MASCAC regular season title. He was named the circuit's coach of the year as well as the league's sportsmanship coach of the year. – Courtesy of Westfield State Sports

2015-2016

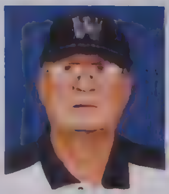
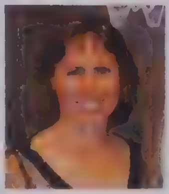
Enjoy a round of golf with fellow alumni, parents and friends of Westfield State University Athletics at the Ranch Golf Club, named the "best public golf course in Massachusetts" by Golf Digest in 2007 and 2008.

Your participation helps us provide the best possible experience for our student athletes. Money raised by the Owl Club goes directly to enhancing our athletic teams.

COACH RAY ARRA '65 AND COACH LISA MOSKOW





This year's guests of honor are retiring coaches Ray Arra '65 and Lisa Moskow.

Ray is stepping down as head coach of the baseball program after nine years at the helm. He's led the team to four MASCAC Titles, three NCAA appearances, and has a program record 187 wins under his belt. Ray is a Westfield State Hall of Famer who played both baseball and basketball. In total he has coached for more than 50 years at the high school and college level.

Lisa has coached the Westfield State cheerleading program over the past 18 years, guiding both the football and basketball cheerleaders while founding the competition cheering program. The competition team has won numerous titles and traveled to compete at a variety of national championship events.

Please join us in honoring these two longtime coaches who have helped shape the lives of many of our student athletes! If you are not a golfer, please consider joining us for the post-round dinner.

GOLF COURSE INFORMATION

The Ranch has consistently been named among the best courses in the state since opening in 2002, and was hailed by Golf Digest as one of the "Best New Courses in America." The golf course was created on a wonderful, historic piece of land. It's a mixture of open meadows and woodland, interspersed with beautiful creeks, and a dash of wetlands tossed in to make each hole exciting and memorable.

WESTFIELD – The 10th annual Owl Club Golf Tournament raised $20,000 to support Westfield State University's varsity athletics program on Monday, August 1 at the Ranch Golf Club.

A large field of 140 players included the tournament's guest of honor, Westfield Bank President and CEO Jim Hagan, who is a member of the University's board of trustees and has been active with numerous fundraising efforts, including co-chairing the Access to Excellence campaign that helped to equip the Woodward Center Field House and classrooms and with Hagan Field.

"We had another great day out on the golf course," said Westfield State director of athletics Richard Lenfest. "The tournament has become a signature event on our calendar and it was wonderful to have a chance to recognize Jim Hagan for all of the support he lends to our program. The tournament is an important fundraiser for us, and it was great see so many alumni, sponsors, local officials and friends, as well as parents come out to help us provide great programs for our student-athletes."

Westfield Bank was lead sponsor of the tournament, with additional lead sponsorships from Barnes and Noble College Bookstore, Whalley Computer Associates, College Hype Screenprinting and Embroidery.

The team consisting of Westfield State women's golf coach Jim Blascak, Gabe Crane '05, Mark Jemilo '11, and Ryan Hines '04 repeated as the tournament champions with a 17-under par 55. Second place went to the foursome of Randy Minde '05, Marty Pelosi, Mike Martino, and Jason Roy, who decisioned the third place group led by Owls women's lacrosse coach Jeff Pechulis on a match of cards with both teams turning in 15-under par 57s. Pechulis teamed with Vin DiStefano, Peter Clark and Ray Sullivan. Minde won the putting contest as well. Jemilo claimed the long drive as well as the closest to the pin on 16 to give his team an eagle putt. Mary Regan won the women's long drive. Tyler Ditmar earned closest to the pin on the 5th, Mike Tirrell was closest to the pin on 12, and Steve Marino '71 was closest to the pin on 17.

Players again enjoyed the Oasis, sponsored by Pepsi and Commercial Distributing, as well as the "Greatest Hole in Golf History" on the 16th, which featured an air-conditioned tee box and hospitality from Don Q rum.

Players enjoyed a BBQ lunch before the round, and a steak and chicken buffet dinner after the round. Friendly's sponsored ice cream. A sports memorabilia auction silent auction was conducted in conjunction with the Westfield Boys and Girls Club.

Other sponsors included Mayor Brian Sullivan, Delay's Market, the MIAA, Bertini's Restaurant of Salem, Women's Basketball Alumnae, Vantage Sports and Rehab, Rankin Rentals, Dr. Jonathan Fallon and Cooley-Dickinson Sports Medicine, Specialty Bolt and Screw, Custom Identity Apparel, Boathouse, All Star Car and Truck Rental, Advantage Fitness Products, Ricky's Porta Pottys, Amaral Soccer, Stadium Systems, and Bradford Builders. – Courtesy of Westfield State University
